THE CHARITY CHECK ACCOUNT.

The problem of the small checking account still bothers the banks. Some bankers predict that in time banks throughout the United States will refuse, uniformly, to carry checking accounts averaging below the profitable minimum.

An officer of one of the large national banks in Minneapolis makes this statement: "In this bank, unprofitable does not of itself mean undesirable."

This bank, it seems, feels that it has spent too many years cultivating a spirit of friendliness between itself and its customers to "cold shoulder" the small account now.

Minneapolis banks, which since 1915 had been making a 50-cent monthly service charge on accounts under $100, this spring raised the charge to $1.

How this problem of the small account is being met in many cities was disclosed in the survey made this year by the Missouri Bankers Association's Committee on Analysis of Accounts.

The day when passengers and freight will cross the American continent regularly in two days or less would seem to be brought quite near, now that a corporation is being organized by New York and Boston capitalists to develop a fleet of airships for commercial uses.

Gov. Smith of New York in his inaugural address, pledged himself to pursue a non-partisan policy. Political opponents will say that as the noted governor is surrounded by state officials of the opposite party, he would naturally look favorably on non-partisanship.

Two newspaper reporters over at Klamath Falls have unearthed the principals in a murder case. They ought to be ashamed of themselves to put it over the officers—after those rainions of the law had failed in their efforts.

How much better that the state legislature had its president and speaker chosen before that body convened. A lot of lost motion has been eliminated from the very beginning.

If there is any one thing that sets a town agog it's a fist fight. And this community had something to talk about today. You could get an ear full on every street corner.

If we told the truth, here's what'd happen and we'd be headed south for keeps: Only a short time ago the editor of a paper in Indiana grew tired of being called a liar and announced that he would tell the truth in the future and his next issue contained the following items:

"John Coyne, our groceryman, is doing poor business. His store is dirty and musty. How can he expect to do much?"

"Dave Conkey died at his home here Tuesday. The doctor gave it out as heart failure. Whiskey killed him."

"Married—Miss Silvia Rhoades and James Collins last Saturday at the Baptist parsonage, by the Rev. Gordon. The bride is a very ordinary girl who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jackrabbit and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a duck. The groom is an up-to-date loafer. He has been living off the old folks at home all his life and not worth shucks. It will be a hard life."

EPISCOPAL BISHOP TO PRESENT CASE (Associated Press Local Wire.)

CLEVELAND, Jan. 12.—The court of review of the Protestant Episcopal Church met here today to hear the appeal in the case of Bishop William Montgomery Brown. Briefs from both sides were before it.

Counsel for Bishop Brown who was convicted by the trial board of the house of bishops last May 31, of uttering doctrines not held by the church, relied upon much the same argument in the case of the trial in an effort to prevent affirmation of the conviction and a pronouncement of sentence.

Eight points of canonical or civil law were advanced by Joseph W. Sharis of Dayton, Ohio, attorney for the accused prelate, each being answered by the "church" advocate, Charles Dibble of Kalamazoo, Mich. These had to do with the constitution of the trial board, alleged defective machinery for review, the jurisdiction of the trial board, its failure to order depositions from all members of the house of bishops, the application of the legal doctrine of judicial notice to canonical trials and the denial of a motion that the prosecution furnish a bill of particulars.

The constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in America had purposely omitted specific authority to try a bishop on questions of doctrine because the "mutual independence of bishops in matters of doctrine was the heart of the protest" reformation in England when the bishops of that country refused to follow the dictates of the bishop of Rome, the bishops brief stated.

The church advocate's brief denies this conclusion. The contention of a bishop had been a law unto himself in matters of doctrine would establish each bishop as pope and absolute

(Associated Press Local Wire.) Loading and fraternizing on the field by players in Pacific Coast baseball league clubs is forbidden in a resolution adopted at yesterday's meeting at Los Angeles of club owners and directors.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Tex Rickard, apparently convinced that Luis Angel Firpo of the Argentine is a lost hope.

Witness the "big ten" of heavyweights selected by the league of New York's greatest indoor arena. Firpo can be beaten by six men in the country, Rickard says. Better than Luis, in his opinion are Charlie Weinst of New Jersey, Quintin Romero of Chile and Jack Renault of Montreal. Dempsey, Tom Gibbons and Harry Wills are rated above the Argentine. New Rickard's selections are due for a test in Boston February 16, when Romero and Weinst to battle for 10 rounds. When the outdoor season comes, Gibbons is expected to meet Wills and the win-

WAR BUGABOO IS SAID UNFOUNDED (Associated Press Local Wire.)

DETROIT, Jan. 13.—"The far eastern question" does not revolve about Japanese immigration, nor does it gain its place of prominence in American foreign relations through any bellicose intentions on the part of Japan instead it settles in China and that country's inability to maintain a high place in the affairs of the Pacific, according to Charles Beecher Warren, former ambassador to Japan and Mexico.

The bugaboo of a Japanese-American war because of the United States immigration attitude towards Japan is without the slightest foundation, he said. Japan is perfectly aware that the immigration act was merely an economic measure to protect American labor from the cheaper labor of Japan and no misconception as to the true purpose of the law.

Japan, he asserted, cannot understand why there should exist any racial prejudice in the United States against Japanese nationals. The weak point of the Chinese, of whom he spoke highly as a people, he said, was a lack of realization that a public office is a public trust.
