DOUBLE HEADER HERE SATURDAY

High School Team to Meet Marshfield Players at Armory.

DANCE WILL FOLLOW

After Second Game Between Guard Team and Ashland Elks Dance Will Be Held.

The season and a big crowd of fans is expected.

The Marshfield high school is expected to give the Roseburg team a hard run, although the record of both teams would point to a victory for Roseburg. The local boys defeated Coquille, after that team had won from Marshfield, but this does not assure Roseburg of the game, and the contest should be an interesting one.

The game between the national guards and the Ashland Elks will be one that will furnish many thrills for the spectators. The Ashland team is made up of the high school players who two years ago won the state championship at the tournament in Salem. These players have been keeping in good trim and the Roseburg team is looking forward to a tough time.

The guard team is made up of former high school stars also. George and Phil Singleton, Hugh Whipple, B. E. Larson, and Wally Hagg make up the first team, with a number of other well known players in reserve. The team has been coached by Dr. Finley, and plays a real game.

Immediately following the last game, the floor will be turned over to dancers and a jivey dance will be enjoyed.

The Ashland team will go on to Eugene to play the Eugene Guards on Monday, the game there being sponsored by the Eugene Elks.

SPEAKER SURE OF PUTTING INDIANS IN 1ST DIVISION

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 29.—Confidence that the Cleveland Indians will be a first division contender in the American league race this season is expressed by President E. S. Barnard and manager Tris Speaker.

"Our team has a lot of possibilities," they agreed. "Due to injuries last season, our club finished sixth, lower than its playing strength justified."

With few exceptions none of his men had his job clinched for 1925 Speaker said.

Charlie Jamieson, outfielder, Sewell, shortstop and Glenn Myatt, catcher, are the outstanding exceptions he said.

Speaker hopes to get a winning combination out of 34 players who will report at the spring training camp. This list includes 14 pitchers, 8 infielders, and 9 outfielders.

Finishing last year's experiment of sending all his battersmen to Hot Springs for preliminary work, unsatisfactory, only pitchers Geo. Uhle, Sherry Smith, Jim Edwards, Joe Shaute and Ben Karr, and catcher Albe Walters will be sent to the Arkansas resort.

Uhle, although only 26, is a veteran of the staff, having been with the team since he graduated from the Cleveland sand lots six years ago, but the real veteran is Sherry Smith, former Brooklyn southpaw.

The catching staff will be the same as last year with Glenn Myatt, a heavy hitter, doing the bulk of receiving aided by Luke Sewell and Walters. Two men, George Burns and Bob Knobe, will try out for first base.

Three second basemen, Chick Fawcett, and Stephenson and Joe Klugman will try out.

Joe Sewell at shortstop and Walter Lutzke at third base, look like fixtures.

Outfielders ordered to report are last year's regulars, Jamieson, Samuels and McNulty, with Speaker and four recruits available.

QUOTATIONS FOR OREGON WOOL ARE ISSUED IN EAST

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

BOSTON, Jan. 29.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow.

The demand for wool during the past week has been in narrow compass and prices are consequently a bit easy on the whole, although there is no fundamental weakness; on the contrary, buyers and dealers alike regard the more remote future with complacency, if not with optimism. There is no disguising the fact, however, that at the moment the American markets are a bit soft.

"As for the foreign markets, there is little change compared with a week ago except that the markets both in London and in the primary centers appear to be a bit firmer than they were."

"The trade naturally is disposed to await the opening of the goods market, and especially in the showings of the American Wool company which will be made February 4."

"Mohair is very steady with slightly more inquiry in some quarters."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following quotations tomorrow:

Scoured basis:

Oregon, eastern No. 1 staple $1.60@1.65; fine and fine medium combed $1.50@1.55; eastern cloth $1.45@1.50; valley No. 1 $1.40@1.42.

Mohair: best combed $5@90c; best carding 75@80c.

DEMPSEY QUILTS RING TO MARRY ESTELLE TAYLOR

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29.—May 20 will mark the end of Jack Dempsey's career, the termination of his ring and business partnership with Jack Kearns, his manager, and his second entrance into the state of matrimony, according to his own announcement here today. That date is the birthday of his bride-to-be, Estelle Taylor, film actress.

The king of the heavyweights of the world has fought his last ring battle, he declared. He added that his retirement from the ring and canvas was at the behest of his betrothed, who prefers a husband man to a pugilist for a business partner.

The arrangement between Dempsey and Kearns has netted the pair many thousands of dollars in the past few years as well as some valuable real estate holdings in Los Angeles. These latter, including a hotel and an apartment house, will be divided between the two Dempsey said and the fighter and his manager will go their separate ways.

Dempsey's decision to quit the fighting game was based on three main reasons; his belief that there was not a contender in sight able to give him a real battle; the dislike of Miss Taylor for pugilism and things pugilistic; and his fortune, which makes him independent of the fat purses offered by promoters.

Richard Unconvinced

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Unconvinced that Jack Dempsey intends to retire as a result of his forthcoming marriage, Tex Rickard announced today he was going ahead with plans to match the champion and Tom Gibbons for a title bout June 1.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR ANNIVERSARY RALLY

The week of February 8th-14th marks the fifteenth anniversary of the boy scouts of America. This is an organization for character-building and citizenship training regardless of race, nationality or creed. It is chartered by United States congress and President Calvin Coolidge is honorary president.

There are 542,218 boys and 154,063 adult volunteer leaders who make up 21,922 troops in the United States. During this period of time there have been 200,000 boys passed the scout age limit but who are still at heart, scouts.

Just as other great organizations and even as individuals, celebrate the anniversary time, so do the boy scouts celebrate their anniversary week.

It is planned that the Roseburg boy scouts attend church in a body on February 8th. This is scout Sunday. Arrangements are being made for special services at the First M. E. Church in which the scout orchestra will take part in furnishing the music. The scout oath and laws will be retaken at that time.

A rally will be held at the armory, Tuesday, Feb. 10th, 7:30 p. m. This will be free to the public and will be very interesting as well as instructive. The full program will be announced within a few days.

Friday the 13th is round up day. While there are already enough scouts registered to make up another troop it is hoped that recruits will be gotten for still another troop.

Saturday the 14th is "Hike Day." Just a good get-together tramp.

Boy Scout Collectors

"The first scout law is 'A scout is trustworthy,' and the fifth one is, 'A scout is courteous,'" says E. A. Britton, county scout director. If a Roseburg boy scout calls at your home or office, he will greet you in a courteous manner and will tell you that he is there for the purpose of collecting on the pledge card which you signed last September when you so kindly pledged a contribution to the inspection and will be equipped to leave you a receipt for any money or check received. He is doing his "daddy good turn."

PLANE IDEA SCOUTED

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Jan. 29.—Reports received here indicated that 200,000 units of anti-toxin for Nome, where deaths in an epidemic of diphtheria have been reported at from three to ten was today moving westward on the sled of Leonard Soppalla old time racing dog driver.

Tom Green drove a picked team of husky wolves from the Kuskokwim valley, southwest Alaska. Reports showed that Green was expecting to reach Ruby last night.

At Ruby, Soppalla waited after a forced drive from Nome.

Soppalla said that he would make a 200-mile run to Kallag, stopping at Nulato to feed his dogs. He noted that he had been hauling half his dogs half the time on his sled to rest them.

Ralph Mackie of this city, who flew in the American army in France in the world war, declared that a trip by two aviators from Fairbanks to Nome, which has been authorized from Washington, was impracticable. He said it was impossible to swing men and entire aviation at the temperatures averaging 46 below zero, which have prevailed recently in the Yukon valley.

The first two laps of mushing carried the anti-toxin, which was sent from here to Nenana on the railroad, 151 miles on its way toward the Bering sea, where it must travel over the ice. This 151 miles from Nenana to Hot Springs, was covered in 26 hours.

From Hot Springs to Ruby is 200 miles and at 8 o'clock yesterday morning Green had passed half this distance and was going
