One Wife on Approval by VIOLET DARE

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

CYNTHIA LELAND's husband, Jim, has gone to Honolulu shortly after their marriage, following a misunderstanding with his wife, and has taken his mother with him, leaving Cynthia to face the disapproval of her sister-in-law, LOUELLA, and all her world.

CECILIE MALCOLM, leader of the town's gayest set, and accepts the friendship of NOEL GARDNER, the town's black sheep, going with them to a mid-winter house party at Cecilie's mountain cabin.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT XLVII—AN INSPIRATION

WHEN Doctor Hall was announced Cynthia met him in the hotel lobby. He took her out to his car at once, well on their way to the Cliff House before he ventured to comment on Noel Gardner's arrival.

Oh, yes—he's an old friend of Jim's and mine," Cynthia told him. "Tell me how is Jim?"

"I phoned the hospital," she said, "and said that I might see him late this afternoon for a few moments. But I thought that perhaps you might know more than that."

"I saw his surgeon this morning," she said, "and your husband had come through wonderfully. Appendicitis isn't a serious matter these days, you know, unless something goes wrong. So you needn't worry about him. Now, take a look at our fair city, please. Who knows—you may live here some day?"

Cynthia turned abruptly to stare out of the car. He had given her an idea, by that casual remark of his. Why shouldn't she and Jim come here to live? Stranger things had happened. Jim's business was all that would make it impossible, if he could be persuaded to leave his home town and his family.

And how wonderful it would be to settle down somewhere far away from Madame Leland, where she could not come running in half a dozen times a day to see her son's household affairs were progressing and what her son's wife was doing!

She listened absently to the doctor's description of San Francisco's advantages and delights; her mind was on a possible future there with Jim. If only he could feel as she did. If only he could realize that she was not monopolizing his life, unwisely.

To her, luncheon was interesting only because she and Jim might lunch at the Cliff House also some day and the doctor mattered only because of his connection with the hospital where Jim lay ill. She was glad when at last they began their journey back to the center of town, and during the doctor's call on a patient she sat in the car restlessly, wondering how soon Jim would be well enough to talk with her.

She saw him this afternoon, but only for a short time.

"There'll be some mail for me at the St. Thomas," he told her. "Would you mind calling for it and reading it?" There might be something important.

"Oh, surely I'll do that," she glanced about the room helplessly; the news that she had brought him.

Journey's End Governor Pierce is doing that now at Salem. He is fighting my battles and yours. Sincerely, CLAIRENCE WHITE.

NEW POLITICAL PARTY.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Anticipating that the railroad labor chiefs would succeed today in crushing any third party proposal before the conference for progressive political action, the socialist national party is ready to call a convention to organize a new party to be known as the American labor party.

This much executive committee members of the socialists let be known today before entering the conference in which the various groups which supported La Follette's presidential campaign last fall are represented.

The American labor party, which the socialists will propose if the railroad men throttle any new party movement, would be patterned after the English labor party, founded upon group representation.

This would square up the idea of United States Senator La Follette for a new party to be based on group representation similar to the present old parties.

The brotherhood leaders agreed yesterday to oppose any new party idea but voted to attend the conference today and prepared to present a resolution outlining their views.

SCOTCH EVANGELIST AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH TONIGHT

G. W. Scott, the Scotch evangelist who has been conducting revival services in the Salvation Army hall for the past three weeks, will be given a united farewell meeting tonight at the First M. E. church.

The other churches of the city will unite for this service. A large attendance is anticipated. Mr. Scott will appear in full Highland Scotch costume and will sing a Scotch hymn, in addition to preaching a sermon on "The Second Coming of Christ."

During his stay in Roseburg Mr. Scott has made many friends, and has been used of God in a mighty way. He is now on a world tour, and will leave on Thursday night for his next appointment in the east.—Corr.

A Raw, Sore Throat

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle touch, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains across the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten colds on the chest. Keep it handy for instant use.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c. Jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.00.

PNEUMONIA USUALLY STARTS FROM COLDS

Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for chest affections. Well known Dr. Benj. F. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."

Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician advised that a trial of BALSAMEA in Nevada. By the use of this medicine he had been immune from the ravages of influenza. He used these pills among his white patients and among his colored patients, resulting in "death" cases. News of the results swept the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.

BALSAMEA combines three pure vegetable essences in one. It cleanses the respiratory tract in four ways: 1. It loosens the inflamed membrane and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucous and detritus, easing expectoration. 3. It stimulates pores of the skin in the chest, body, colon and stomach. 4. It strikes at the cause, quickly checking germ action.

Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing syrups and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to taste and absolutely safe to give to children.

Be sure you get BALSAMEA with the picture on the label. The word "Cure" is printed in red on the wrapper. Ask your druggist for BALSAMEA. In Roseburg buy it from Chapman's Drug Store.
