

GIFTS FOR THE FAMILY

SPECIAL

Phoenix Silk Hose (all shades)	$1.00
Silk Underwear (stepins)	$3.75 & $4.00
Silk Gowns, special	$6.00
Silk Shirts (Phoenix)	$1.75
Silk Bloomers (Phoenix)	$3.25

Handkerchiefs

Wool and Silk Scarfs

Bath Robes

Silk Dresses, Just Arrived

Selling Winter Coats at Cost

SHOP EARLY

The Ladies' Shoppe

139 N. Jackson St.

LOCAL NEWS

High School Has New Student—
The local high school had one more student enrolled on its register yesterday.

Visits Sunday

K. J. Hatkey was a visitor in this city over Sunday. Mr. Hatkey is from Portland and left Monday morning for the north.

From Coast

Roy W. Bates was a visitor in this city Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Bates is from Bandon and was here attending to business matters.

Corvallis Man Here

W. Bruce Stewart was a guest in this city Sunday. Mr. Stewart is from Corvallis and was here visiting. He left yesterday morning.

Here Sunday

Frank R. Kerr spent Sunday in this city visiting and viewing the town. Mr. Kerr is from Portland and left Monday morning.

Visiting at Tillamook

H. Sayers, of this city, an employee of the S. P. Co., bought a new Star car at the week end, and drove over to visit friends in Tillamook.

From Medford

C. A. Swingart of Medford, was among those to stop over in this city Sunday. Mr. Swingart was a guest at the Hotel Umpqua while here.

Divorce Case Dismissed

The divorce case of Ida Burgoyne against N. D. Burgoyne was dismissed by Judge Hamilton yesterday afternoon, owing to lack of sufficient cause.

A Family Xmas Present

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Silenus, of Glide, came in from the up-river country at the week end and bought a new Star car for the family Christmas present.

From Portland

Among those from out of town to visit here over Sunday was C. H. Bennett. Mr. Bennett is from Portland and returned home Monday.

Mr. Myers Here

J. M. Myers was a guest at the Umpqua Hotel over Sunday. Mr. Myers is supervising the work on the new highway at North Umpqua.

Grants Pass Men Visit

E. W. Spalding and W. G. Robinson were guests at the Umpqua Hotel over Sunday. Both men are residents of Grants Pass and left yesterday morning.

Bandon Couple Here

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bush were visitors in this city over Sunday. They are from Bandon and were guests at the Umpqua Hotel. They left Monday.

From Amity

Among those to visit in this city over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vincent. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent are residents of Amity, Oregon.

Drove Home New Car

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hatfield came in from their country home Saturday and bought a new Star car for Christmas. Their choice was a 1925 sport model, which they drove home.

Visit in Town

A. A. Bowen and wife were among those from the north to spend Sunday here visiting and viewing the city. They are Portland people and returned home yesterday.

Buys Star Car

H. H. Kertis, of Bandon, formerly a resident of this city, came over from the coast town at the week end and purchased a new Star of Rapp Bros., which he will use in his dairy business.

Looking After Oil Interests

F. W. Borliske and W. I. Harris were visitors in this city over the week end. They are from Dunsmuir, California, and were here looking after oil interests. They returned home yesterday.

Visited Rapp Brothers

F. W. Morgan, representing Condit & Conner Motor Co., of Portland, was a visitor at the Rapp Bros. salesrooms for Star cars yesterday. Mr. Morgan was just returning to Portland after a week spent in the Coos Bay country, where he placed two carloads of Moon automobiles.

Prominent Sutherlin Men Here

F. H. Compton and B. Schmidt, both well known Sutherlin men, were in this city yesterday attending to business matters. Mr. Schmidt has purchased the building occupied by the Sutherlin Academy and in the spring will make it into a modern hotel.

The old members and several new ones before the 15th of December, the closing day of the 1925 membership campaign.

Old members, however, were dictators and only about 212 old members were signed up. New members, however, looked in and 59 new names were added to the list.

The campaign was conducted by a team of five members which split up under two captains, H. L. Epstein and Rodolph Ritzman and then with other helpers started a contest. Epstein brought in 53 new names and Ritzman 10.

The post will hold a rooster meeting tonight, at which time officers will be elected for the coming year. An effort will be made to continue the drive until the first of the year, although the results will not count in the state contest, but it is hoped to have every old member back by the first of January.

From Hood River

M. G. Hoffman was a guest at the Umpqua Hotel over Sunday this week. Mr. Hoffman is from Hood River. He left yesterday.

Here Sunday

Mrs. E. Tersanvers and Mr. Tersanvers were guests in this city over Sunday. They are Portland residents and left yesterday.

Portland Couple Here

Mr. and Mrs. Shepard of Portland were visitors in this city Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Shepard left yesterday morning for the south.

Coast Man Here

George S. Gothro was a visitor in this city over the week end. Mr. Gothro is from Coos Bay and returned home yesterday.

In Today

Among those from the rural districts to visit in this city today was James Cooper. Mr. Cooper is from Wilbur.

Mr. Miller Here

Roy E. Miller was a guest in this city over Sunday. Mr. Miller is from Portland and was here visiting. He left yesterday morning.

Here Today

Mrs. C. M. Conlon was in this city visiting with friends and shopping. Mrs. Conlon is from Sutherlin and returned home this evening.

Visit Here

Mrs. Clyde Rydell and Miss Mary Burchard were in this city yesterday visiting and shopping. They are residents of Elkton and returned home last night.

From Glendale

Mr. and Mrs. Syd Jaques were among those to spend the day here Monday attending to business matters and visiting. They are Glendale people and motored in.

Mr. Demis Here

Bill Demis is among those to arrive here today to spend a short time looking after business interests. Mr. Demis has charge of the road work under construction at Glide.

Called on Friends

Mr. Roy Kinzer of College View, Nebraska, who is representing Union College, of that city was calling on friends here today. He will leave for the south tonight.

Business Visitor

Frank Coll was among those from out of town to transact business in this city Monday. Mr. Coll is from Medford and left this morning. He was a guest at the Terminal hotel.

Visit Here Sunday

Lytle Marsters was among those who spent the day here Sunday. Mr. Marsters was here visiting. He returned to his home at Happy Valley last night.

Guests of Weavers

J. P. Rath and R. I. Norman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weaver at the Hotel Umpqua last night. Mr. Rath is owner of the Bank hotel at The Dalles. Both men are residents of that place.

Visiting at Klamath Falls

Mack W. Dougherty and son, of Yoncalla, left for Klamath Falls Friday to be gone a short time. They will go on to Tule Lake hunting grounds to try out duck and goose shooting in that district.

Mr. and Mrs. Riddle Will Leave

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Riddle will leave tomorrow for Portland, where Mr. Riddle expects to attend the convention of county clerks. While there they will visit relatives. They will return here after Christmas.

Visits in Arizona

G. V. Helbig, Southern Pacific fireman left this morning for Tucson, Ariz., where he will visit over the Christmas holidays with his mother Mrs. G. V. Helbig, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Helbig, who are spending the winter there.

Tourist Runs in Ditch

A tourist slid into a culvert yesterday afternoon on the Garden Valley road north of town. The wrecker from the Roseburg Garage was called and the car was pulled back onto the road. No one was injured and there was no damage done to the car.

Social Planned

There will be a hard times social at the Salvation Army hall on Tuesday evening. Prizes are to be awarded for the worst looking character. A parade will leave the hall at 7 p. m. after which the social time will be continued at the hall. The public is invited to attend.

Extra drag saw blades and saw setting tools at Wharton Bros.

Ladies' Winter Hat Sale

PRICES LOWER
THAN EVER

We are continuing this sale to close out the line of seasonable millinery.

Try on some of these lovely Hats—You will be pleased.

Specialty Shoppe

Mrs. S. M. King, Prop.
235 N. Jackson

The Perfect Gift from Wife to Husband HICKOK BELT AND BUCKLE

Select the right gift and the one most certain to please and to gracefully serve Father, Son, Brother or Friend—$1.50, $2.00, and more

Harth's Toggery

INCORPORATED

Dillard Man in Marshfield

Fred Schmidt, who resides at Dillard, near the junction of the Coos Bay road and the Pacific highway, is spending a short time at Marshfield. Mr. Schmidt will confer with Secretary A. K. Pearson in regard to securing a tract of land on which to grow broccoli. He is anxious to secure 100 acres of bench land. Mr. Schmidt and another party worked a 70-acre tract at Dillard last winter.

CARR'S OPEN EVENINGS

You can shop any evening now, till Christmas, at Carr's. Do it before 8:30 p. m. as our girls must leave then.

The only complete electrical stock in town—Hudson Electric Store.

For quick results use News-Review classified ads. Phone 135

Only $1.99 for a colorful Xmas tree lighting set. Hudson Electric Store.

10% CASH DISCOUNT ON ALL PURCHASES OF $1.00 AND OVER.

Powell Furniture Co.
238 N. JACKSON ST.

IS ARRESTED

A chambermaid in a house, was arrested and charged with the theft of a ring from Owen woman was charged in a complaint filed by R. L. Whipple, cash bail in the sum of $100 for hearing has been set.

Tools at Wharton

Law, well known boy was taken the examination of the United States navy tomorrow night for which will be his post. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roseburg boy to join the last two weeks.

Parts for your Hardie

WOMEN IN THE NEWS SPOTLIGHT

LADY NANCY ASTOR, MRS. MARY H. IRELAND, MRS. R. GARFIELD, HENRY C. WALLACE.

Set on Lord Astor's horses and lose; vote for his wife and the slogan of Lady Nancy Astor for re-election to the British Commons. Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace is in a position in the Naval Hospital in Washington, following an operation. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior in the Roosevelt administration, has been elected chairman of the Roosevelt Memorial Association. Mrs. Mary Hall Ireland, the former Mary Hall, a millionaire banker of Patchogue, Long Island, N. Y., who sensation ten years ago by eloping with Ralph Hall, her chauffeur, is now suing for divorce in New York courts.

KIWANIS ELECT

The Roseburg Kiwanis Club elected officers for the ensuing year at the noon-day luncheon held today at the Hotel Umpqua. W. C. Harding was elected president; Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, vice president; Frank Clemens, treasurer; O. C. Brown, district trustee; and the board of directors will be composed of V. Jackson, George Neuner, Ted Post, Horace Berg, Bill Whipple, Tom Ness and Louis Dillard.

Hamill Canada sang a beautiful baritone solo, "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," and the Kiwanis quartette sang two beautiful numbers. George Neuner made a short talk in which he predicted great success for the Kiwanians during 1925.

W. S. HOWARD VERY LOW

W. S. Howard, of Roseburg, who has been in a critical condition at a Eugene hospital for several days, is reported to be very low today. The children were all called to his bedside this morning and his condition late this afternoon was reported to be growing worse, with no hope held out for his recovery. He is suffering from gangrene of the arteries.

ELKS' CHARITY VAUDEVILLE TO BE BIG SHOW

The tickets for the Elks Xmas Charity vaudeville at the Antlers on Wednesday night are going fast and those who desire first class seats should call at the theatre at once for reservations.

Instead of five acts of high class vaudeville as announced, there will be six top notches. The vaudeville troupe will stage an after-piece designed to be a regular mirth-provoker.

A knockout jazz orchestra will provide the tanglefoot for the evening and the bills are all pepped up and rarin' to go for a night of fun.

Wednesday night's show is composed of Orpheum stars, Ziegfeld Follies queens and former movie actors. It'll be the best show of the year and every penny of the proceeds will be used for the Elks' charity fund.

Special price on telephone wire at Wharton Bros.

LEGION DRIVE

IS SUCCESSFUL

The membership drive of Umpqua Post of the American Legion ended last night, with the members of the team working until midnight to secure every possible name for the list. The drive closed with 302 members lined up for 1925, of which number 90 are new members. Roseburg has been leading in the drive in the state, and it is very probable that the post will take some of the prizes which have been offered. The state department has offered $35 for the post with the largest percentage of new members, $150 for the team securing the greatest number of old members.

Umpqua Post at the 1924 convention in June, reported 354 members, and it was hoped to sign up all of