WARREN NOMINATION FAVORED IN REPORT

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A favorable reoprt on the nomination of Charles B. Warren to be attorney-general was ordered today by the senate judiciary committee.

The vote was reported unofficially as 9 to 4. The nomination had been before the committee for six weeks with opposition centered largely around Mr. Warren's testimony before the sugar trust investigation 12 years ago.

Administration leaders will press for early action on the nomination in the belief that they can muster sufficient votes for confirmation at this session of the senate, three democrats, Ashurst, Arizona; Reed, Missouri, and Walsh, Montana, and one republication, Borah, Idaho, voted against Mr. Warren.

Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, was present but withheld his vote. Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, and Stanley, democrat, Kentucky, were absent.

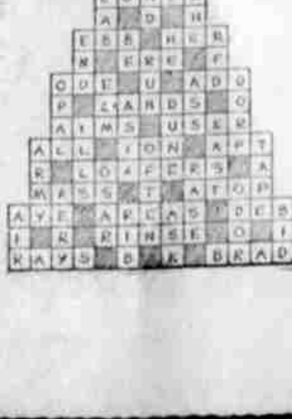
Herrewith is Solution to Puzzle No. 106.



Tip For Beginners.

Solve this puzzle by comparing the synonyms listed in the "Horizontal" and "Vertical" columns with the number of spaces extending crosswise or downward on the diagram, as the case may be. If a word occurs to you meaning substantially the same as the synonym and the correct number of letters to fit in the spaces between its number and the first shaded stop following, write it in lightly. Work away the small words, the "easy" words, first, and they will give you plenty of clues to the difficult ones.

EXPORT OF FARM PRODUCTS FAVORED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A bill designed to encourage export of American farm products and patterned on the lines of the McNary-Haugen bill, which failed of passage in the closing days of the last session was reported today by the house agriculture committee. The vote was 11 to 2, Representatives Aswell, Louisiana and Doyle, Illinois, democrats, opposing.

Friends of the proposal declared there was practically no chance of having it enacted before adjournment of congress a week from tomorrow and republican house leaders said the house would do well to pass the Haugen co-operative marketing bill which carries out recommendations of the president's agricultural commission.

This bill will be taken up again tomorrow.

The bill reported today would create an export corporation, having at its disposal $50,000,000 of federal funds. It would handle for export wheat, corn, rice, dairy products, cattle and swine, with a view to remedying an agricultural depression which might occur by stimulating sale of American agricultural products abroad. The ratio price feature of the McNary-Haugen bill which was its chief point of controversy was omitted from the measure approved today.

AMERICAN NAVY IS ORGANIZED TO FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The American navy, like every other, is organized solely to fight, Secretary Wilbur said today in an address before the women's council on defense as a peace insurance.

"It is organized for that purpose and for that purpose alone," continued the navy secretary.

"We could and no doubt would scrap it and disband its personnel if we could be assured that there were to be no more wars and that force would never again be needed in world affairs.

"It should not be forgotten that the ultimate purpose of the navy is to enforce the will of the nation against those who oppose that will. It is the nation's pledge of its firm purpose to maintain its will against opposition.

"When we are ready to yield all things to the will of others; when property, life, liberty and religion mean less to us than the effort to maintain them, we may abandon the navy and submit to the authority and power of a more virile race.

"But even such servile and pusillanimous submission may not be given the peace such sacrifices are made to obtain. The upraised hands of millions of slaughtered Armenians, men, women and children ruthlessly butchered, warn us that there is not security in complete disarmament.

"The kingdom of Heaven has not yet arrived on earth, no matter how much we have prayed for it, or how much more nearly it has approached. For a great wealthy nation like America, amply able to sustain its will for good and to sustain and protect its peaceful missionaries of righteousness everywhere and to advance justice and righteousness in the world—for such a nation to disarm and suicide into pusillanimous incompetency to advocate or maintain justice would be a crime against God and Man."

CHICAGO ALDERMANIC ELECTION IS NOISY

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Special squads of police and detectives guarded the polls in today's Aldermanic election here as a result of hints of trouble and charges and counter charges of fraud. They were given orders to prevent kidnaping of party workers, thefts of ballot boxes and intimidation of voters.

The firing of pistol shots by six gunmen at a crowded political meeting last night was regarded by the police as the opening of hostilities.

The first report of violence today came from the fourteenth ward, where Rox Cyrilla, an election worker for Michael J. Costello, a candidate for Alderman, was overpowered b ythree men, all of whom were armed and hurried away in an automobile.

The police were also notified that an attempt to kidnap the son of another aldermanic candidate yesterday, proved a failure when the kidnapers ascertained that the boy that they had picked up was not the son of the candidate.

One hundred ballots were mysteriously missing from a precinct in the twenty-sixth ward, police were informed.

PERSIAN POPE IS BASEBALL FAN

JERUSALEM, Feb. 24.—The "youngest pope in the world" is the title borne by Mar Ihsai Shimun, Patriarch of the Nestorian and Assyrian church, who has arrived here on his way to England and America.

This patriarch of one of the oldest Christian sects is only sixteen years old, having succeeded his brother when the latter died in a refugee camp on the Persian frontier.

The young patriarch is a modern boy, educated in American schools in Persia. He speaks excellent English and is a devotee of American sports. When he was called to the patriarchate on the sudden death of his brother, he was found playing baseball and insisted on having his final turn at bat before going with the church dignitaries for his coronation.

His followers are found mainly in Persia and Russia, but they have decreased one-half during the past ten years, through massacre and deportation, from which the remnant of the Assyrian nation was saved by the American Near East Relief in Persia. "My people today owe their very existence to America," he says.

Four different "popes" are recognized in ecclesiastical circles here—the head of the Roman Catholic church in Rome, the Patriarch of the Greek church in Constantinople, the Armenian Patriarch in Erivan, and this lad, the Nestorian Patriarch of Persia.

During the fifth century, the Nestorian church was the most powerful Christian body in the world, and monuments of its widespread missionary activity have been found in all parts of eastern Asia.

The young Patriarch will be the guest of the Archbishop of Canterbury during his stay in London.

IMPROVEMENT IN CONDITION OF KING

LONDON, February 24.—King George, who is suffering from bronchial trouble, passed a good night, it was stated in court circles this morning.

His physicians visited Buckingham Palace as usual during the forenoon, but issued no bulletin, and if the present rate of progress by the patient is maintained, it is believed no further bulletins will be given out until a final one announcing his convalescence.

The Prince of Wales under the present arrangements, will take his father's place at Buckingham Palace on March 10 and 19, affording his first opportunity to preside over such important state ceremonies, with the Duke of York still on his hunting trip in Africa, there will come a period during which some provision must be made for carrying on the Royal duties.

It is thought a sort of committee will be appointed, although as yet nothing is settled and the matter will probably be considered at a privy council as soon as the King is well enough to participate in such a meeting.

COMBAT BOOZE BY BOMB

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 24.—A terrific explosion set off at 2:30 o'clock this morning by a number of men believed to have been members of a vigilance committee organized to combat liquor selling occupied by H. P. Clark, destroyed the house and endangered the life of Clark.

Flames broke out immediately after the explosion and destroyed the house. Clark was trapped for a few moments by the fire but made his escape from the burning building by crawling over the wreckage.

The charge, which exploded with a sound similar to that of black powder but without the usual fumes, was placed under Clarks's two story frame store building in Ruston, directly beneath the place where Clark was in bed.

The entire front part of the building was wrecked. While large patches of plaster and splinters of twisted lumber showered about him, Clark rushed toward the rear door to make his escape but he was cut off by the flames resulting from the blast. Picking up a revolver which was in the room he then made his way over the wreckage to the front of the building. When he reached the open air he saw several men running about 100 feet away. He fired one bullet at them before they disappeared around the corner of a building.

While standing outside the building near where the explosives had been placed, Clark saw a large white sheet lying on the ground. He believes that the sheet had been lost by one of the men in the flight, but he thinks that all the dynamiters wore white coverings to conceal their features.

Clark told the police that he had been running what was known as a "beer joint." He said, however, that he had received no warning to stop and has no known enemies and has heard of no threats against him.

Police were attempting to connect the bombing of Clark's building to a warning note received Sunday evening by R. J. O'Conner, who operates a pool hall a short distance from the place which Clark ran.
