ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 1925.

THE SKIES ARE CLEARING.

Nineteen twenty-five was born with a smile on its face and a song on its lips. Not for a decade has the infant child of Father Time given as much promise of going through its swift growth without colic, teething troubles and other afflictions.

The outstanding feature of the new year is the universal swing toward conservatism. Radical experiments with the bases of production and distribution have fallen into disfavor.

The Dawes plan is being tried out. Pending results, Europe has a breathing spell of comparative tranquility. American crops have been fairly abundant and most of the harvest has been marketed at good prices.

There is only one cloud in the sky: Our productive capacity is still too large compared with the world's ability to buy. Let the demand fall off a trifle on account of new disturbances in Europe.

Expansion is a word that should be used only in cross-word puzzles for the next five years. Dan'l Whitsett, local curbstone broker, says the damcels have started wearin' shorter skirts and rolled socks which is a surer sign of Spring than the first robin.

TAX REDUCTION POPULAR.

The national industrial conference board shows by a careful survey that there is nothing more unpopular than any proposition to increase federal, state and local taxes, remarks an exchange. This statistical body shows that during 1921-23, inclusive, while state and local taxes increased nearly 15 per cent federal taxes decreased more than 27 per cent.

Governor Pierce says if the appropriation for maintenance of the state penitentiary is trimmed he will turn loose a flock of fifty convicts on the state as a penalty for the "misdemeanor." Well, we would just as soon have this bunch at our rear entrance as the tax collector putting a padlock on the front door.

Five persons from various parts of the state have been sent to the state asylum, their dementia having been brought about through solving cross-word puzzles. We ought to get a bill passed by the state legislature to immediately ban this innocent diversion—with a paid commission to handle cross-word puzzle "nuts" who persist in burning the candle at both ends.

The number of bills so far introduced at the present session of the legislature exceeds that of two years ago. But for the entire session they may be less. The fact that the members organized quickly at the beginning of the 1925 session, which was not the case two years ago, accounts, in a large measure, for the rapidity of bills introduced.

Fire escapes have been ordered placed in the basement of the state capitol at Salem. Things must be getting warm down at the state legislature when members begin to look around for ways and means to make a hasty retreat.

BIG CROWDS AT METHODIST MEETING

Doctor L. J. Miller, of Nashville, Tenn., General Evangelist of the M. E. Church, South, spoke to large audiences at the First Methodist Church both morning and evening. "The Price of a Soul" was his theme for the morning hour, and in the evening he spoke upon the subject, "Will There be a Final Judgment?"

PRUNE PICKIN'S

BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—

We note that Cross-word puzzle Addicts are now Bein' sent to the Bug house Down Salem way But why put the State to that Expense? Why not appoint A keeper for Every household.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS

A flour mill is where they manufacture posies. The local senator and representatives left yesterday for the legislature after spending a couple days bolterin' up their inner men with some square meals and kindly treatment.

DEAR ED OF PROONES: I am in a heluva dilemma. I've got a horse and a goat and nothin' else on the ranch to eat. Which would you kill? PETE SNOOS.

DEAR ED OF PROONES: I am in a heluva dilemma.

Mister Charley Wakemup Cadman and an Indian princess whose name sound like a healthy sneeze, will edify the villagers this eve with a concert minus the usual static which ought to be a treat for the local radio bugs.

THE Umpqua Squaws ought present the princess with a pair of galoshes.

Dan'l Whitsett, local curbstone broker, says the damcels have started wearin' shorter skirts and rolled socks which is a surer sign of Spring than the first robin.

The cross-word puzzle seems to be well-named.

Read the other day of a fellow who deliberately burned a hundred dollar bill. Well, it's a darn sight easier to burn 'em than to pay 'em.

Mayor Dock Houck wants an ordinance making it a law violation to interrupt a fellow when he's tunin' in his radio.

POSTAL PAY AND RATE BILL GETS THE RIGHT OF WAY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The postal pay and rate increase bill continued to have right of way in the senate today with its rate provisions still the object of attack by the opposition forces.

Senator Swannor, democrat of Virginia, had served notice that before final action on the bill he would again attempt by motion to have all of the rate increase provision stricken out, which would leave the measure in the same form as when vetoed by President Coolidge.

CREW OF SUNKEN SHIP WILL LAND

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 26.—Fourteen men making up the crew of the British schooner Speedway which sank in the Pacific ocean fifteen miles west of Cape Flattery Saturday afternoon after a fire and explosion will reach Esquimalt, B. C., today aboard the Canadian patrol boat Armentieres, it is expected.

CADMAN-TSIANINA CONCERT TONIGHT

The Cadman-Tsianina concert at the Helmline Conservatory tonight will undoubtedly draw one of the largest crowds of any musical attraction in Roseburg for many years. Charles Wakefield Cadman, whose beautiful Indian songs have been favorites for years with music lovers everywhere is a big attraction in himself, and with the Princess Tsianina, who in addition to being a full blooded Cherokee Indian, has a beautiful mezzo-soprano voice, the concert will be one of unusual merit.

DR. SUN YAT SEN HAS OPERATION

PEKING, Jan. 26.—Dr. Sun Yat-sen, head of the so-called South China government and one of the leaders in the formation of the Chinese republic, was taken to the hospital here this afternoon to undergo an operation for an abscess of the liver. His condition is said to be serious.
