ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1924.

THE TRAINING OF YOUNG WOMEN.

Not all the practical women of the older type, have given their daughters practical training. There are many of those women who are splendid cooks, who would never let their daughters do anything in the kitchen. They would remark that it was more trouble to show their girls how to cook than to do it themselves.

Few people thought, when the bells rang out joyously on November 11, 1918, that six years would pass and see the world still in turmoil as the result of that war.

The republicans practically have everything their own way in the conduct of national affairs for the next four years, having elected a sufficient number to control both the house and senate.

The election of Calvin Coolidge by the greatest plurality ever recorded in state evidence that the people admired and had the utmost confidence in the quiet, unassuming manner of Mr. Coolidge.

At Tuesday's election two women were elected governor, one in Texas and one in Wyoming. We opine if they make good in these states during their administration, that the movement will become a popular one throughout the United States.

Oregon banks have total deposits amounting to three hundred million dollars. We hope some of the depositors start in to spend some of the filthy lucre into various channels, now that the national election is history.

Number 13 is still on the job as a synonym of bad luck. La Follette will have 13 votes in the electoral college and Duffie, according to latest figures, will have the same, the number followed by a 6—a total of 136.

Candidates who want to get their strength in the various precincts of this county are respectfully referred to the published election results published in the News-Review today. These figures, unofficial, will not be materially changed by an official check.

President Coolidge having "brought home the bacon", Billy Sunday is going to send him one of his fattest turkeys for Thanksgiving. The president will sure have a fine feed.

Today's downpour is a fitting climax to a mud-slinging campaign. The country needs a good bath.

Tom Ray for governor sounds pretty good at this writing.

Tommy Johnson won the job Tuesday.
