

AVOID THIS IF YOU

Don't Wait Any Longer
Do your shopping
THIS WEEK at

CARR'S

PROMPT SERVICE
BIG STOCKS
POPULAR PRICES

Although Saturday was one of our biggest days and the store was crowded we gave prompt service.

To Late Shoppers

We bought our big Christmas stocks to last through the buying season. Therefore late shoppers should try Carr's first.

Merchandise—Service—Prices

Open Evenings Till Christmas

LOCAL NEWS

To Riddle—

Mrs. Corn Cloud and Mrs. Ethel Acker left yesterday for Riddle to spend a short time. Mrs. Cloud will be looking after business matters.

Business Visitor—

E. E. Hart was among those to spend Monday in this city attending to business matters. Mr. Hart is from Portland.

From Glide—

H. A. Ritter, who resides at Glide, was a visitor in this city yesterday. Mr. Ritter was here attending to business matters and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Leave—

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weaver left yesterday by auto for Yreka to attend the formal opening of the Yreka Inn on Thursday evening at Yreka.

Business Visitor—

F. Dicky was among those to visit in this city yesterday from out of town. Mr. Dicky is from Klamath Falls and was here attending to business matters.

From Rock Creek—

A. L. Houshaling, well known resident of Rock Creek, is in this city for a few days attending to business matters and visiting.

Mrs. Manley Here—

Mrs. M. E. Manley spent the day here yesterday visiting with friends and shopping. Mrs. Manley is from Canyonville and returned to her home this afternoon.

Funeral Tomorrow—

The funeral of Mrs. John Pennie will be held at the Undertaking Parlor tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited.

Portland Men Here—

George Dillon and C. W. Jones are spending a few days in this city attending to business matters. They are connected with the General Electric company at Portland.

Reginald Bell arrived in this city yesterday from Chicago to spend the Christmas holidays with his family. Mrs. Bell recently came here with her children to locate for her health.

Mrs. Neer Visiting—

Mrs. Merriel Neer arrived in this city Monday to spend a short time visiting with friends and relatives. Mrs. Neer is from Eugene and is a guest at the Grand Hotel.

From Portland—

Among those to arrive here yesterday to spend a short time attending to business matters was George D. Nolis. Mr. Nolis is from Portland and is staying at the Grand.

From Camas Valley—

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Richter are guests in this city yesterday from Camas Valley. They will be here a short time visiting with friends. They are staying at the Grand Hotel.

North Bend Men Leave—

V. C. Gorst and M. M. Richardson who have been in this city for the past day, left this morning for their home at North Bend. They were here attending to business interests.

Candy Men Visits—

Ted Gellaur arrived here last night to spend a few days in this city looking after business affairs. Mr. Gellaur is from Medford and is here representing a candy company of that place.

From Portland—

H. C. Rasmussen arrived in this city Monday to spend a day or so attending to business matters. Mr. Rasmussen is the representative of a Portland manufacturing company and is here in their interest.

Supply Representative Here—

E. C. McDowell, of Portland, arrived here yesterday from that place to spend a short time attending to business interests. Mr. McDowell is the representative of a Portland office supply and stationery company.

Leaves For Medford—

A. B. Francis, who has been here a short time attending to business matters, left yesterday for Medford and other southern points. Mr. Francis is a representative of a Philadelphia sand paper manufacturing company.

Guests at Umpqua—

Mrs. J. Scott, and brother in law, N. E. Hoover, of Albany, were guests at the Hotel Umpqua yesterday night. Mr. Hoover is a well known contractor and builder of Albany and he and Mr. Scott have the contract for the new Lithuan hotel at Ashland, now under construction.

Bill Poole Carded—

Bill Poole, the 170-pound pride of the Cottage Grove high school, who has been seen in action at Sutherlin by Roseburg fight fans, will make his debut in the Portland prize ring next Friday night, as one of the principals in a preliminary. His opponent will be Otto Beckman, a brother of Eddie Beckman, one of the leading light heavies of the coast.

Neighbors Century Mark—

N. R. Murray, an Oregon pioneer of 1833, who resided at Yreka in the 60's, celebrated his 100th birthday December 5 this year at his home near Molalla, Clackamas county. He was married in 1860 to Miss Mary Roberts, of Yoncalla, who died several years ago. He is a Rogue river Indian war veteran and holds the distinction of being Oregon's oldest citizen to have proved up on a homestead.

For quick results use News Review classified advertisements. They get results.

From Salem—

R. G. Simmons is in this city for a short time attending to business affairs. Mr. Simmons is from Salem and is a guest at the Grand hotel.

Business Visitor—

Herman Schulze was in this city for a short time yesterday attending to business matters and visiting. Mr. Schulze is a resident of Brockway.

Mr. Post in Town—

E. C. Post is a business visitor in this city for a short time. Mr. Post is from Portland and is here in the interests of a coffee company of that city.

From Portland—

H. M. Claffield arrived in this city Monday from Portland to spend a short time attending to business matters. Mr. Claffield is a guest at the Grand Hotel.

With Surgical Supply Co—

H. C. Harlan, representative of a Portland surgical supply company is in this city for a few days to look after interests here. He is staying at the Grand.

Visitor Leaves—

D. J. McKinnon, who spent a short time here Monday attending to business interests, left this morning for the north. Mr. McKinnon is from Eugene.

In From Reston—

A. E. Bushnell was among those in from the rural districts this morning. Mr. Bushnell was here attending to business matters. He is a resident of Reston.

Leave For Myrtle Creek—

Miss Agnes Pitchford, county juvenile officer, and Mrs. Florence Grandy, health nurse, left this morning for Myrtle Creek to attend to official duties.

Dental Supply Man Here—

A. A. Hale arrived in this city Monday from Portland to spend a short time looking after business affairs. Mr. Hale is a dental supply representative.

Visitors Leave—

H. S. Ritter of Glide and Jack Ritter of Milo, who spent Monday here visiting and looking after business affairs, left this morning for their respective homes.

Tire Man Here—

R. H. Morlan is in this city for a few days looking after business matters. Mr. Morlan is from Eugene and is the representative of a tire company here.

Mr. Sausen Visits—

W. J. Sausen is in this city for a short time looking after business matters. Mr. Sausen is from Corvallis, and is the representative for the Grandma Cookie company.

From Portland—

T. G. Lawrence arrived here yesterday from Portland to spend the next few days in this city looking after business affairs. Mr. Lawrence is a guest at the Grand hotel.

Guest Overnight—

T. F. Powers of Everett, Washington, and C. O. Powers, of San Diego, California, were guests in this city overnight last night at the Grand Hotel. They left for the south this morning.

Grocer Representative Leaves—

J. F. Staton, a representative of a wholesale grocer's house at Eugene, spent Tuesday in this city looking after business matters. Mr. Staton left for the north this morning.

Homecoming of Old Grads—

On Friday afternoon the Roseburg high school student body will entertain the former graduates of the school at a homecoming program. On the night of Friday the alumni of the school will play the high school basketball team.

Mr. Terry Leaves for South—

F. A. Terry, the district manager of the Pacific States and Loan association, of this city, left this morning for Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, and other southern Oregon points to spend the next three or four days attending to business matters.

Buy in Cottage Grove—

C. W. Partin, a Southern Pacific employee of Dothan, this county, is preparing to move to Cottage Grove, having bought residence property there from Ralph Hand, the well known wrestler. Mrs. Partin and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Amanda Gibson, have already occupied the new home and Mr. Partin will join them in January.

Taking Farm Census—

A. B. Haines of Ellenton, is spending a couple of days in Roseburg attending to business matters. Mr. Haines has been appointed census enumerator for the northwestern section of the county, and has a large territory to cover, his district covering all of the farms north and west of Oakland, except Gardiner, Seaside, Reedsport and Loon Lake.

Mr. Gullford Leaves—

W. S. Gullford, who spent yesterday at Sutherlin and Roseburg, left this morning for California. Mr. Gullford is with the Botta City ranch in California, and was here looking after business in the interests of the ranch. He states that the Sutherlin and Roseburg districts have more opportunities than any place that he has been for the development of farm land, and that in the next three or four years there will be more activity in farming than ever before. Mr. Gullford also stated that he likes southern Oregon very much and thinks the climate is far superior to the California climate.

Here are gifts for men. Gifts of every conceivable kind for men of all tastes, ages, sizes, business and character. Gifts for fathers, brothers, sons, men friends and acquaintances. You'll find the worthwhile, practical, durable lasting article in this big stock of men's wear. Look over these items and see which applies to the man you have in mind.

HARTH'S TOGGERY

Suit or Overcoat

BATH ROBE
COLLARS
TUXEDO SHIRT
SUSPENDERS
SLIPPERS
SHIRT JEWELRY
MACKINAW

BELT
PAJAMAS
SILK SOCKS
SWEATER
MUFFLER
UMBRELLA
UNDERWEAR
STETSON HAT

BELT BUCKLE
GOLF HOSE
NECKTIES
DRESS GLOVES
SILK GARTERS
CAPS AND HATS
FLORSHEIM SHOES

We'll be glad to suggest, guide and counsel your gift buying.
We know men's tastes.

Harth's TOGGERY

Business Visitor—

Loren Miller, a resident of Dilard, was a business visitor in this city yesterday for a few hours.

Mr. Rosenbaum Here—

A. Rosenbaum was among those from out of town to arrive here yesterday to attend to business matters for a short time. Mr. Rosenbaum is from Medford and is a guest at the Umpqua.

Architect Here—

W. D. Pugh, of Salem, formerly of this city, spent yesterday in Roseburg. Mr. Pugh is an architect and was associated with F. E. Alley here for a number of years. He is now specializing in school construction, and met with the school board last night in reference to the new building to be erected here soon.

Millspaugh Estate—

Carrie C. Millspaugh, Baptist missionary well known in Roseburg, and who died in Portland last month, left an estate valued at $57,000, consisting of $35,000 personal property, $20,000 real property in Multnomah county and $2,000 real property in Yakima county, Washington. Elizabeth M. Sanda, a sister, of Sandusky, Ohio, and Alice J. Sanborn of Portland, a half-sister, are the heirs.

Kenneth Crouch Here—

Kenneth Crouch, arrived in this city to spend a few weeks visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Crouch. Mr. Crouch is a recruit in the United States navy and has been stationed at Mare Island, California, for the past 2 months. He will return to his post after Christmas.

Visit Here Sunday—

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bingenheimer, and son, Dwan, were guests at the J. C. Householder home in this city Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bingenheimer are Eugene residents and returned home Sunday evening. They made the trip by auto. Mr. Bingenheimer is a contractor and builder of Eugene, and is well known.

ONE OF AMERICA'S STRONGEST COMPANIES

$5,000 for them if you die from natural causes
$10,000 for them if you die from accident and in case of permanent total disability the company will

1. Waive all premium payments
2. Pay you $25 per week for one year; and in addition
3. Pay you $50 per month for life; and
4. Pay $5,000 to your beneficiary when you die
5. If disability involves loss of limbs or sight as a result of accident, the company will pay you $5,000 in cash, immediately, in addition to all other benefits.

[In case of temporary disability, as a result of either sickness or accident, the company will pay you $25 per week for a limit of 52 weeks.]

"A Service That Endures"

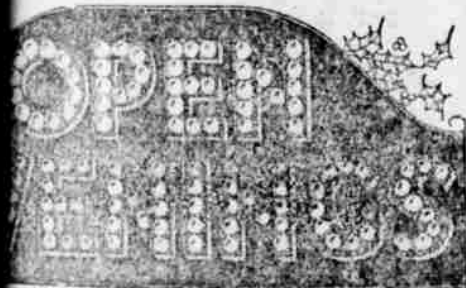

WEST COAST LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY
HOME OFFICE—SAN FRANCISCO

HARLEY J. WATSON, Resident Agent.
ROSEBURG, OREGON

WEST COAST LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Get Western Service, Best Protection.
Give names—Without obligation on my part, send me more information.

Name _____
Address _____
City _____
Date of Birth (MONTH) (DAY) (YEAR) _____

ONE OF AMERICA'S STRONGEST COMPANIES

UNTIL XMAS!

A store full of Practical Gifts

HUDSON ELECTRIC STORE
ROSEBURG

OUR vans are of the modern type which enable us to guarantee that every item of your property will be transported in absolute safety and with speed.

"We aim to please"

H. S. FRENCH
TRANSFER AND STORAGE CO.
PHONE 220

ED. MARSH BUYS TESTER INTERESTS

Ed. Marsh, Chevrolet dealer, has bought the interest of Clarence Tester in the Ed Marsh Motor company, and is now sole proprietor of the garage, machine shop and sales department. Mr. Marsh contemplates remodeling the front of the building on South Rose street at an early date, and expects to put the sales room for new cars in a department by itself, as well as having an exclusive accessories department to the business. A partition will be put across the front of the building, and that portion on the north of the business office used for the sales room. The repair shop will occupy the rear of the structure, while the entire middle of the garage will be used for storage and transient business. This arrangement will give Mr. Marsh one of the best display rooms in the city. The business will be continued under the name of the Ed. Marsh Motor company.

L. F. T.

Dance and Xmas party K. P. Hall 8:30 Thursday, December 18th. Do not forget your gift.

HOWARD STILL LIVING

W. S. Howard, who is very critically ill at Eugene, was still living this afternoon, according to word from the hospital where he is being treated. He has been in a deep stupor since early yesterday, and death has been momentarily expected by members of the family, according to word received here.

Thursday cash discount day. Take advantage of this saving. Zigler-Dee How. Co.

Buy electrical gifts where service is guaranteed. Hudson Electric Store.

BURNS
Cover with wet baking soda—afterwards apply gently—
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly