the law as it originally stood $435 was allowed for the same maximum term of service. This came about by a change in the dates of service by which the soldiers are eligible for the bonus. Originally the law provided that the service of applicants should have been between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1919. The amendment changes the latter date to November 11, 1918.

PLAN FOR BASKETBALL BASKETBALL FRIDAY A meeting has been called for all members of the Umpqua Post of the American Legion for Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the club rooms for the purpose of considering plans for basketball. The post has obtained promise of the use of the gymnasium at the army several nights each week, and proposes to organize a basketball team. Those interested are urged to be present; at the meeting when full plans will be discussed. A basketball game between the Eugene and Roseburg national guard teams has been arranged for Friday night, Jan. 16. These two teams furnished some excellent games last year, and it is expected that the contests this year will be equally interesting. The game on Friday night will be an exciting one, it is believed, as both teams are made up of old basketball stars who are experienced in the game and able to furnish the thrills which come with a close game.

SUCCESSOR TO KELLOGG WILL BE HOUGHTON (Continued from page one) Houghton early took a keen interest in German economics, which he found in a state of chaos as a result of the collapse of the mark and the lack of coordinate adjustment of the reparations problem. He sought German opinion in all quarters on this subject. The impressions he gathered enabled him to lend useful and effective co-operation to the American commission in connection with the drafting of the Dawes plan. During his residence in Berlin the American embassy has been the scene of numerous social functions at which representa-
