CHANGES PROPOSED IN THE GAME LAWS

According to word from Salem a petition has been presented by residents of the Lewiston section asking for a closed hunting season in that vicinity for a period of three years. It is understood that the committee on game legislation is committing a bill making it possible for the game commission to cover the hunting seasons in local districts, so that seasons could be closed or opened entirely according to local conditions. There is also a proposal to have a shorter hunting season, opening the season on deer about Sept. 10. There has been opposition expressed to this proposal as many people desire an earlier season. The members of the Douglas county delegation would like to hear from the residents of the county who might desire to express their opinions in connection with the proposals, or any ideas which can be advanced in reference to the game laws.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County. In the matter of the estate of Joseph L. Clough, deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, executrix and executor of the estate of Joseph L. Clough, deceased, have filed their final account and report of their administration of said estate, and the court has fixed Wednesday, the 28th day of January, 1925, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, in the court room of said court at Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account. Therefore, all persons wishing to object thereto may do so on or before said day, at the time and place above said. Dated and first published this 25th day of December, 1924. HENESS A. CLOUGH, HURON W. CLOUGH, Executrix and Executor of the estate of Joseph L. Clough, deceased.

Canned Vegetables At this time of the year it is hard to get good green vegetables, so we must use the canned vegetables. The best canned foods are the only ones a person should use. We recommend the Royal Club brand as the very best and the price is no higher than some grades that are not so good. We have just received a barrel of fresh sauer kraut.

FRENCH CATHOLICS ARE UP IN ARMS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) METZ, France, Jan. 26.—"If a fight is forced upon us we shall accept it with an energy hitherto unsuspected," declared Father Bergey, deputy from Gironde department, known as a war time fighting chaplain, speaking before the Lorraine Catholic association last night on the Herriot government's clerical policy. "All the French Catholics from Metz, Strasbourg and Brest to Nice form one indissoluble family," the deputy continued, "the emotion aroused by the ministerial determination of last June (proclaiming suppression of the French Embassy at the Vatican, as one of the government's foreign policy) aroused us all." The meeting adopted a resolution favoring continuance of the embassy at the Vatican and demanding entire liberty for the work of the religious congregations.

NANCY, France, Jan. 26.—General De Castelnau, head of the National Catholic Federation, presiding at a meeting mainly composed of war veterans here last evening, said: "If anyone wishes to attack our loyalty to France we are ready to oppose ourselves with all our force, even by violence to such attempts." Referring to the propaganda carried on by the communists, he declared: "If necessary and if the doctrine now propagated should prevail, we are ready to go out in the street and fight it. Surely we abhor war, but there are several ways of making war upon war."

FIGHTING COCKS SEIZED BY COPS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26.—Ninety eight fighting cocks were fought their last fight, instead of dying in the arena in mortal combat, their end will be served in various city hospitals. The same chickens were seized in a raid by police on Morris Sullivan's roadhouse, the dining room of which had been converted into an arena.

The officers arrested 171 spectators and it was estimated that at least 500 others escaped by jumping through windows. The chickens were taken over by the Humane Society. L. W. Ahn, secretary of the society said they were worth about $15,000.

SUTHERLIN MAN HURT BY FALLING TREE

Le Mohr, well known stockman residing on the east side of town, is confined to his bed with three ribs broken and a severe injury to his back as the result of being struck by a falling tree which he cut on his ranch one day last week, says the Sutherland Sun. The accident happened on an isolated portion of Mr. Mohr's ranch nearly a mile from his residence, and that he escaped death seems almost a miracle. The tree was standing on a hillside and was leaning in such a way as to endanger a wire fence should a storm cause it to fall, and to forestall this possibility Mr. Mohr decided to cut the tree. In falling the tree swung around in such manner as to strike Mr. Mohr in the back, knocking him twenty feet into a dense growth of underbrush. As a result from a severe injury to his back, three ribs were found to have been fractured, the injuries being such that Mr. Mohr is unable to lay down and is obliged to be propped up in bed with pillows. The injury will probably confine him to his home for several weeks.

LOSES BOUNDARY DISPUTE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—New Mexico lost its boundary dispute with Colorado today in the supreme court.

New Mexico contended that the boundary should follow the line fixed in the survey of Howard B. Carpenter in 1902 and Colorado insisted upon the survey of H. N. Darling in 1858. Colorado has been exercising jurisdiction over the territory in controversy a strip about 500 feet wide and two hundred miles long.

SAWMILL ON COW CREEK

Another new sawmill, tributary to Glendale, is being built on the J. W. Thomas place at Anchor and expects to be ready for operation in about two months, says the Glendale News. The new mill is being out in by Stewart & Sons of Grants Pass, who have contracted to cut the logs on the Thomas place. It is to be of about 25,000 capacity and will run continuously when the weather conditions will

One Wife on Approval by VIOLET DARE

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED CYNTHIA and JIM LELAND sat down after their honeymoon, to find that Jim's mother intends to monopolize him as she always has. Cynthia cannot accustom herself to this, or to her mother-in-law's determination to remodel her. Jim leaves town on business, and Cynthia and Madame Leland quarrel. CYNTHIA makes the acquaintance of NOEL GARDNER, the black sheep of the town, recently returned from Paris, where his wife has divorced him. She also meets CECILE MALCOLM, a gay young widow who has designs on Gardner.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XXIII—A GAY HOUSE WARMING

THE impromptu tea party at Cynthia's that afternoon developed into a hilarious affair with Noel's arrival. Helene Jordan telephoned for her husband, who arrived, bringing his business partner, while Noel was making the acquaintance of Cynthia. Cecile put a record on the phonograph, and began to dance with Gregory Jordan at once; his partner promptly appropriate Helene.

VIOLET DARE

Cynthia, joining Noel in the butler's pantry, began to try to explain matters. "I didn't want Cecile to phone you; she did it before I could stop her," she told him. "I wouldn't have done it for anything." "My dear, don't you suppose I know that you wouldn't dream of asking for the key to my liquor closet?" he asked. "And don't you suppose that I know Cecile and her ways thoroughly? Don't let this thing worry you. As a matter of fact, I was going to suggest that you use whatever you found here that you wanted. And, incidentally, do you mind if I leave my private stock here? The laws here in town are being enforced so strictly just now that I don't dare try to move any of the stuff to the club."

"Keep it here by all means," she urged. "I'm so glad that you understand about Cecile's phoning you; it really worried me." "I don't ever let anything Cecile does do that, or you'll never have a peaceful moment," he advised her. "And don't ever worry about what I can do for you. You're really to me as a friend. Cynthia, and trust me to know the truth about you, or at least not to jump at a misunderstanding."

FAMOUS WOMAN DEAD

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 26.—Mrs. Fannie Bullock Workman, internationally known workman-clubber and honored by several nations for her contributions to science through her geographical surveys while engaged in her perilous pursuits died Friday in Cannes, France, according to word received here by her brother Colonel A. George Bullock. She was a daughter of former Governor H. Bullock of Massachusetts.

University of Washington crew candidates who have been taking the water each day for four and five mile spins, yesterday completed their first two weeks practice. This week Coach Callow plans to send his men over longer distances. The fact that they will have a four-mile race on the Hudson is not worrying old Washington crew men. They say that under Callow, Washington will place a crew on the water that will row more steadily and superbly at four miles than at three.

ST. LOUIS TEAM TO RELY ON VETERANS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) ST. LOUIS, Jan. 26.—Veterans again will be relied upon by manager George Sisler to place the St. Louis Americans in the championship running this year. Despite several trades this winter, the Browns' pilot has indicated there will be no substantial change in the team's battle front with the possible exception of the battery staff. The biggest question mark in the Brown's make-up, in Sisler's opinion, is the pitching staff. Although the absence of Urban Shocker, the Browns' mainstay for several seasons, will be felt, Sisler believes that the acquisition of Joe Busch, Milton Gaston and Joe Gard, from the Yankees in exchange for Shocker, has strengthened his twirling department.

PRESIDENT OF PRUDENTIAL CO. DIES

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) EAST ORANGE, N. J., Jan. 26.—Fred W. Tansey, a vice-president of the Prudential Insurance company died here last night, aged 61. He was taken ill January 21, and pneumonia developed yesterday. Mr. Tansey entered the insurance business as an agent and collector. He became assistant superintendent, a general superintendent on the Pacific Coast, general superintendent of New Jersey and then vice president of the Prudential.

Sportographs

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) An invitation to visit Los Angeles this spring while the Chicago Cubs baseball team is training at Santa Catalina Island has been extended to K. M. Landis, commissioner of major league baseball, by William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Cubs and the Los Angeles Angels. If the arbiter accepts it will be his first trip to the Pacific Coast since assuming his office as commissioner. When the Oakland county club Los Angeles, wanted to add nine additional holes to the club golf course, it did not levy an assessment on members nor appeal for financial aid, but it did ask members to contribute brawn. Last Saturday, 140 male members of this club responded. They donned overalls and for several hours worked with picks, shovels and rakes completing the necessary work.

Montana's quintet will arrive in Seattle today to meet the Washington team on the University floor tonight. Washington has been taking things easy since the O. A. C. game and will be ready for its second coast conference tilt tonight. Its lineup will be the same as that which defeated the Aggies.
