Visiting Artists Are Honored at Luncheon

Princess Tsianina and Charles Wakefield Cadman, whose concert here on Monday evening was a gala event in musical circles, were the guests at luncheon Tuesday of Mr and Mrs Charles Heinline who invited the members of the Douglas County Music Teachers Association to meet the artists. A basket of pink carnations centered the large table, and two small tables held the same blooms in bud vases

Covers were placed for Princess Tsianina, Charles Wakefield Cadman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brand, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strang, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Arundel, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Arthur Knauss, Mrs. E. T. Melvin, Mrs. Charles G. Stanton, Mrs. L. B. Moore, Mrs. C. L. Rusho, Miss Lucille Sappington, Miss Evelyn Nolan, Miss Dorothy Winston, Dr. L. J. Miller, B. W. Bates, Harry Crocker, Jack Shields and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline.

An impromptu program entertained the group in the short time after luncheon before the honor guests were compelled to take their train. Mrs. Strang, and Mrs. Brand sang several of Mr. Cadman's compositions accompanied by Mr. Cadman, and Mrs. Melvin and Miss Sappington played several numbers. Miss Nolan read, and the Princess Tsianina gave a humorous number, singing one of Mr. Cadman's songs as it might be sung by a country girl appearing in public for the first time.

Tsianina and Mr. Cadman left on the afternoon train for San Francisco, and were accompanied to the station by the luncheon guests.

Pearl Pyritz Is Teaching in California

Pearl Pyritz, former student in the department of physical education, is now physical education instructor at the El Retiro school for girls at San Fernando, California, about 25 miles from Los Angeles, according to word received here.

Miss Pyritz accepted this position at Thanksgiving time, having been with the Heinline Conservatory of Roseburg as dancing instructor since September.

"The El Retiro school is in session the year around," writes Miss Pyritz. "We have no vacation times as most schools have. I get a day to myself only once in a while, as we are very busy all of the time. I have charge of the clinic department as well as physical education, and for the past few weeks I have been nurse, doctor, and general secretary as well.

"Anyone is mistaken who says this part of California is warm. It is colder here than I have ever known it to be in Oregon and I sometimes get homesick to be back again."—Oregon Emerald.

THEATRES

ANTLERS THEATRE.

Much of the action of Rafael Sabatini's famous novel "Captain Blood," which will be the attraction at the Antlers Theatre on Sunday, is laid on the Barbadoes, an island of the British West Indies. It is thought that the name is derived from the Indian fig tree which the Portuguese called las babadas (the bearded). The capital, Bridgetown, is reproduced in the film as it appeared in 1685 when Captain Blood was sent to the Barbadoes by the cruel King James. J. Warren Kerrigan has the title role and Jean Paige the leading feminine role. Templar Saxe is cast as Governor Stead and Wilfried North as Col Bishop.

Great care has been exercised by Director David Smith to make the production historically correct in the smallest detail.

LIBERTY THEATRE.

R. William Neill directed Vanity's Price at the Liberty Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, which was written directly for the screen by Paul Bern. A notable cast, including Anna Q. Nilson, Lucille Ricksen, Cissie Fitzgerald, Dot Farley, Wyndham Standing, Stuart Holmes, Arthur Rankin, Robert Bolder, Charles Newton and others enact the daringly frank story in which Vanna Du Maurier, noted actress, determines to recover her lost youth and does so at a terrible price. The settings are gorgeous, and the acting is particularly brilliant.

DESIGNING FOR THE YOUNG GIRL A FINE ART

THERE is a fine art in the designing of clothes for the young girl. To incorporate just the correct amount of current tendencies in fashion, without in any way sacrificing the spirit of "jeunesse" requires a degree of taste and sense of the fitness of things which is possessed by few.

Continental and English children are in general far more simply dressed than their American cousins. This may be in part caused by the fact that children on the other side of the water are kept more closely to the "nursery" or the "schoolroom," and do not mingle as freely with the grown-up members of the family as is the custom in America. Be that as it may, their clothes reflect enguaging and appropriate simplicity combined with a perfectly adequate degree of becomingness and chic.

Take for instance this little two piece costume which has borrowed the ensemble idea from its grown-up sisters but interpreted it in the inimitable spirit of just fourteen. It is of brown kasha, trimmed with a front panel made of printed crepe in a gay plaid, which also forms the dress beneath. The coat fastens all the way down the front panel, and has a childish rolling collar and big cuffs and pocket trimmings of the plaid silk.

This little costume is extremely up-to-date too, for Henri Creange Cheney style authority, tells us that the newest note for Spring will be ensembles showing a printed silk dress worn with a coat lined with the same material as the dress.

Adjustable Coiffure Over Bob, Fashion's Latest Idea

LA RENEE COIFFURE ✧ EXTRA HAIR WITH SPANISH COMB ✧ THE BOB TRANSFORMED

CHICAGO—Well dressed women of refinement and culture are beginning to find it necessary to wear extra hair if they wish to look their best, according to Armand Blatt, of New York, originator of hair styles, in an address here.

"Owing to its convenience, bobbed hair will continue to be worn a great deal for informal occasions and for sports," said Mr. Blatt. "But long hair is returning to fashion rapidly, particularly for evening wear. A woman appearing in the gorgeous beaded and spangled evening gowns which are now so much in vogue, would be ridiculous wearing closely cropped hair. Long hair, beautifully arranged in the latest coiffure lends a charm and distinction which can never be claimed for short hair.

"Women, following Parisian fashions are adopting small hair pieces, swirls, and clusters of curls with formal gowns. The new La Renee hair creation is working wonders towards bridging the gap between short and long hair. No longer is that "growing out" stage to be dreaded. This transformation device will change a shingle into a formal coiffure in a few moments. The novel arrangement has a hidden comb which holds it firmly in place.

"Then the long debated question, 'To bob, or not to bob', is solved. For those who have not bobbed, it is not advisable, and for those who have parted with nature's crowning glory, there is an easy way out—that of annexing a bit of hair which requires little skill and time."

URGES PRUNING OF FEDERAL BUREAUS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Support of the bituminous coal industry in his policy of economy was pledged today to President Coolidge by the government relations committee of the National Coal Association.

Citing the president's recent address to the heads of the government departments, the committee, in a resolution, declared "there were too many federal bureaus" and urged their elimination to bring about "lower taxes and better business conditions for all."

Construction of a general hospital for veterans in the vicinity of the twin cities or in Rochester, Minn., has been approved by President Coolidge.

Specifications of the plans drawn up by the board of hospitalization included provision for an observation ward for tubercular patients.

Protest against the British embargo on American potatoes has been renewed by the state department.

NAME OF BIGAMIST VICTIM OBTAINED

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

ALEXANDRIA, La., Jan. 31.—Authorities investigating charges of desertion preferred against J. F. McDaniels, 45, by one of the five women he is alleged to have married and from none of whom he is said to have been divorced, today announced they had learned through a Flagstaff, Ariz., newspaper clipping that McDaniels married a Miss Dory, of Flagstaff, last November. McDaniels, who was arrested on the desertion complaints of Mrs. Cordie McDaniels, Pineville, La., described as wife No. 2, had refused to give the name of the Arizona woman, said to have been his third wife.

OVERFLOW CROWD AT M. E. REVIVAL

The crowds attending the revival service at the M. E. church are overflowing the main auditorium and the use of the Sunday school rooms has been made necessary. Last night was high school night and Dr. Miller spoke on the subject of "The 20th Century Prodigal Son." The meeting was marked by great spiritual power, and when the altar call was made, many went forword for prayer, and eight young people gave their hearts to God. A great day is expected Sunday and those who want seats are advised to attend early. On Monday night the meeting will be designated as "Church Official Night"; Tuesday, "Mother and Daughters' Night"; Wednesday, "Business Men's Night"; Thursday, "Father and Sons Night"; and Friday "High School Night."

OREGON MAY ASK FOR DIAMOND LAKE

Does Douglas County want to let the United States government take over Diamond Lake as part of Crater Lake National Park, after the state of Oregon has expended large sums of money in stocking the lake with fish, or do we wish to assist in memoralizing congress that said Diamond Lake and sufficient amount of land on the borders thereof be granted and deeded to the state of Oregon in perpetuity?

This question will come up before a special meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the chamber office Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. As many as are interested in this subject are asked to attend this meeting, and voice their sentiments so that proper pressure can be brought to bear upon our state legislature to pass the memorial to congress. This is a most important matter and if the state secures the deed all further talk about including the lake in the national park will be stopped. A joint memorial urging congress to deed the lake and a small portion of the surrounding land to the state of Oregon, has already been introduced in the state legislature, and if adopted will be sent to congress.

40 TONS OF REFUSE SIFTED IN SEARCH FOR $23,000 RING

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 — Forty tons of refuse loaded on a barge ready for dumping into the ocean, have been sifted shovelful by shovelful in a vain effort to find a diamond ring valued at $23,000 thrown by accident into an ash can. The ring, the property of Mrs. E. A. Shewan, had been inadvertently tossed in a handful of waste paper.

"IKE" MARTIN WANTS HIS BOOZE BACK

A petition claiming that evidence was illegally procured from Frank "Ike" Martin, resulting in his arrest on a charge of possessing liquor, was filed with City Recorder R. L. Whipple today by Attorney Albert Abraham, counsel for Mr. Martin. In the petition it is stated that Officer Rausch arrested Martin and searched him without a warrant and found a partially filled bottle of liquor upon his person, and that the complaint was filed with the liquor as evidence. The search without a warrant was illegal, the petition claims, and consequently an objection is raised to the introduction of the booze as evidence, and it is demanded that the liquor be returned.

The city claims that Martin was causing a disturbance and that he was arrested for disorderly conduct and that following his arrest he was searched and the liquor found. Three complaints charging drunkenness, assault and battery and disorderly conduct were lodged against him this afternoon, in addition to the one already filed charging possession of liquor.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Phoebe Thrush Boyle was born at Croten, Hull county, Iowa Oct. 1, 1844.

Crossed the plains with her parents by ox team to Iowa Hill, California, in 1854 and in 1856 came to Canyonville, Oregon, and was united in marriage to Isaac Boyle in 1858 to which eight children were born to their union.

She was a member of the Methodist church at one time but later became a firm believer in creedless Christianity.

She passed away after a lingering illness at her home at Days Creek, Oregon, on January 8, 1925 at the age of 80 years, 3 months, and seven days.

Services were held at Canyonville Rev. Call officiating.

"Oh wonderous Mother
Because I feel that in the heavens above
The angels, whispering to one another,
Can find, among their burning tears of love
None so devotional as that of Mother.

A LOVING FRIEND.

BENSON P. T. A. HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

A very enjoyable meeting was held by the Benson P. T. A. at the Benson school last night. One of the chief attractions was the showing of several reels of motion pictures dealing with the game life of Oregon. The pictures were shown by Otto M. Jones, through the auspices of the state game commission. An interesting program was given in connection, including a solo by Mrs. R. L. F. Lintott, and the Kiwanian Kazoo band, piano solo by Mrs. R. L. F. Lontott, and a talk by Lloyd Crocker, who urged the members of the association to write members of the legislature, urging them to memorialize congress to vote against the inclusion of Diamond Lake in the Crater lake national park.

SECT AWAITS END OF WORLD FRIDAY

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 31.—Some members of the "reformed" Adventist church are disposing of all their worldly effects and are preparing to gather at the home of one of their leaders here on next Friday night to await the end of the world, as prophesied by their "supreme prophetess," Mrs. Margaret W. Rowen of Los Angeles.

The world will end at midnight on Friday, according to Mrs. Rowen. In the meantime the members of the band here are spending the nights in prayer and contemplation under the direction of their leader, P. W. Province, of Berkley.

Money realized from the sale of the homes and effects of the members of the band is being used to spread the prophesy and other warnings that the end is near. According to Province, airplanes and radio have been called upon to broadcast word of the "end of time."

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS AT DRAIN

Scouts Maynard and Raymond Bell, Russel Laughead and Chas. Chase motored over to Drain with the scout executive and assisted in putting on an old fashioned "Funmake" for a gathering of about one hundred citizens. This meeting was held under the auspices of the Drain Parent-Teachers' association.

Everybody had fun. The "schoolmarms" had a balloon blowing contest, the married ladies drove nails, the married men threaded needles, the men and boys took a try at the bottle balancing and Mr. Fannce had his weight guessed. He also won the ten cent watch.

The scouts demonstrated some of the different parts of their training and talks on scouting were made by Mr. Patton and Mr. Britton.

There is a scout troop in the making at Drain under the leadership of Mr. Patton who is a teacher in the high school there. One of the Drain boys made a fire "by friction" on his first try. They are bound to have a good troop.

SENATOR EDDY HOME

Senator B. L. Eddy returned home last night, and will remain over Sunday. Work at the legislature is proceeding rapidly, and a great deal is being accomplished. Senator Eddy has been kept very busy by the Cleaver investigation, being a member of the committee.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS HOLD MEETING AND BANQUET

Spanish war veterans from all parts of the county gathered in Roseburg today to attend the business meeting and banquet. The business session started at the Armory at 5 p. m. and the banquet will take place at 7:30 p. m. at the Douglas hotel. Adjutant General George White is expected to speak.
