YONCALLA STUDY CLUB HOLDS OREGON DAY ENTERTAINMENT

An exceptionally interesting event occurred last Saturday, February 7th, when Mrs. Emma Miller was hostess for the "Oregon Day" program and one o'clock luncheon for the Yoncalla Study Club in the church parlors of the M. E. church. The decorations were in red hearts, red carnations and poinsettias. Also, a very beautiful picture of the "Circuit Rider"—the statue erected at Salem, by R. A. Booth, in honor of his father and other pioneer ministers. Mrs. Mary Burt, president of the club, made some fitting and appropriate remarks in regard to the picture, which had been prettily framed through the kindness of Mrs. Edyth Thompson. At one o'clock, a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room, which was decorated in hearts, carnations and red candles, the place cards featuring small valentines. At the close of the luncheon, all gathered in the main part of the church, where the program was held.

Mrs. J. R. Lasswell, past president, was to have delivered the opening address, but owing to illness, could not be present. Mrs. Mary Burt, president, made an opening address, full of inspiration for club work. She also read a very interesting paper on "My Alma Mater, Pacific University," the college of her girlhood, as well as that of Harvey Scott and many other prominent men and women. Mrs. Annie Kruse read an original poem "The Oregon Pioneers," which is so beautiful that we shall send it for publication soon. "Oregon's first Governor, Joseph Lane," was very entertainingly told by Anna Kingtry. Mrs. Blanche Dear, read a very entertaining paper on the "Prohibition Law of 1824." How many had known that we had a prohibition law in Oregon one hundred years ago? Mrs. Florence Miller sang very sweetly, "Oregon State Song," accompanied by Mrs. Francis Broymann, and as an encore, "Beautiful Oregon Rose."

Mrs. Flora Applegate, wife of George Applegate, read a very interesting paper on "The Old Mission at Salem." Bernice Richards—our youngest club member, read a splendid paper on "Oregon Literature," and Mrs. Lulu Miller had as her theme: "Reading Clubs of Oregon." She had received through the kindness of Miss Sue Burt, a history of the first club movement at Yoncalla, when Native Daughters organized "Roselle Putman" Cabin of Native Daughters. A high tribute was paid to Roselle Putman, eldest daughter of Jesse and Cynthia Applegate, a very gifted woman, and sister of the late Sallie Applegate Long.

A letter was read from Miss Nettie Spencer, principal of Elkton high school, regretting her absence on account of bad weather. Miss Spencer was one of our most helpful and loved members when our club was first organized. The names of club members and invited guests are: Flora Applegate, Mary Burt, Jennie Lasswell, Edyth Thompson, Mary Richards, Leona Solie, Emma Miller, Blanche Dear, Paula Strong, Annie Kruse, Frances Dreyman, Elizabeth McCourt, Madge Cook, Grace O'Dale, Laura Curran, Lulu Miller, Theresa Warner, Mrs. Fred Christy, Anna Kingrey, Florence Miller, Maud Applegate, invited guests: Maud Huntington, Lucy Samter, Sue Burt, Nettie Hannan, Betty Stearns, Ruth Eades, Laura Applegate, Mrs. W. E. Satchwell, Mrs. Westfall, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Benton, Mrs. Stonaker, Myrtle Applegate, Mrs. Wayne Akers, Virginia Kruse, Lydia Harrington, Mrs. Geo. Thelle, Joie Wise, Bernice Wilson, Maud Cowles, Ruth Curran, Miss Louisa Nex, Clara Ambrose, Fanny Wilson, Mrs. Adison and Mrs. G. A. Williams. X. X.

NOTICE
Dr. M. E. Cooper will be back in his offices at the Perkins building, Monday, Feb. 16.

MELROSE BRIEFS
Rain? I should say so, plenty, and then some. Uncle Charlie Osborne has been getting a few bites lately. No, not mosquito bites. He operates the fishery at the junction of the Umpqua.

O. W. Murslock esqs and his pole passed through the neck of the woods last Tuesday. He is the official limen for the Cleveland and Coles Valley Telephone company. Don't forget the hop at the club house next Saturday night. The Misses Amelia and Emma Galls are in Portland at present. The former is a patient in Good Samaritan Hospital for treatment of gonorrhea, and the latter visiting friends and relatives. Miss Jeannette Scott, one of our fair young damsels is attending high school in Roseburg. And like many others, she rides with Riley. Our public schools are progressing very nicely under the efficient management of Prof. J. H. Boarder, and Mrs. J. V. Starratt of Roseburg.

HEY! BUDDY! LEGION MEETING NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT!

This is going to be a snappy, wide awake session with all oratory barred. A grand ballad concert by the Kiwanis Kazoo Comedy Kids will be given and W. G. Paul, traveler and explorer, will deliver an address on "Preparedness". Mr. Paul is one of the most entertaining speakers ever heard in this city and we want the legion rooms crammed to capacity Tuesday night, Feb. 17th.

H. E. Wilson, the sage of Melrose, spent Sunday with his friend Willis Lash. He was accompanied by his nephew, Master Lloyd Wilson. We are informed from a reliable source that Julius Sindt is again under the weather. We regret to chronicle. Chas. Katsler is cutting logs preparatory to sawing lumber soon. Churchill and Woodruff, state they will blow the whistle on time as soon as the weather abates, but the Crane-Hawkins company, who own the big Ashworth mill on Diddle creek have made no announcements as to future operations.

On the 2nd inst. we were confronted with the fact that we were to view for the last time our loved old friend and neighbor R. A. Woodruff. Old Uncle Robert was a man all by himself. He was one man who heaved to the line of right. Be he or she friend, foe, or relative, they had no influence with Uncle Robert, when once he said a thing was right. Politically, he was a life-long republican, and one of the old time nominating conventions would not have been complete had not the roll call said R. A. Woodruff, Melrose. When we reflect on the past, we find that Uncle Robert's strongest trait was his strict integrity. Everyone with whom he came in contact received a square deal. Even those who sometimes opposed him, never questioned his motive, for they knew he believed it the better and right way. In our humble manner, we extend our sympathy to his aged wife and two sons, and many relatives in this, their sad hour, but let us profit by the example he set, for his motto was, an open book. Like the rock of Gibraltar, he could not be shaken for a cause he deemed just and right. ARTEMUS.

CLEVELAND ITEMS.
Mrs. Woodruff of Roseburg is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Krohn. Carl Becker and mother were transacting business in Roseburg last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Vogt of Portland are visiting at the home of Mrs. Vogt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hayden. They expect to make their home in our locality.

P. C. Trozelle and family of Sutherlin have last Saturday visiting friends and relatives. The mothers of this village are busy putting patches on stockings and other things too numerous to mention these days. It's marble time at school and if it wasn't that we remembered our little Jacks and Jills would be getting spanked. They say this is a sure sign of Spring. We begin to think so every time old Sol gives us one of his rare smiles. He only means to say: "Not yet, but soon." We had a very interesting discussion in our Young People's meeting last Sunday night, which was led by Mrs. Henry Krohn. The subject was "Selfishness." This was followed by a song service and a very helpful sermon by Rev. Murphy. The Rev. and his wife visited around the neighborhood during the first of the week. John Nachter and wife who have been spending the winter in Portland, came back last week. X. X.

LOOKING GLASS NEWS ITEMS
Louis Bamba has been quite ill for the past few weeks. It is believed that he had ptomaine poisoning. The classes of the grade school are preparing a program, under the direction of Miss Larsen and Miss French, to be given at the local Grange Hall on the evening of February 19th. There will be a box social in addition to the program. Everybody invited. Admission free. The basket ball teams of Oakland met our girls and boys on the local floor last Saturday night and played fast and exciting games. Our girls won with a score of 35-0. Our boys played a good game but were defeated, the score standing 10-3. Mrs. David Eysert was hostess at a dinner last Sunday given in compliment to the birthday anniversary of her son Harvey and Miss Ruth Mathews. Those present beside the family were: Misses Ruth Mathews, Fern Hutchins, Hazel Strickland, Irene Rodley, Helen Strickland, and Ruth Rodley. Messrs. Kenneth Hutchins, Joe, George, Ted Bert, and Wally Mathews and Oscar Rodley.

We are glad to hear that Cecil Jackson is improving and will soon be able to leave the hospital. The Dysett brothers succeeded in killing three large cougar last Monday and Tuesday. "Who's the Boss?" a play to be given by the high school soon is progressing nicely. Those taking part in this play are: Arline Howard, Harold Stromquist, Irene Rodley, Marvel Morgan, Marjorie Thompson, Wallace Mathews, Ted

A PARTNER OF SUNLIGHT

Cod-liver oil has aptly been called the partner of sunlight. Both out of Nature's storehouse of energy are of supreme importance to a child with rickets.

Peter Jones motored to Grants Pass with a load of apples last Tuesday. Mrs. T. F. Paulson is staying in town for a few days and has placed her infant baby under the care of a professional nurse. It is reported that the baby is quite ill. REPORTER. L. G. H. S.

OWNERS DESERVE ACCURATE SERVICE

Investigate any phase of Dodge Brothers business and you will find certain definite, clearly understandable principles under which both factory and dealers operate, says J. O. Newland, local Dodge Brothers dealer. "Dodge Brothers' position on the used car question has been clear and progressive from the outset," he said. "They have always insisted that dealers handle only good used cars and have emphasized over and over again the importance of the car buyer's good will. We regard every used car purchaser as a potential new car buyer and treat him accordingly. We recondition Dodge Brothers used cars in such a thorough way that we feel absolutely sure that buyers will receive a dollar in satisfactory value for every dollar invested. "Dodge Brothers are against so-called 'free service' because this simply means that enough is added to the price of the car to cover the cost of a 'free service policy.' In that way the buyer not only pays for his service in advance, but he pays for something the dealer is giving to another owner, as he himself may happen to require less service than other purchasers. At any rate he pays, whether he gets it or not. "Dodge Brothers believe in giving the buyer full value for his money. Consequently, in selling him a car, they charge only the amount of their actual investment in the car, plus a reasonable profit for factory and dealer. Obviously, this policy makes it impossible to tack on an extra charge to cover such items as 'free service.' Moreover, they believe that the owners prefer to pay for his service when he gets it—and to pay only for his own. "The wisdom of this policy is reflected in the high degree of confidence that exists among owners all over the world in Dodge Brothers dealer service stations. These owners know they will be expected to pay a reasonable charge, but they know they are going to get genuine parts and honest, accurate work. "The universal adoption of the flat rate system by dealers has also solidified the confidence of owners. This system was put into operation after tests had determined a reasonable time allowance for every conceivable service job. On the basis of these tests, maximum working periods were established and mechanics are now required to complete every job in an allotted time. "Thus the service superintendent is able to estimate within a few minutes how long it will take to finish a job. "As a rule, mechanics are also paid by the job. They are allowed as much time for the operation, and must do the work in a satisfactory manner or do it over without pay. This reduces waste of time and increases efficiency. The natural result to the owner is better work in shorter time and at lower cost. "We operate on the theory that it takes good service, in addition to the good performance of the car itself, to win the owner's complete and enthusiastic indorsement."

Too appealing to forget

You do not soon forget that which stands for perfect coffee satisfaction—Golden West. The memory of that last delicious sip carries over—to the next. But, remember, too, that much of the quality you like in Golden West comes from the mountain sides of distant lands where the world's best-flavored high-grown coffee berries are selected. The rest is the result of 40-years of scientific blending and roasting, and of vacuum packing to carry that goodness to you.
