PRUNE PICKIN'S

BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS— The boys are back From the battle front At the State House And we're hopin' They get the Taxpayers Outta the trenches By next Xmas.

LITTLE DUMBELL DORA Is back with us this week-end from the leguashure and what she thinks of it all cannot be printed in this column of moral uplift.

TAKE IT EASY "Take it easy, Don't get het; End o' the road 'S longways yet.

It's a right stiff pull In a durn tight place With scarce no Let-up on the trace.

We're hitched up some To trouble an' care, An' it's bad made wuss When we fuss and flare.

Stiddy and slow, Sartin an' safe, A lot sign better'n To fret an' chafe.

Keep to the road Through mud and dust; Don't get het Nor don't lost trust.

The end o' the road Mayn't be in sight, But take it easy, The world's all right." (Clipped.)

The litha boys from the south-ern metrop mused our lids all up down at the gym's yestiddy eve and we still think the hometown boys are mightly handicapped by havin' the baskets so high.

The fellers in the east viewed an eclipse today through beer bot-tles, the only use the glass con-tainers can now be put to.

We're dern glad the eclipse did-n't happen here because our elec-tric light bill is alius high enough anyway.

A bad bold bandit Up Portland way Told the cops Just yesterday That he had left The narrow way Because of shortage In his pay.

The jazz-who who gotta a thrill Outta life by usin' her mother as a shootin' gallery is now the subject for great lament'n and mournin' by the sob-sisters who blame crime on the wallin' of a saxa-phone and a shot of synthetic wood alcohol.

With bread that cheap And nuttin' down— Two bit would feed The hull blame town.

Senator Eddy, after floundrin' in the gloomy mud just south of Sutherlin for several hours yestid-ey eve, says the Douglas county variety of soaked terra firma is a dern slight stickler than the brand they throw down at the state leguashure.

When a fellar's garter drops down in public there's alius some wussacre to point out the defect."

FLOUR MILL WILL HAVE NEW BUILDING

Albert Baakford returned last night from Portland where he has been spending several days considering plans for enlarging and improving the Douglas County Flour mills in which he is associated with his father.

The present wooden structure is to be torn down, and a two-story concrete building will be erected. The constantly increasing food business has made it necessary that the size of the plant be increased.

The flour mills will be greatly improved and will be placed in quarters arranged for the greatest efficiency of operation, the plans being devised after years of experience in this business.

ASHLAND WINS EXCITING GAME FROM ROSEBURG

sses. In fact Roseburg's defeat may be largely attributed to poor passing, and failure to follow up basket shots. Time and again, under their own basket, Roseburg players would toss the ball into the hands of one of the visitors, and see it go down the floor for a score.

Ashland players after trying a shot for a basket followed the ball in and kept trying to make a score, but the Roseburg team, lacking the necessary punch under the basket.

In spite of the handicap of weight, Bob Gile, who went in at forward for Hellwell played an exceptionally good game. He was too small in size to stand up under the weight of the heavier visitors, but his floor work and passing were exceptionally good and he made several brilliant basket shots.

The Ashland team is an exceptionally good one this year, and under the coaching of Walter Hughes has developed into a quintette which doubtless will stand high in the state conference. The team uses a short pass very effectively and the team-work is exceptionally fine.

The game was preceded by a slow preliminary between two pick-up teams. The Roseburg girls team went to Sutherlin last night and defeated the girls of that place by a score of 43 to 6.

EXTRA SEATS NEEDED AT REVIVAL MEETING

In spite of the fact that many additional seats had been placed in the auditorium of the First Methodist Church it was filled to capacity when Doctor Miller spoke from Ezekiel 22:23. Intercession was the evangelist's theme and he brought his audience a great message by the use of apt illustrations and forceful language.

"We used to get our fashions from Africa by way of Paris, but now we get 'em direct from Africa." "You may call a peacock a guinea pig, but he will smell just the same."

"We Christians," said the evangelist are not creating right atmosphere for our children, and despite the hopes of many parents, their sons and daughters are going to hell just like their mummies and daddies."

An altar call to intercession prayer for the unaved young people of the community met with a hearty response. The Ledfords sang a splendid number and the big choir made the period of song a real season of worship.

Only the early comers will be able to get seats at the Sunday morning services. Come early.

BURR PLAYS GAME Bill Burr, a former Roseburg high school basketball star is making a good record with the freshman team at the Oregon Agricultural College. He has been high point man in nearly every game and has been in every game played by the team.

WORKING ON ROAD NEAR SUTHERLIN. In spite of efforts to improve the short stretch of roadway just south of Sutherlin, where the highway has been left ungraded to allow for an overhead crossing, the road is still in very bad shape, and many cars are being stuck there each day. The big stumps are having a hard time to get through and one was held up for an hour last night trying to force its way through the short stretch. The state is working on the road, and within a few days it is expected that it can be gravelled sufficiently to at least prevent cars from becoming stuck in the deep mud.

Seating capacity is limited to 250, so be sure of your ticket for Cadman-Talanina, Jan. 28.

GROUNDHOG THOUGHTS.

Ancient tradition says that on February second, the groundhog or woodchuck comes out of his hole, and decides whether or not to remain out by the weather conditions of that day. The sophisticated American passes by such a superstition with a smile. Perhaps there are some city bred folks who never heard of it. Yet those of us here in Roseburg who were brought up in country homes, find these ancient sayings very interesting.

Men should pay more attention to proprieties of footwear, according to representatives of the shoe retailers present at their organization's national convention, and not commit breaks like wearing awkward looking winter shoes in summer.

Changes in the president's cabinet are constantly occurring, which raises the question why the government can not keep its head officials year after year the way a business corporation would.

The churches are urged to give up the spirit of denominational competition, in an address by Rev. Dr. Vermilyea, general secretary of the Home Mission Council.

Well, the school site committee has disposed of its labors and "passed the buck" to the school board to make selection of a suitable plot of ground for the proposed new school building.

Two weeks of the state legislature have passed into history without any serious damage. Look out for the grand finale, boys. Keep your eye on the fellow who has an eleventh hour bill to put over.

The thrifty person earns a little, spends little and saves a little. Thereby he becomes independent.

What Roseburg needs is not more business places but more people to do business with.

SENATOR EDDY HOME OVER THE WEEK END

Senator B. L. Eddy returned last night from attending the state legislature at Salem, and will remain at his home over Sunday. Mr. Eddy states that this session is an exceedingly busy one and he has been kept very active. The investigation of the administration of Prohibition Director Cleaver is taking up a great deal of time, and as Mr. Eddy is a member of that committee he is having a hard time doing that work, and also attending to the many bills which he is restoring and those in which he is especially interested, besides the great mass of other legislative work to which he must give attention. The Detroit News says of Cadman and Talanina: "These artists give to the world something quite outside the beaten path in music; a fascinating and compelling program."

Plans are being drawn up for the planning mill and lumber paid to be started here soon by the Coen Lumber company. Mr. Coen states that the detail work is now being done, and actual construction will be under way about February 15. Materials are already being secured, and the clearing of the grounds will be started within the very near future. Better be a cottage owner than a castle tenant. Own a home.
