

ANNOUNCING

WELLS & CHASE

as

Direct Factory Dealers

Handling

Overland and Willys-Knight

Motor Cars, Parts, Service

This is an important addition to the automobile business in Douglas County, and one which offers new possibilities in satisfaction to Motor Car users.

Until their new Salesroom and Service Station, now under construction in North Jackson Street, is completed, Wells and Chase will operate from their residences:

WELLS, 410 East Lane F. W. CHASE, 628 South Stephens

Both members of this new organization are men of broad experience in the automobile business.

As Representatives of the Overland and Willys-Knight, they bring Roseburg and adjoining territory the assurance of careful and courteous attention to every requirement.

Demonstrating models of the Overland line are now available for your inspection.

Willys-Overland Pacific Company

ROADWAY AT DAVIS STREET

PORTLAND, OREGON

BROADWAY 3535

LOCAL NEWS

From Day City— Mrs. C. A. Hoag, of Marshfield, was a guest in Roseburg last night and a part of today.

Salem Folks in Town— Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, of Salem, were visiting with friends in this city yesterday and today.

Guests in City— Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rowman, and daughter, Alice, of Medford, registered at the Umpqua last night, and were in town a part of today.

Took in the Celebration— Mrs. Deas and family, of Biddeford, were in the city today attending the celebration in honor of victory in the world war.

Up From Elkton— Ruth Sawyers, well known Elkton lady, was a visitor in the city today and a guest at the Grand Hotel.

Down From Canyonville— Theres Rauscher, of Canyonville, was in the city today enjoying the show staged by the fighters of the world war.

Down From Glendale— C. J. Sethens, well known Glendale citizen, was a visitor in Roseburg today while the boys were staging their celebration.

Visiting Roseburg— E. A. Meyers, of Portland, an official of the S. P. Co., was a guest at the Umpqua last night and today while here on company business.

Redecorating Interior— The rooms of the Grand Hotel are undergoing a redecorating process at the hands of C. M. Boyd, an experienced interior decorator.

Enjoyed Day Here— Mr. and Mrs. Mark N. Tisdale, of Sutherlin, motored over in time for the parade this morning and enjoyed the day in Roseburg.

Celebrated Here— Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wright, of Hood River, reached town last night and remained over to help celebrate Armistice Day in Roseburg.

Took in Celebration— James G. Cole, of Hoaglin, came down last night and remained in town over today to enjoy the Armistice Day festivities staged here by the Legion men.

Going Southward— Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ross, of Seaside, touring southward, were guests at the Douglas last night, and today witnessed the Armistice Day frolic in this city.

Visitors From the Orient— Mr. and Mrs. G. Hayes, of Shanghai, China, who are visiting in Oregon, spent last night in Roseburg at the Umpqua. They are enroute to the south.

Visiting in Oregon— Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Farnsworth, of Sacramento, registered at the Douglas last night, and were in town this morning to enjoy the parade. They have been visiting friends in Oregon for a few weeks.

Dinner Served— The Glenary W. C. T. U. served lunch today at the Presbyterian church. Over 150 persons were fed and a comparatively large sum raised for the W. C. T. U. children's home which will receive the proceeds.

Going to S. F.— Mrs. N. C. Lommel, Mrs. N. W. Lommel and Miss Sue Ring, of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, were guests at the Umpqua Hotel last night. The ladies are traveling by motor, and left during the forenoon for San Francisco, where they will visit friends.

Caring for Husband— Mrs. W. V. Siegen, wife of the traveling salesman who attempted suicide on the train Saturday night, arrived from Seattle yesterday evening and is at the bedside of her husband. Despondency was given as the cause of the attempt.

November 11th

Six years ago at Rethondes, France, an Armistice was signed by all the belligerents in the Great War, thus halting the raging, gigantic battle and ending 52 months of unprecedented suffering. That the thought should not perish from our hearts, we bow our heads in silent prayer and reverent devotion for those who gave their all in the cause of Liberty, Justice and Democracy. As a fitting tribute to those who fought and died in the World War—

This Store Will Be Closed Armistice Day

LATE WIRE NEWS

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 11.— Bounty on wolves by the state game commission has been raised from $20 to $25 and on cougars from $15 to $25, as a result of action taken by the commission at a meeting here. Each bob cat skin will bring $3 bounty. These bounties are in addition to existing state and county provisions.

PORTLAND, Nov. 11.— J. W. Townsend, 69, owner of a small dairy near the county farm, was killed today when struck by a Bridal Veil stage driven by Guy Halliday, Jr., about four miles east of Parkrose, on the Columbia River highway.

Witnesses said that Townsend became confused and jumped from his own truck, which was parked at the side of the roadway, directly into the path of the stage, which had been swung into the ditch by Halliday to avoid striking another machine approaching from the west.

Big opening dance at Community Hall, Sutherlin, Friday night, Nov. 14. Good music and a good time for everyone.

Order your Christmas greeting cards at the News-Review office, printed in neat designs.

Alaskans in City— B. M. Buckley, J. Glasner and Victor E. Anderson, of Nome, Alaska, were guests at the Douglas hotel last night and today, and enjoyed the fun put on by the Legion boys today.

Here From Portland— Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Iron, of Portland, reached Roseburg last night and stopped at the Grand Hotel. They were here this morning to witness the Armistice Day parade.

Week-End at Eugene— Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Jenkins and son, Fred, of Looking Glass, motored to Eugene on Saturday and spent Sunday with friends in that vicinity. They returned to Roseburg yesterday evening.

Leaving For Coos— Wayne E. Jones, local bond salesman, leaves tomorrow for Coos and Curry county cities on a periodical business trip to those localities. Mrs. Jones will probably accompany him.

Christmas and New Year greeting cards at the News-Review office.

Eastern Oregonians Here— Mr. and Mrs. A. Mulholland, prominent couple of La Grande, eastern Oregon, were guests at the Terminal hotel last night. This morning they enjoyed the sport furnished by the Legion men and the public schools.

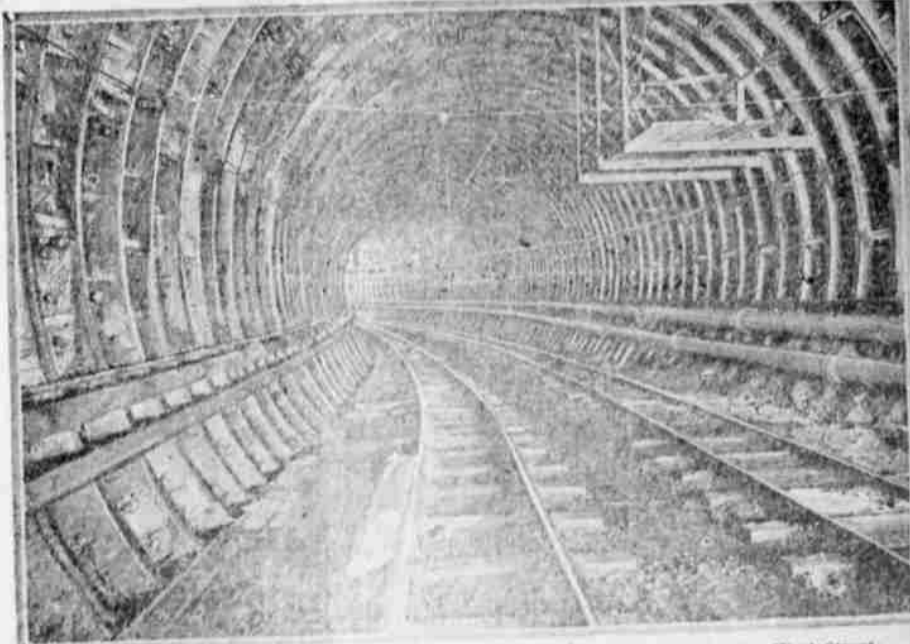

Here From Lebanon— Mr. and Mrs. John McChintock of Lebanon, are visiting in Roseburg with relatives. They will remain here for several days.

Visiting Friends Here— Miss Naomi Scott of Portland, arrived in Roseburg Sunday and is a guest at the B. Casey home of Miss Helen Casey. She will spend the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Babcock, of Port Angeles, Washington, were registered at the Terminal hotel today. They remained to see the street parade and enjoy the games.

In From Glide— Emma Snider, of Glide, was among the out of town people attending the Armistice Day activities in Roseburg today.

Dynamite Blows Away Last Barrier of Great N. Y. - Jersey Traffic Tunnel

Interior view of New York-New Jersey vehicular tunnel showing curve under West Street.

The greatest vehicular tunnel in the world has just been "blow through" under the western of the Hudson River. The remaining wall of earth between the two bays of the north tube, a narrow strip of the underground approach from the New Jersey shore and one from the New York side was shattered at this week by a dynamite blast. It is expected that the tunnel project, which was started in 1914 and that the first motor vehicle will roll under the Hudson at that time. The tunnel is regarded as one of the greatest engineering feats of all time. It is 2,250 feet long. The Hamburg vehicular tunnel which runs beneath the Elbe is 1,471 feet in length. The Blackwall tunnel in England runs for 1,221 feet of and Miss McCord... After an enjoyable... Mrs. M. L. Brown, who is a veteran of the Civil War, voted for Coolidge at the election last Tuesday. Mr. Brown cast his first vote for Lincoln in 1864 and has voted at every election since. This is a record that few can equal. Basketball practice has been stopped temporarily because of the weather. We expect to play some more games after the rain ceases, provided, of course, that it does not rain again. STUDENT.

SCHOOL NEWS

SUIT DISMISSED

The suit of the Equitable Mortgage company against Adelbert Abraham, a suit for the replevin of an automobile, was dismissed yesterday afternoon, when the plaintiff failed to prove the ownership of the machine. The court adjourned until Wednesday morning, when other civil actions will be taken up. Use D.K. for roup and other poultry diseases. Sold by Wharton Bros. Liberty... in a special engagement... Eastern Production, Inc., will present at the playhouse shortly its sensational new play, "The Masked Dancer." "The Masked Dancer" has been hailed as one of the most interesting and thrilling motion pictures of the year. It is a screen adaptation of Rudolph Lothar's impelling love story, "The Woman With the Mask."

Mother's Absence Causes Trouble for Children

Two years ago Mrs. Marie Josephine Newton Alsalle, former wife of a New York City art dealer, placed her two children in a boarding school and disappeared. A wealthy woman is willing to adopt them if the mother can be found in the same as theirs. Otherwise, they will have to go to a State institution.

MRS. BUSH TELLS OTHER WOMEN

How Pains in Side and Dragging Down Feelings Were Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Massena, New York.— "I had terrible pains in both my sides and a dragging-down feeling that affected me so that I could hardly walk, and I got run-down. Friends who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it and I have taken it with the best results. I do my housework and also some outdoor work on the farm. The Vegetable Compound has given me back my health and I cannot praise it enough. I am perfectly willing that you should use these facts if my letter will help other women who still suffer."— Mrs. DELBERT BUSH, R. F. D. 1, Massena, N. Y. The spirit of helpfulness shown in the letters we are constantly publishing is worthy of notice. These women know by experience what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do. Your troubles are the same as theirs. If you have pains and a dragging-down feeling and are nervous and irritable, profit by Mrs. Bush's experience and give the Compound a trial.

MRS. MARIE J. N. ALSALLE

ing Throat... BERLAIN'S... user is a friend