

LOCAL NEWS

Expected Here—
Mrs. Homer Hill is expected in this city today to spend the rest of the week as guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Martine, who reside west of town.

Arrived Last Night—
Burton Hutton arrived in this city last night from Corvallis, where he has been attending school, to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Spending Thanksgiving at Eugene—
Dr. A. F. Sether, who has been here on business for the past few days, left yesterday morning for Eugene to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his family.

Returns From Vacation—
Miss Ava Darby, who is employed by Crocker's Drug Store, returned home this week. Miss Darby has been spending her vacation in Portland and other northern points.

Go To Portland For Thanksgiving—
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bashford and son, left for Portland last night. They will visit at the home of Mr. Bashford's parents over the holidays. They will return here Friday.

Left For Los Angeles—
Mrs. Glenn Roymers, who has been visiting in this city for the past two months, and has been employed at the Majestic theatre, left yesterday afternoon for Los Angeles to locate.

Left For Grants Pass—
Lucille Sappington who has charge of the Dunning classes at the Helpline conservatory left last night for Grants Pass, where she will spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Dismissed Yesterday—
Miss Gladys Enger, who was operated on for appendicitis about two weeks ago was dismissed from Mercy Hospital Wednesday morning. Miss Enger will stay at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger for a few weeks.

Leaves For Portland—
C. S. Bartrum, who has been to the coast on business, and has been in the southern part of the state for the past two weeks, stopped over in this city for a few hours on his way to Portland yesterday afternoon. Mr. Bartrum will spend Thanksgiving in Portland.

Many Here For Holidays—
Among those who arrived from school yesterday and this morning to spend the holiday are: Thelma Trefren, Phil Berg and Marguerite Bush, of U. of O.; Rosina Porter, Icedore Matthews, Evelyn Quine, Don Hollivell, Marion Porter and Adelbert Young, of O. A. C.

Food Sale Yesterday—
A food sale was held yesterday by the high school P. T. A. at McKen, Darby and Baldwin's store. The parents and teachers put on this sale to defray the final expenses on the high school shrubbery. They stated that they had excellent success and sold many delicious articles of food.

Has Fine Berries—
Lewin Barker, who resides about three miles northeast of town, brought a fine spray of late red raspberries into the offices of the News-Review Wednesday. They are sweet and ripe and have the flavor of the early berries. Mr. Barker stated that he picked a half gallon bucket from his vines.

Girl's Club Have Social—
The Girl's Club of the high school held a social meeting at the schoolhouse at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to enable the newer members to become acquainted with those who have been in high school more than one year. Miss Nolan of the Helpline Conservatory, gave a talk and reading. Following this the afternoon was spent in informal games and getting acquainted.

Sophomores Defeat Seniors—
The seniors were defeated by the sophomores Wednesday afternoon at the high school in a debate. The question was: Resolved, that the Japanese should be admitted to the United States under the quota terms of the general immigration laws. The senior class took the negative side and were upheld by Clarence Rand and Charles Beecroft. The affirmative was taken by the sophomores, and was supported by Edith Starrett and Dorothy Geddes. The judges were: B. L. Eddy, Rev. A. O. Dodge and Mr. Campbell.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Left for Portland Last Night—
Mrs. N. Fullerton and her sister, who has been visiting here for the past month, left Wednesday evening for Portland to spend Thanksgiving. Mrs. Fullerton will probably stay with her sister there for a few days visiting.

Returns From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—
Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Arrived Here Yesterday—

Fred Trumbull, a Portland resident, arrived here yesterday to spend a few days on business.

Here On Business—

P. S. Moon, who was a business visitor here from Portland on Wednesday, left for his home last night.

In Yesterday—

Ralph P. Laird of Eugene, was a guest in this city yesterday and last night. He is looking after business affairs.

From Klamath Falls—

Frank Z. Howard, arrived here from Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon. Mr. Howard will visit here and transact business.

Accepts Position—

Miss Mildred Cochran, well known Roseburg girl, has accepted a position at the Majestic Theatre as ticket seller.

Arrived From Portland—

Miss Dorothy Michael arrived in this city Wednesday evening to spend the week as a guest of Miss Marion Schwarz.

Here On Business—

R. W. Thompson is in this city for a few days on business. Mr. Thompson is a representative of the Palmolive company.

Arrived Last Night—

Clifford Barker, of Portland, arrived in this city last night to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barker.

Here From Corvallis—

Leo Beckley, who has been attending school at Corvallis, arrived here last night to visit during the holidays with his parents.

Salem Man Here—

J. R. Campbell, Salem man, spent Tuesday in this city looking after business. Mr. Campbell left for his home yesterday morning.

Cannery Man in Town—

Frank J. Norton, of Sutherlin, well known cannery man of Douglas county, was in town yesterday afternoon looking after business.

Medford Visitor Leaves—

Evan R. Hildreth, who has been spending the past few days here looking after business affairs, left for his home in Medford last night.

Arrived Last Night—

Miss Verus Houser, who has been attending school at Corvallis this winter, arrived here yesterday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Portland Business Man Here—

O. J. Stapleford is in this city visiting and looking after business matters. Mr. Stapleford arrived here Wednesday from Portland.

Arrived Yesterday—

Miss Helen Churchill arrived here from Corvallis where she is attending school. Miss Churchill will be here for Thanksgiving with her parents.

Has Guest for Thanksgiving—

Miss Iris Rice has as house guest for Thanksgiving holidays, Miss Betty Nelson of U. of O. Miss Nelson is a sorority sister of Miss Rice.

Here For Thanksgiving—

Mr. Hendrix arrived in this city yesterday afternoon from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with his son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hendrix.

Motor Through—

N. R. Walters and wife, R. Berger and wife, and A. Schlenes, all of Medford, stopped overnight here Tuesday night. They are motoring north and left here Wednesday morning.

Here For Vacation—

Adrian Fisher is expected in this city to spend the holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher. Mr. Fisher is employed at Klamath Falls by the California Oregon Power company.

Guests Of Brother—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Wood, of Grants Pass, motored up yesterday evening to spend the Thanksgiving season with the former's brother, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Romano Wood.

Return For Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cobb, for many years residents of this city, but now of Hermiston, Oregon, returned to Roseburg yesterday for a visit with Roseburg friends. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cobb.

Stop Over Here—

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart, who have been making a tour of Southern California for the past six weeks, stopped over in this city last night. They are on their way home to Salem. Mr. Stewart is a contractor and builder in that place.

Left for Portland Last Night—

Mrs. N. Fullerton and her sister, who has been visiting here for the past month, left Wednesday evening for Portland to spend Thanksgiving. Mrs. Fullerton will probably stay with her sister there for a few days visiting.

Returns From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

NOTICE OF MEETING

Members of the Roseburg Rod and Gun club are notified that there will be a business meeting of the organization at Crocker's Drug Store at 8 o'clock Friday evening. All members of the club are urged to attend this meeting, as matters of importance are coming up for consideration.

Leaves for Portland—

Jack Wycoff, who has been a guest in this city for the past two days, left for his home in Portland last night.

From Salem Yesterday—

H. M. Peterson was a business visitor from Salem yesterday. Mr. Peterson left for his home this morning.

Marshfield Man Leaves—

C. A. Sandusky, Marshfield resident, is in this city from Tuesday and Wednesday here on business, left last night for that place.

Arrived Here Last Night—

Adelbert Young arrived here last night from Corvallis where he has been attending school, to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Coast Man Here—

Austin Titus is in this city for a few days visiting and looking after business matters. Mr. Titus is a North Bend business man.

From Eugene—

Ed Harney and H. J. Kallisky, both of Eugene, are in this city for a few days. They came here by motor and are traveling south.

Arrived From College—

Among those to arrive last night from O. A. C. to spend Thanksgiving holidays here were Jimmy Pickens, LaVerne Hawn and Clifford Fields.

Visiting in City—

Dr. Plyler, who formerly resided in this city, returned here for a short time and was greeting his friends on the street during the evening.

Here From College—

Glenn Radabaugh, who has been attending the University of Oregon, arrived here last night to spend the holidays with his parents.

Guests Here—

A. Willis and wife and F. J. Swaze, all of St. Catherine's, Canada, stopped over here last night on their way south. They left this morning.

From Oakland—

Jess R. Luswell was among the out of town visitors who spent Wednesday here. Mr. Luswell resides at Oakland and was here on business.

Business Visitor—

Frederica Weatherby was among the visitors who spent several hours here yesterday. Miss Weatherby is from the rural district and returned home last night.

To Bring Son and Daughter—

Dr. Belt left last night in his car for Corvallis, where he will meet his daughter, Miss Mary Belt, and his son. They will return here to spend Thanksgiving.

Will Arrive Today—

Mrs. A. W. Bowman and daughter will arrive here today from Marshfield, to spend Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. E. O. Chulz. They will be here till the end of the week.

Here For Thanksgiving—

Carl D. Shoemaker, formerly of this city, now located in Portland, arrived here yesterday with his family, and will spend Thanksgiving with his mother and other relatives here.

Well Known People Here—

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Turner, well known here, arrived in this city last night from Dallas to spend Thanksgiving. The couple formerly resided here and have many friends in Roseburg.

Passed Through Here—

Fred McMullen, former Roseburg boy, who has been attending O. A. C., passed through here last night on his way home to Myrtle Point, where he will spend Thanksgiving.

Here Wednesday—

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Henderson spent Wednesday in Roseburg yesterday afternoon. They spent the day visiting with friends and shopping. They returned to their home at Elkton last night.

Here for Thanksgiving—

Frank Chase left last night by motor for Corvallis, where he will be joined by his daughter, Helen, who has been attending school there. They will be here for Thanksgiving.

Stop Over Here—

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart, who have been making a tour of Southern California for the past six weeks, stopped over in this city last night. They are on their way home to Salem. Mr. Stewart is a contractor and builder in that place.

Left for Portland Last Night—

Mrs. N. Fullerton and her sister, who has been visiting here for the past month, left Wednesday evening for Portland to spend Thanksgiving. Mrs. Fullerton will probably stay with her sister there for a few days visiting.

Returns From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Returned From Trip—

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Mrs. Cora Cloud, owner of the Palace of Sweets in this city, returned this week from a trip to Washington. Mrs. Cloud stated that in her visit to the various cities in the northern part she found none that equaled Roseburg and that she is firmly convinced that business is as good or better here than in any of the other sections of the northwest.

Business Visitor—

C. G. Perkins arrived here yesterday from Springfield. He will be here a few days on business.

Left This Morning—

L. F. Belknap, who has been here on business for the past two days, left this morning for Medford.

From Reston—

Agnes E. Johnson was a business visitor here yesterday. Miss Johnson is a resident of Reston and left here today.

Stopped Here—

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kuechner of Portland were overnight visitors in Roseburg last night. They left this morning for points south.

Left Today—

Miss Gladys Gallier, who has been visiting here for the past two days left here this morning for Bandon.

From Seattle—

G. C. Hildebrandt and wife are in this city from Seattle to visit during the holidays. They arrived here yesterday.

Left This Morning—

O. R. Morgan, who has been spending the past few days here transacting business, left this morning for Eugene to spend Thanksgiving.

Here For Few Days—

Roscoe Green arrived here Tuesday to spend a few days visiting friends and looking after business. Mr. Green will probably return to Greens Station today.

Here From Bridge—

R. S. Weekley arrived here yesterday morning from Bridge, Oregon, to be here for the holidays and look after business matters.

Myrtle Point Man Here—

M. Stewart arrived here yesterday from Myrtle Point to spend Thanksgiving. He will be here a few days on business also.

Spent Thanksgiving Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nygaal arrived here Wednesday morning from Portland. They will spend Thanksgiving in this city and look up old friends.

Coal makes a fine fire. Pages make prompt delivery.

Coal makes a fine fire. Pages make prompt delivery.

GOBBLERS AND ELKS

BATTLE TODAY

An exciting football game is expected this afternoon between the Roseburg Elks and the Oakland Gobblers, at Laurelwood field. The Elks have greatly increased the speed of the team, although weight has been sacrificed. The two teams will be evenly matched in weight, and as both organizations are made up of veteran football players a good game is anticipated.

The Elks are preparing for a hard game with Marshfield early in December, although a date has not yet been settled upon. New material is being added to the team, and football fans are looking forward to interesting games at the close of the season.

Real "Laminex"—the perfect doors. Come and see them at Pages.

WHAT COULD BE NICER

Than have your furniture brightened up with Sapolin stains and enamels. Save 25 per cent on them at Fisher's Paint Store, 403 West Cass St.

Confidence Returns

Now "a long, strong pull," and business revival will go over with a wallop. All economists, except the professional pessimists who live on disaster and hard times, are agreed that the country is ready for a boom. Some even believe the boom will develop into a sensation, but even the most conservative thinkers are satisfied that the door of good