WAR WELL WORTH TENETS OF LEGION SAYS MAJOR BERRY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 3.—Sounding the call to action which opened the Omaha Post's annual membership drive, Major George L. Berry, president of the International Pressmen's and Assistants' Union of North America, former national vice commander of the American Legion and Labor adviser to President Wilson during the 1925 Paris conference, last night declared that if America had no other purpose for entering the world war the resultant creation of the American Legion, because of the organizations service to the country, almost furnished justification.

In his address, which several times brought the legion men to their feet in demonstrative approval, Major Berry said that to the genuine American the preamble to the constitution of the American Legion is sufficient to convince him of the justification of the organization.

MAN GETS HEARING ON NON-SUPPORT CHARGE

J. Fred Head was brought back to Roseburg last night from Portland by Deputy Sheriff Ed Singleton, to answer to a charge of non-support, the complaint having been filed here by his wife. He was arrested upon information of non-support, and will be given a hearing on the charge. He has retained counsel and will endeavor to show that his state of health has been such that he has been unable to earn the necessary funds to contribute the amount ordered by the court.

POWER OF PRESS TO PUSH PACIFIC

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) SEATTLE, Feb. 3.—A movement to unite the Pacific Coast through its newspapers is to be discussed at a conference at the University of Washington here Thursday by newspaper editors from British Columbia, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and California. Fred W. Kennedy, secretary of the Washington State Press Association announced today. Plans are to be made for a Pacific slope newspaper conference to be held in Portland in the summer. Secretary Kennedy said.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED "What you suggest is impossible," retorted Cynthia stilly. "Well, if you want to take it that way, all right, but you might better listen to me. Will you be down soon?" "In five minutes," Cynthia replied, and the door closed behind Cecile.

NOEL GARDNER, and through him boys some stock which Madame Leland has thought worthless, for the purchase of which she had held Cynthia responsible. Cynthia makes several friends outside the set in which her sister-in-law, LOUELLA and her husband, Stanley move. Among them is CECILE MALCOLM, who openly avows her affection for Noel.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT XXX—A CABIN IN THE WOODS CECILE MALCOLM'S cabin in the mountains looked like something out of a picture book when she and her guests drove up to it in sleighs the following day.

It looked like something out of a picture book. "Why, of course! I always have a better time when you're with me," she answered promptly. "Thanks for those kind words. Now tell me what you think of this idea. Wouldn't you like to go skating after dinner? There's a full moon, you know, and it would be no end of fun. Do say 'yes'!"

STUDENT BAND TO BE ORGANIZED The Hoedown Conservatory announces the organization of a student band to be composed of both male and female players. Mr. Nickerson, the new band instructor and teacher of all wind instruments, invites prospective pupils who wish to prepare for this band to see him at once so that it may be organized in the near future.

CAMAS VALLEY COUPLE MARRIED THIS MORNING A quiet wedding occurred shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, when Mr. Harry Lehner of Camas Valley, and Miss Ida Thrush, also of Camas Valley, were married at the office of County Judge George Quins. The ceremony was attended by only the necessary witnesses. They will make their home in Portland, where the groom operates a farm.
