Joe Bush likely will be relegated to the outfield, when his twirling days are over. The noted red shirted twirler batted .329 in 1924 in 69 games, an even one hundred points better than the average of Urban Shocker, who swapped uniforms with him in one of the most important trades of the winter season. The demand for competent polo coaches has become one of the most interesting indications of the growing popularity of the game. At the present time the United States polo association is attempting to supply three clubs with instructors. Frank Frisch, captain and second baseman of the Giants and Herb Penneck, left handed pitcher of the Yankees, are the only players of the New York teams holding out for larger salaries.

The farmers lived in the Crabtown settlement. STOKES IS ACCUSED. (Associated Press Lead Wire.) CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Testimony to show that W. E. D. Stokes, New York millionaire, tried to obtain false affidavits linking his wife's name with those of Jack Johnson, pugilist, and other negroes, was foreshadowed today by Assistant State's Attorney W. W. Smith. Stokes and three others are on trial charged with conspiracy to injure the character of Helen Ellwood Stokes of Denver, Colorado. Mr. Smith said the evidence would show that the co-defendant, Robert Lee of Chicago, negro, told a man "you don't need to know Mrs. Stokes, to sign an affidavit for Stokes and you'll get a lot of money." An effort will be made to prove that Mrs. Stokes always had "red or tilian hair," and that "Stokes knew it" will be made, Mr. Smith announced. He said this would bear on an attempt of defendants to identify Mrs. Stokes with a woman of questionable repute who had dark or dyed hair.

Majestic Theatre
John M. Stahl, who made "The Wanters," the sparkling comedy drama woven around the romantic experiences of a lady's maid whose love affair with a millionaire places her in a most remarkable situation and now showing at the Majestic theatre, is known as the director who has never produced a failure. He is adding materially to this reputation with the record-breaking success of his new picture in all of the big first run theatres of the country. Featured in the cast are such capable stars as Marie Prevost, Huntley Gordon, Gertrude Astor, Robert Ellis, Norma Shearer and little Richard Hendrick.

Antlers Theatre

Liberty Theatre
Here is a picture that will wind itself around your heart and make you feel and think as a picture has never made you feel and think before. You think you have seen the "Last Word" in strong drama and human, vivid characterization, but you haven't—not until you've seen this picture! It reveals the jaded and aged as it has never been revealed—it shows the youth of the country in its wild striving after new sensations—and it tells the most beautiful story of mother love ever told! It's the biggest picture sensation of the decade. Mrs. Wallace Reid in "Broken Laws," at the Liberty Theatre today and tomorrow.
