THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT.

On February 8 the Boy Scout movement in America celebrates its 15th anniversary. There were 445,000 of these scouts two years ago, and the time is probably not far distant when 1,000,000 boys will be organized for these interesting and helpful aims.

During the war, they sold $270,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds, besides $42,000,000 of war savings stamps. While this was a big lift on Uncle Sam's war program, such a service after all was only an incident of their achievement.

Their main accomplishment has been to take boys who were frittering away their time in more or less idle pursuits, and give them ideals of work and play. Of work, for self improvement and ambition, and of play, for manly sportsmanship and fairness on the athletic field.

A period of membership in this organization has transformed thousands of these youngsters. Where formerly they were mischievous and inclined to revolt, now, being given an outlet for their activity, they put their energy into useful aims.

But no matter how fine this organization, it can not run itself. These boys need good leadership. The usefulness of any particular troop usually depends on the willingness of some older fellow or some little group of young men, to take hold and see that that organization conforms to the scout ideals.

Boys at that age are capable of splendid achievement if they are well led, but if they are left to themselves, they often prove irresponsible. They are so full of fun that you can't blame them for kicking up their heels. But give them a good scoutmaster and other leaders, and get them to work on the regular discipline of this organization, and you will be surprised at the work they will do. They are ready, if the older fellows take hold and give them the needed direction.

REVIVAL POULTRY CLUB IS PLANNED

The poultry committee of the Chamber of Commerce met this morning and organized for the year. This committee is composed of John R. Farrington, J. H. Clark and Jack Wharton, and several others will be added to the committee in the near future so that the activities of it can be extended to all parts of Douglas county. A preliminary survey was taken of the situation, and in order to be of the greatest benefit to all those who are now raising poultry seriously or to those who wish to engage in this interesting occupation, it is necessary that the names and addresses of all parties interested be left with the secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and then the committee will get into personal touch with them and do what they can to assist. It is the intention of the committee to revive the poultry club that used to function in this part of the county, and also take part in the home products show this fall in the way of having a poultry show at the same time. The committee will gather together all possible data, and the members will be at the back and call of all those who are now in the business or will go into it with the end in view of making the poultry business one of the paying industries in Douglas county. It is planned to do away with the hit and miss plan of raising poultry, and have culling meetings frequently during the

DUMBELL DORA WRITES FROM SALEM TOWN

Dear Collymuniator: A young sod-bustin' Representative had the audacity to corral me in the lobby yesterday and read me one of his cattle herdin' bills which sounded mostly like bull to me. Met an orful sweet young damsel yesterday. Strange to say she'd never been cuddled in the movies, petted at parties, kissed in a taxi, or expressed confidence in free love and unfaith in the Bible. She was a docile inmate of the nut house down here.

Ye ed. rec'd. a sample copy of 'Tales From Tillamook' today and read the first chapter in the office and the rest of 'em behind the press. Them wild-eyed orgies in the metrop must be turrible but methinks the book will not cause any of the modern boys and girls to shun the city. Father they'll be hurlin' the shekels right spry to buy a ticket to the Barbary Coast of Oregon.

THAT'S OUR MISTAKE A young damsel passed ye ed. out on the stem today and dropped her lace handkerchief. We hastened to pick it up and pulin' a Sir Walter Raleigh bow we mumbled, 'Here's yer hanky, Mademoiselle.' The jane gave us the henna-baired look and screamed, 'Ya poor saps, that's my petticoat.'

Now that the local Shebas have insisted on wearin' the loud checked scarf in spite of the lamentable uplift we appeal to the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Just imagine, kind brothers, the feelin' of a tiny mouse when a frightened maid hoists her skirts skywards at the appearance of the rodent.

An predicted in this column last week the grapplin' contest was held at the armory Saturday night with no holds barred.

'Dad' Lilburn, local polliuter, told us confidentially today that there's many a slip twixt the cup and the green.

'Member the ol' days when we all uteder go down to the depot on Sunday evenin' to watch the 5:15 roll in and how thrillin' it was to watch the drummers from the metrop get off with their peg-top pants and button shoes?

Chief Ketch was out yostiddy wearin' his iron derby instead of the conventional hat of street-car conductor design.

A small town is a place where the janes have the telephone numbers of all the eligible bachelors.

We imagine that some of the star girl basketba players of the high school will soon be shootin' dirty shirts down the clothes chute.

TURKEY OUSTING ORTHODOX GREEK CATHOLIC HEADS

(Associated Press Local Wire) LONDON, Feb. 2.—Dispatches from Constantinople say that most of the Greek priests there are likely to suffer the same fate as the Ecumenical patriarch, the Most Rev. Constantinos, who was expelled by the Turks. The Turkish authorities, says the dispatch, are preparing to get papers of exchange ratified by the commission in charge of the change of minority populations between Turkey and Greece after which the prelates priests, numbering some 150 of the Orthodox clergy, will be invited to leave.

M. Exintaris, chief Greek exchange delegate, has resigned, according to the Morning Post correspondent, after protesting against the violent and humiliating treatment accorded the patriarch. To this the Turkish delegation is said to have replied that their government treated the patriarch better than it did the former Turkish bishop, adding, 'It is not our fault if the Greeks in Turkey put their confidence in exchangeable prelates. Let them choose other prelates from among the persons authorized to remain here and the government will respect them. The treaty of Lausanne' says nothing about exchangeable clergy becoming ex-communicated when elevated to religious dignity.'

Whereas, there has been introduced in the Oregon Legislature a bill to give the Highway Commission control of Market Road funds and permit such funds to be spent upon the State highway system, and Whereas, the plain intent of the original law was that the monies raised by the Market Road law were to be used solely for the upkeep of Market Roads, or roads by farmers from their farm to their market centers, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Douglas County Pomona Grange in regular session this 31st day of January, 1925, that we are opposed to any change in the Market Road law that will permit these funds to be used for any purpose except that originally designated in the law. JOHN ALEXANDER, Master Douglas County Pomona Grange. MRS. C. H. BAILEY, Secretary Douglas County Pomona Grange. C. H. BAILEY, R. A. BUSENBARK, M. D. MATTHEWS, Legislative Committee Douglas County Pomona Grange.

Whereas, there is a movement on foot in the Legislature to abolish the office of State Prohibition Officer, and Whereas, the members of the Grange in Oregon believe that every office that will help in enforcing the prohibition laws should be retained, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Douglas County Pomona Grange in regular session this 31st day of January that we urge the members of the Legislature representing Douglas County that they vote against the abolition of this necessary office. (Signed) JOHN ALEXANDER, Master Douglas County Pomona Grange. MRS. C. H. BAILEY, Secretary Douglas County Pomona Grange. C. H. BAILEY, R. A. BUSENBARK, M. D. MATTHEWS, Legislative Committee Douglas County Pomona Grange.

Whereas, Oregon is noted for its progressive ideas, and Whereas, many members of the Oregon Legislature have signified their intention of voting against the Child Labor Amendment to the Federal Constitution, and Whereas, it is this Amendment to the Federal Constitution is adopted, it will only give to Congress the same powers that are now vested in the various State Legislatures, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Douglas County Pomona Grange, that we endorse the Child Labor Amendment and thrust that Senator Eddy and Representatives Hercher and Fisher will sustain the Amendment by their votes. (Signed) JOHN ALEXANDER, Master Douglas County Pomona Grange. MRS. C. H. BAILEY, Secretary Douglas County Pomona Grange. C. H. BAILEY, R. A. BUSENBARK, M. D. MATTHEWS, Legislative Committee Douglas County Pomona Grange.

Whereas, there has been introduced in the Legislature a bill to abolish the Department of State Market Agent, and Whereas, this Department was created by the 1923 Legislature to help in the co-operative marketing of farm products, and Whereas, we, the members of the Douglas County Pomona Grange, in regular session with Evergreen Grange this 31st day of January, believe that the Market Agent's Department has done a great deal for the economic welfare of the producers of farm products, and Whereas, President Coolidge has stated that the future welfare of agriculture depends upon the co-operative marketing of farm products, therefore, be it Resolved, by the Douglas County Pomona Grange, that we urge Senator Eddy and Representatives Hercher and Fisher, of Douglas County, to work and vote against this bill to abolish this necessary Department should the measure be reported out by the Committee having it in charge. (Signed) JOHN ALEXANDER, Master Douglas County Pomona Grange. MRS. C. H. BAILEY, Secretary Douglas County Pomona Grange. C. H. BAILEY, R. A. BUSENBARK, M. D. King Victor Emmanuel has acted to curb the dictatorial powers of Premier Benito Mussolini, reminding him that the King alone could call a general election, which Mussolini had ordered. King Victor Emmanuel is said to desire to abdicate, but will not do so because Crown Prince Umberto is too young to rule at this critical time. Giovanni Giolitti is the newly-acclaimed leader of the liberal element in Italy, and may seize the Government if Mussolini falls. At the time the Socialist deputy, Matteotti, was murdered, the King forced the retirement of Under Secretary of the Interior Finzi, who, believing Mussolini had made him the goal, wrote a complete memorandum of the Matteotti affair which is said to involve leading Italians. These memoranda are said to have been purchased by Luigi Albertini, leading anti-Fascist newspaper proprietor, who will spring them at the proper time, it is said, and cause another political upheaval in Italy. A house-to-house search for these papers, ordered by Mussolini, has been unsuccessful.

Export Market Expands. (Associated Press Local Wire) WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Foreign trade of the United States during 1924, in spite of the increased volume of exports, showed no great change in the countries of origin and destination, but North American countries failed to participate in the general increase in the exports of this country. Jews Rebuilding Palestine—the Reason Millions Now Living Will Never Die Among nations, the newly organized Jewish state stands out in marked contrast in its spirit of organization, cooperation, and progress. At a time when universal unrest and discontent threaten the overthrow of civilization, the Jewish homeland enjoys peace.
