School District—G. W. Burr, Geo. Bacon, T. B. Davis.

Municipal—B. W. Strong, A. F. Stearns, H. P. Rice, J. L. Campbell, T. J. Redford.

Price List—C. E. Manning, Mark Tidwell, J. P. Barker.

Publishing—Bert G. Bates, Geo. Bacon, C. H. Bailey.

The legislative committee was instructed to investigate certain proposed legislation and make report at the annual meeting which is to be held early in December. A number of legislative matters are to be considered by the league at that time.

The auditing committee plans to examine all expenditures in connection with liquor investigations and have report for next meeting. It was contended that these expenditures were not properly itemized and the matter was referred to this committee for investigation.

The league is planning for a large membership meeting early in December at which time the 1925 budget will be considered.

FRENCH RABBLE TO VENT SPLEEN ON U. S. JUSTICE

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.) PARIS, Nov. 7.—Five thousand communists, anarchists and other radicals plan to get together at the embassy at the Rue de l'ambassade this evening and demand the release of Nikolai Petrov and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, who were convicted in Boston, Mass., for the first degree murder of a paymaster and a guard in a payroll robbery in 1921.

A general meeting of communists and anarchists has been called and the intention is to have the manifestos parade to the American embassy.

The Parisian prefect of police has called off the reserves to protect the American embassy but Sheldon Whitehouse, American charge d'affaires, has asked for no police protection.

The prefect of police has announced that the gathering will be scattered by 200 police and agents assigned to look after the American embassy.

ROSEBURG

The Husband Tamer

by VIOLET DARE
AUTHOR OF "The Half-Tone Wife," "The Luxury of Love" etc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

PATRICIA CLEVE has become estranged from her husband. ANDREW CLEVE, who seems to feel that his young wife exists only to help entertain his business friends. He goes ahead after Patricia has insisted that she will live differently or leave him. She visits her sister.

CAROL WILLOUGHBY, and finds herself enrolled to help Carol's husband.

KEITH WILLOUGHBY, in his efforts to interest.

GREGORY HEWITT, a famous financier, in his affairs. Hewitt falls in love with Patricia, and for Keith she cannot refuse to join a western camping trip arranged by him.

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT
XXXVII—A SECOND HONEY-MOON

PAT smiled with pride as she looked out across the range, past the purple shadows cast by the trees to the sun-drenched rocks where Keith and Carol were sitting talking, oblivious apparently to all the rest of the world.

"It's been this second honeymoon for them," she observed lightly to Gregory Hewitt, hoping thereby to steer away from purely personal matters. "You came along with the offer of this trip just in time. If Keith had stayed home and yielded to the blandishments of that blonde girl partner of his, Carol and he might have been celebrating their first separation now."

She glanced up and noticed that Hewitt was studying her intently, but not looking at her. His glance was one of appraisal, and what he saw evidently satisfied him. Carol flashed self-consciously and went on talking a little nervously—more to keep him from speaking what she felt was in his mind, than because she thought her observations important.

"When I saw how things were going with Keith and Carol, I yearned to offer her a little sisterly advice," Patricia went on, sliding into the comfortable, low camp chair Hewitt had placed for her. "But that is the most useless task in the world. Girls like Carol think it is enough when they have just staked out a claim to a man. They don't realize that a home and babies aren't enough to hold men. You have to erect barbed wire, entanglements and walls charged with electricity, and even then you have to stand just beyond the wall ready with a gun to spike the invader."

"Are we worth all that trouble?" His use of "we" disturbed Patricia. She smiled warmly.

"I am sure that many women have tried hard to hold you."

"But he was not thus easily to be turned from consideration of her and him. Other people did not matter."

"I have had a letter from Mrs. Hewitt," he announced with an air of great importance. "and—"

"But before he could go on Patricia had murmured, "I hope that Mrs. Hewitt is feeling better," smiling afterward how flat and meaningless.

"GET THE SPEED FIEND"—BUTLER; COP KILLS ONE

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.) PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Clayton Newman, a motorist, was shot and killed today during a pursuit by police who sought to stop him from speeding. Newman's machine outran the car against a telephone pole.

Recently Director of Public Safety Butler ordered police to get the motor speed maniac.

BANQUET WILL BE GIVEN SATURDAY

The Yoncalla Basketball team has rented the train hall two nights each week for the ensuing year for practice.

School District No. 32 voted favorably on the $500 play shed item in their yearly budget. The Union High School Board No. 9 will meet November 10 to vote on their budget. The high school is eagerly awaiting the outcome.

The first six weeks examinations are over; everyone made satisfactory grades.

Mrs. O. C. Brown and W. S. Carpenter were here last week and gave us a talk on club work. Seventeen girls from the high school signed up for the sewing course. They will have Miss Baker for their instructor.

A Halloween Carnival was given at the Yoncalla high school October 30, to raise money for the student body and for the play shed fund. A prize box of home-made candy, offered by Mrs. Lasswell for the best looking booth was awarded to Barbara Benson and her assistant David Coons, who were in charge of the candy booth.

The booth was prettily decorated in autumn leaves, grinning pumpkins, black cats, small colored lights and orange and black crepe paper. Other booths were: The Fish Pond, the Kiss Booth, House of Horrors, Death Chamber, Tea Garden, Hit the "Nigger" Baby, side shows and a kypsy fortune teller. A vaudeville program of five good numbers was put on by the H. S. students with cooperation of the public school pupils.

Over sixty dollars was taken in, of which forty dollars was cleared. We are sure more would have been made if the weather had been more favorable.

We have eight new individual typing tables now, which does away with the high tables that were formerly used.

The new supplies and apparatus for the H. S. physics laboratory have arrived and the students are now able to carry out experiments on a larger scale.

A reception, given by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church for the H. S. faculty and student body, was well attended. We wish to thank our hostesses for the good time we enjoyed.

The first teachers' meeting of zone No. 4 was held at Drain, October 25th. The general assembly was called to order at 10:30 a. m. by President Lyman Patton. The teachers responded to the roll call by discussing their daily programs, its strong features and its problems.

The principal number on the program was a lecture, "Training for Grades," by Mr. Lyman Patton, of Drain.

Officers elected for the zone for the coming year are as follows: President, L. P. Miller, Yoncalla; secretary and treasurer, Audrey Lasswell, Yoncalla.
