ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1925.

IN MEMORY OF THE GREAT

The vigorous and high-principled Boy Scout one year ago introduced within their ranks an inspiring custom which might well be followed by Americans the length and breadth of the land. On the occasion of the Fourteenth Anniversary of the founding of the Scout Movement in this country, February 8th, last year, it was announced that during the Anniversary Week the entire membership would make patriotic pilgrimages to the homes or resting places of noted Americans who have in an outstanding way contributed to our country's development, progress and welfare.

FLLOWERS FOR THE LIVING CLUB.

No. 6. Gib Finlay, Whatever we decide to say about Gib today is not going to be half what he deserves. We all admire that reticent type of man, who goes about his business with that calmness and quiet demeanor that marks "a good head." Gib is one of the most likable chaps of our acquaintance. When we were a kid in high school he gave liberally of his time to direct the athletic activities of the school. The undying thanks of the boys and girls who attended school in those days is his only recompense. He fought for the old orange and black like a dyed-in-the-wool native son and he remains just as faithful to Roseburg today as he did then. True, he is modest, but he's not the shrinking violet type, and when we say that he's "twisted, red-blooded and all that," we're only scratching the surface. We can't hear him yelp tearing into the old basketball yard between halves with the odds seemingly overweighing. And we can see him grit his teeth, clench his hands and command that old team to go back out there and win. And they usually did just that thing. That's Gib Finlay. He is one of the most deserving inmates of our Hall of Fame. Hat's off to you, Gib!

HERE'S OUR BOUQUET

A kind-hearted reader of this column has the following beautiful comment to make regarding our FLOWERS FOR THE LIVING department: "If your advent into the editorial department of the 'Celestial Print Shop' does not precede mine, I will see to it, that a proper delegation will institute you into the fraternity with regalia scintillating with gems." Thanks, of' topper.

JACK AND BRIDE SEEK SECLUSION

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—If the sporting world held its breath with anxiety when Jack Dempsey and his bride formerly Estelle Taylor slipped out of a hotel in San Diego early yesterday and disappeared, it can relax today and give its tautened nerves a rest, for the heavyweight champion and his film actress wife have been found; at least they were found for a few minutes late at night.

CHANGE IN STYLES AFFECTS TABLES

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Chairs and tables in the fashionable London cafes are an inch or more lower than they were a few years ago, due to the change in women's dress styles. The average short skirted woman could not sit gracefully at the higher tables, it was explained recently at a meeting of cafe owners' association. If the short skirt disappeared, it was said, both tables and chairs would have to be raised to their old levels.

REVIVAL CONTINUES

The revival meetings at the Salvation army hall will continue every night this week at 7:30 o'clock. Prayer meetings will be held in the hall every morning from 6 to 7 o'clock. Beginning on Tuesday afternoon, G. W. Scott, the evangelist, will give Bible lectures. An invitation is extended to the public to attend all meetings. First subject "Sanctification."

It is reported from the same source that William is displeased over the prominence the former crown prince is courting in Germany and the attention paid him by the nationalists and militarists as the ex-Kaiser still regards himself as the only lawful claimant to the Hohenzollern throne.
