ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1925.

THE INCOME TAX RETURN.

The time for making out the annual income returns to the federal government has come around, and our taxpayers of Roseburg should not be too disconsolate about any labor it may make for them.

A conciliator for the U. S. department of labor recently served as chairman of an arbitration board, in a dispute in which a certain concern had claimed that its costs of production were too high.

The senate has approved the bill introduced by Senator Eddy, of this county, providing severe penalties for drunken automobile drivers, and the fellow who has been making it a practice to "step on the gas" under the influence of the deadly stuff will find a law properly designed to fit the crime.

A friend who recently traveled on an excursion train carrying some hundreds of college girls, was impressed with the refined manners of these girls. Though they had much fun going on, there was a restraint that showed good breeding.

Anyway, with all the evidence so far introduced to discredit Mr. Cleaver, the fact remains that he was honest in the performance of his duties and was not given to accepting bribes of any kind from persons of low or high degree.

According to a certain religious cult in California the end of the world will arrive tomorrow—Friday—hangman's day. If you have not already placed your order for the necessary "housing" equipment the undertaker is still at your service.

The way the weather man opened up things this morning it is quite possible to look forward to a siege of forty days and forty nights of a regular Oregon mist.

Mrs. Charles Austin is here from the California Mine, near Cleveland, visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Miller. She will be here several days.

GOOD EVENING FOLKS— O' man Bacchus Uster be God of Wine But we wonder What outfit He's workin' For now?

DUMBBELL DORA THINKS The giraffe is a most forgiving animal because he OVERLOOKS everything.

If some of the birds around the village don't quit drinkin' hard tonic they're goin' to have a hair lip.

Many a feller has lost his job for bein' the quickest man on the force. Bein' the quickest one to quit when the whistle blows.

Young Jupe Plavivus wet down the terra firma with a goodly supply of sky juice today makin' the daffodils sprout and the wimmen with washin' on the lines sport.

A flock of fellers from Glide were in the village today to visit the county court. It must be great to live in Glide where you can park more than thirty minutes on the main stem.

There is a fine old gentleman that drops into this sanctum every now and then. He is one of those citizens who pioneered in this particular section of the great state of Oregon. He has been with us from early manhood, his name is written on the tablets of memory of thousands of people throughout this state, and he is dearly loved for his wonderful character, his sympathetic disposition, his sincere devotion to mankind.

Our little Dumbell Dora, after readin' the book, "Tillie from Tillamook," has decided to write an epistle entitled "Dora from Dilard."

If your winter's supply of wood is low go down to the South Umpqua and spear a couple drift logs.

WHEN NOAH WON OUT "You remember Noah had to work a long time on that ark. It was uphill business, too, at best, building a boat way out on dry land, while the local Anvil-and-Hammer club sat around spitting tobacco juice upon the lumber, whittling up his pine boards with their jackknives, and telling him what a fool he was for expecting a big rain in a country that was too dry to grow alfalfa. But he kept at it. Finally, the flood came and every mother's son of the croakers was drowned. This is the only instance we know, either in sacred or profane history, where a bunch of knackers got exactly what was coming to them."

The Elluks will eat turkey and trimmin' tonight after which they will fraternize in the usual manner, namely rummy.

"The feller with his boots made me the janes and their gollashes ashamed of themselves."

NAVY HEAD SAYS OFFICERS FREE TO TELL TRUTH

(Associated Press Local Wire.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The house, senate committee, which is considering charges that army and navy officers are gazed by their superiors on questions of military policy, was informed by Secretary Wilbur today that naval officers are free to express their views fully.

"I wish to assure you," the secretary said, in a letter to chairman Lamport of the committee, "that they are perfectly free to state fully and fairly all facts within their knowledge not of a confidential or secret character, and to fully express their opinions on any matters into which your committee desires to inquire."

STOKES SKELETON RATTLES IN COURT

(Associated Press Local Wire.) CHICAGO, Ill. Feb. 4.—The state and defense cases were lost a point at the opening session today of the trial of W. E. Stokes, millionaire New York hotel owner, and six others, indicted here last year on a charge of conspiracy to defame Stokes, of Denver, Colorado.

CHIEF FIGURES IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

United States Senator Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, has entered emphatic denial to the testimony of three special agents of the Treasury Department who, during the trial of eleven Weehawken (N. J.) police officers and one official, charged with rum running, charged he was the "financial director" of the smuggling gang.

EDUCATION IN THE SOUTH

Was interested in Clarence White's letter recently printed in News-Review, chiefly because so many people seem to hold the same views in regard to the south. Mr. White himself probably does. Yet, if he worked on a farm until he was grown, and then came west, what can he know of industrial conditions there, except by hearsay?
