STUDENTS ONCE AIDED TROTSKY IN ESCAPING HANGING, SAYS COUSIN

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

WENATCHEE, Feb. 5.—How an experience in the early life of Trotsky which resulted in saving him from execution by the Russian Communist government made him a convert to communism was related recently by his cousin, Mrs. Rose Kornblit, of Manson, Wash. The mothers of Trotsky and Mrs. Kornblit were sisters.

When quite young Trotsky, whose real name is Leon Bronshten was sent by his wealthy parents, David and Anna Bronshten, from their home in southern Russia to European schools. Mrs. Kornblit said. He sympathized with his fellow students less fortunately situated than himself, and divided his means with them.

Later Trotsky was jailed by the Czarist government on a charge of being a Socialist, and was condemned to die. It was then that the friendly acts toward his fellow students bore their fruit. They started to dig a tunnel into his cell and effected his escape on the night before he was to have hanged, his cousin related.

Dressed in feminine garments, he fled to Paris, and kept himself in seclusion until the vigilance of the Russian secret police relaxed. Then he came to America, where he assumed the name of Trotsky to help in avoiding detection.

"So it is only natural that Leon would believe in communism," Mrs. Kornblit said. "He gave to the poor and in return the poor gave him what could not be bought with money—his freedom."

His parents did not know for years after his escape that he had not been hanged. After his return to Russia and his rise to the head of the Red Army he rejoined his mother. With the revolution she

Mrs. Kornblit, with her husband, Aaron Kornblit, resides on ten acres of highly productive orchard land on the shores of Lake Chevan, not far from this city. She left Russia in 1907 for fear of persecution of the Jews and came to America in 1918. In Seattle, where she landed, she met and married her husband, who also had fled Jewish persecutions in Russia.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Presbyterian Church. Two sermons next Sunday on important themes. Morning subject is a great question, "What is Your Life?" This is second in series of questions. In the evening the pastor will speak on "Experience, the Test of Religion," from the text "Come and see." Apply the acid test to religion as you would to gold. Christianity has nothing to fear from the most severe examination. If it is false we want to know it now. "Come and see."

Catholic Church. Kane and Oak streets. Rev. H. Clergy, pastor. February 8th. Catechism Class at 8:45 a. m. Mass and sermon at 9:30 a. m. Rosary and Benediction of the M. B. S. in the evening at 7:30. Glendale: Mass and Sermon at 9:30 a. m.

Interdenominational Bible Students Association. Study at 835 W. First street. Study at 10:20 a. m. Studies in "The Atonement and the Resurrection." God has decreed that since the earth was the scene of Jesus' suffering it shall be the scene of his glory, and all creatures shall bow at the name of Jesus, and that every creature shall confess that Jesus is Christ and is Lord. Wherever the truth is received, it is good and honest hearts it brings forth legitimate fruitage, and the Lord's people become partakers of his holy spirit, whether naturally strong or weak, they obtain the "spirit of a sound mind."

Lutheran Church. Service will begin at the usual time, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Subject of the sermon is, "Alone by Grace Are We Saved Through Faith." Confessional service at 2:00 o'clock. Sunday school at 1:30. All children are urged to attend and to be prompt, especially next Sunday since we have only a half hour Sunday school. The confirmation class is once more reminded of the meeting Saturday morning at 10:30 in the parsonage, 410 South Pine. H. H. Young, pastor.

Announcement for the Church of Christ, of Myrtle Creek, Feb. 8, 1925. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. Our Sunday school is growing steadily. Our slogan, "Bring the children to Sunday school." Preaching and communion at 11:00. Christian Endeavor at 6:15—let's all help the young people in their work of Christian Endeavor. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "The Seven Letters to the Seven Churches." This is the second of the series on the book of Revelation and will be illustrated by a large hand colored chart. Don't miss a single sermon of this series. Bring your friends and come. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to worship with us on the Lord's day. Luke Elliott, Minister.

The Salvation Army. 311 Jackson St. G. W. Scott, the Scotch Evangelist, is expected back on Saturday and a song and praise service will be held Saturday night. Jail meeting at 10:00 a. m. Sunday school at 2 p. m. Old Soldiers Home at 3:30 p. m. Y. P. L. at 6:45. Street meeting at 7 and Salvation Meeting at 8. Then the revival will continue every night at 7:30. Morning prayer meeting from 6 to 7. Adjutant Fred Anderson, officer in charge.

Bible Standard Mission. 117 Jackson St. Rev. L. F. Burrow, pastor. Our revival is close at hand and interest is increasing. Services there tonight at 7:30. Sunday morning 8:30 at 10:00, preaching at 11:00 and 7:30. Services in the Mission tonight at 7:30. Sunday 2:30 and 7:30, and Tuesday evening at 7:30. Services at the Old Soldiers Home every Friday 2:30 p. m. Services at the City Hall Sunday 11:00. We are holding as many as 14 services each week. People are hearing the gospel and souls are being saved. We are expecting one or two auto loads of young people from Eugene with their music to assist in the services Sunday. We extend to "YOU" a hearty invitation to attend these services, you will enjoy them.

Christian Church. Every boy and girl in Roseburg in Bible school. Fathers lead the way. Let this be the motto of the Christian people of our city. Let us not be satisfied until this aim is reached. Let us not rest until we have done what we can to attain it. Is there a Christian man or woman who is guilty of absence themselves? Who are making it harder for those who do go, to reach the unreachable. Shame on you. Our splendid orchestra plays every Sunday morning at 9:45. Come next Sunday, enjoy the music and find your place in the school. Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock the pastor will speak on "Salvation, What Do We Mean by the Term." Service will be held at Green at 3. In the evening the subject is "The Man Who Pined His Tent Toward Sodom." A scout troop is being organized in the church now. Let those wishing to join apply immediately to the pastor. H. E. Mow.

The First Baptist Church. Corner of Lane and Rose streets, H. L. Caldwell, minister. 9:45 a. m. The church school, Carlos Page, Supt. This school is being maintained at a high interest and efficiency. It is for the spiritual, inspiration and Biblical instruction of the people both old and young. Are you taking advantage of it or a similar school? If not you are invited to do so. 11:00 a. m. The Morning Worship. Message by the pastor. The pastor is asking that every member of the church be present at this service if at all possible. The financial plan and program for the building project will be thoroughly explained and discussed. Every one ought to understand the method of procedure. Music by the choir. Public invited. 6:30 p. m. Meeting of the three young people's societies, Senior, Intermediate and Junior. They are all alive and coming. If you are young you will find them interesting and profitable. 7:30 p. m. The Evening Worship. Message by the choir. A cordial welcome to all.

Scouts to Attend Church Sunday—it is the custom of the Boy Scouts to attend church in a body on Anniversary Sunday. Next Sunday, the 8th, is the beginning of the fifteenth anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. The Boy Scouts of Roseburg will assemble at the armory at 10:20 Sunday morning. Arrangements are being made whereby the scouts will be excused from Sunday school in time for that assembly so it will not be necessary for any scout to miss going. This day also marks the closing of the revival at the First M. E. Evangelist Miller is making out a special program which will be of interest to both young and old. The scout oath and laws will be re-taken at that time.

First Methodist Church, Corner of Main and Lane streets, Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor. This Sunday will be the last day of the revival meetings. It will be a great day, the best of all. The Sunday school will meet as usual at 9:45. It is urged that all members be present on time as the church service will start promptly at 10:45. The boy scouts will attend the morning service in a body. A great crowd is assured. Come early if you want a good seat. A big sing led by Mr. Ledford starts the service. Dr. J. Miller will preach on "The Call of Abraham." This will be a masterful sermon and deserving of a good hearing. The Epworth League will hold another union service in the South Methodist church at 6:15 p. m. The closing service of the revival will be held at 7:30 p. m. Another big sing led by Mr. Ledford. The evening sermon theme is "The Unpardonable Sin." This will be a fitting climax to one of the finest revival campaigns ever held in Roseburg. A great many people are interested in this theme and a capacity house is expected. More seats will be placed and an effort made to accommodate all, but seats are only assured to those who come first. Any who have not yet heard Dr. Miller should make a special effort to hear him. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

"Fathers and Sons Night" At Methodist revival. Fathers and sons night was a great success at the First Methodist church where the two Methodist bodies of the city are conducting a revival with Dr. L. J. Miller of Nashville, Tenn. General evangelist of the Southern branch of the church doing the preaching. Doctor Miller's text was taken from Mark 10:22. At the close of his sermon the evangelist made an altar call and the altar was filled to capacity with men and boys who came forward for prayer. Quite a number made a profession of faith and gave their names for membership in the churches. More than a hundred people have come forward and professed either conversion or reclamation, since the meetings began. More than forty have applied for membership in the Methodist churches and the other churches of the town. At the meeting this morning Doctor Miller used his text, Rom. 6:8 and 1 Cor. 5:27 "Discrimination Between Carnality and Humanity." He said that the human attributes were God given, while carnality is of the devil. A saved man has the same human attributes he had before, but he is no longer has the desire to do the things which are wrong in the sight of God. A consecration service was held at the close of the meeting and the entire congregation assembled at the altar and re-dedicated themselves and all that they had to God. High school night tonight, come early and get the benefit of the whole service. Don't miss Doctor Miller's two great messages Sunday: "The Call of Abraham," and "The Unpardonable Sin." Morning service begins promptly at 10:45.

M. E. Church, South, Main and Lane streets, S. O'Neil, pastor. Our program for the week-end is the program of the Methodist revival. Sunday school at 9:30. Junior league at 2:30. Joint meeting of the two Methodist leagues at 6:15. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. Woman's Missionary Society, Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Come out to both services at the First Methodist church Sunday. The morning service will begin at 10:45. "The Call of Abraham" at 7:30. "The Unpardonable Sin." This is the last day of the meeting and these are two of Doctor Miller's greatest messages. Don't fail to come.

St. George's Episcopal Church. No services Sunday as Mr. Dodge is confined to his home with a severe cold. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Sutherland please take notice: No services at 11:00 a. m. St. George's Guild will meet Thursday, Feb. 12, 1925.

Gland Treatment "Rejuvenates" Broker

"I'm just as young as I need to be, and it's all due to gland pills. Here I am 72, and feel just as spry and full of vim and pep as if I were only 20 or 30."

This testimony to the virtue of gland treatment was voiced recently by Robert George Lave, a retired London stock broker, during a short visit to this country.

"I was in the Kingston hospital in London when I first tried the tablets," said Mr. Lave. "After I had taken the fifth-tablet I left the hospital and haven't been back since. I still take a tablet now and then, and I think they are the real fountain of youth."

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Chapman's drug store will supply you.

SKAGGS Cash
Money saving UNITED STORES stores

NEW STORE IN ROSEBURG

On Saturday, February 7th we will open at Roseburg, Ore., a new and modern food store located at 115 South Stephens Street, opposite Newland's Garage.

Folks of Roseburg and vicinity will find in this new store a big improvement over the average store in arrangement and systematized business methods and are going to be very agreeably surprised at the saving in all popular and well-known food commodities the real cash chain store can effect.

Skaggs United Stores

Are foremost in the Pacific Northwest as food chain store operators; owning and operating stores in eight states. We handle well-known advertised brands of merchandise, and sell them on a money back guarantee. We make tremendous saving on the purchase of vast quantities of merchandise for cash; save on our operating expense by a system of grouped buying, accounting, etc.; save again when we sell our merchandise at the store for cash, in the elimination of bookkeeping, lost accounts, forgotten charges, delivery, and all those unnecessary things which the average store is burdened with.

And this saving is passed on to our patrons in the form of lower prices, prices discernibly lower to the person who is posted at all.

In a sentence: this new store is the solution of the problem of "How to reduce your household expenses without sacrificing either quality or quantity."

May we have the opportunity of showing you?
