ATTORNEYS AND ALIENISTS TO GIVE SERVICES

Lord, was to be returned from Los Angeles today. The others are in jail here. A girl chum, May Fitzgerald, was questioned yesterday and related a vivid tale of "jazz parties," night life in San Francisco cabarets and other acts involving the Ellingson girl.

The first clash between the prosecution and counsel who would set for the defense, came yesterday when Public Defender Egan was refused admittance to see the girl.

The shooting of Mrs. Ellingson aroused San Francisco women today. Mrs. D. E. Egan, president of the San Francisco Federation of Women's Clubs, in a statement yesterday declared that steps would be taken immediately to prevent "the moral infection of decent young people by unscrupulous delinquents."

Solution of such problem as the Ellingson case, she said, "was to help moral infections as we stop physical ones by segregation."

Preliminary hearing for the girl has been set for next Thursday at which time it will be determined whether she is to be tried before a police judge or in the superior court.

OFFICERS BACK WITH PRISONERS

Sheriff Starmer and Deputy Sheriff Leas returned last night from Sacramento, bringing back Charles and William Foster, charged with the robbery of the V. A. Lovelace store at Reedsport on Dec. 14.

The two men waived extradition, but had they caused trouble on the return trip the sheriff being without jurisdiction in California would have had some difficulty in handling the situation.

Charles Foster was sentenced to the reformatory at Monroe, Washington, when a boy for a term of 3 years on a burglary charge. He also served 3 years out of a ten year term at Walla Walla for assault with intent to kill.

The two were employed at Reedsport during December, they told Sheriff Starmer. They admitted robbing the Lovelace store and confessed to having sold the greater part of the merchandise stolen.

The high school basketball team left this morning for Coquille, where they will play the high school team of that city this evening.
