JEAN ROBERTS PASSES AWAY

Jean Elizabeth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, of this city, passed away at the family home Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. She was born September 10, 1908 and was 16 years old at the time of her death. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Undertaking Chapel with Rev. McCullagh of the Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will follow in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Miss Roberts has been an invalid all her life and has spent part of her time living in the northern part of the state. She is survived by her father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, of this city. She leaves a number of friends in this city who are deeply grieved to hear of her death.

Ging to Alaska—W. Wilson, who recently sold the Terminal City, expects to leave in the spring for Herschell Island, Alaska, where he has mining interests. Before coming to Oregon he was connected with the research department of the Anaconda Mining company.

Entertain Tuesday—The young people of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will entertain the Girls' club of the high school Tuesday, December 9, from 4 to 6 in the parlors of the church. There will be a program of music and reading, and the rest of the afternoon will be spent as a social hour. Light refreshments will be served. Those in charge of refreshments are Mrs. French, Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Gammon.

AUTOS COLLIDE—Two cars were damaged Saturday night, when Mrs. H. J. Denn's Star sedan collided with a Roseburg-Eugene truck, and then swerved into the Ford coupe belonging to F. W. Haynes. The truck was unloading goods at the Kearney grocery, using the side entrance. In passing in the very narrow space, Mrs. Denn's car collided with the truck, and the impact swerved her lighter machine against the Haynes car. Except for broken fenders and blown out tires the damage was not serious.

KID MCCOY FACES MURDER CHARGE

ship goes out of its way to help him and cheer him and bid him be square. And know stormy weather will sometime be fair. And the fault may be his and the anger be hot. But the duty is ours, if we help him or not. So show if your made of the right kind of stuff. Here's a fellow in trouble—that's reason enough."

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. Howard Improving—Word has been received here that W. S. Howard, who has been quite ill in the Eugene hospital, is much better this morning. His many friends here will be glad to know that he is improving.

Editor In City—A. L. Mallory, editor of the Oakland Tribune, was in Roseburg today attending to business matters. Mr. Mallory is a member of the Oakland Cobblers football team, and received a broken rib in the game with the Elks on Thanksgiving Day. The injury, however, is improving nicely.

Contract Is Awarded—The contract for the photographic work for the annual edition of the Umpqua, issued by the students of the Roseburg high school, has been awarded to Clark's studio, and the work of making the photographs and views to go in the edition will start soon. It is planned to get out a very creditable edition of the Umpqua at the end of the present school year.

WORKMAN HAS CLOSE CALL—Fred Kent, an employee at the local cannery, had a narrow escape from death this morning when he was caught in a belt and shafting while working around the machinery. The belt caught in his clothing and jammed him against the shaft. Fortunately his jumper gave way before he was dragged further into the machinery. His side was bruised quite seriously, but otherwise he was not hurt.
