FLORENCE VIDOR in "The MIRAGE"

Florence Vidor, "loveliest woman of the screen," in a role different from anything she has ever done.

Edgar Selwyn's famous stage play brought to the screen in a gorgeous production.

A dashing, glamorous romance of life behind the footlights and in the high places of society.

An inside story of the social life of gold-diggers and men-about-town.

TONITE AND WEDNESDAY

Ride along—hold fast—we're off on a wave of laughter with the galloping fish—the most original laugh innovator of the season.

Pretty girls—diving Venus—newly wed—bill collectors—and Freddy, the trained seal, walks—talks—thinks—he's nearly human.

Boy, they haven't missed a thing that spells laugh from start to end.

Sidney Chaplin, Louise Fazenda, Ford Sterling and the fish are the headliners of this comedy drama extraordinary
