"The Chorus Lady", James orbes famous play, has been made to an extremely good motion pic-ship card. The Lodge of Perfection is at present building up a good sub-stantial membership, and its char-ter will soon be closed. It is felt by the members that all Masons should know more about this parti-mins heaved of the should know more about this parti-cular branch of the order and there-fore the desire to entertain. An-other reason for the dance is that the De Molay Lodge is in urgent-need of funds and the proceeds of the dance will be given over to this boy's organization. The very best music obtainable has been engaged and excertibles. and everything possible will be done to make the evening a most enjoyable one. Invitations will be sent to all Masons in southern Org-gon within a few days.
