Theatres

Liberty Theatre
"White Shadows," starring the popular screen artist, Betty Compson, is shown for the first time in Roseburg at the Liberty theatre today and tomorrow.
It is a picture which should please all types of movie fans, as it not only has an interesting story, convincingly enacted by a capable well chosen cast, but it was superbly directed by Graham Cutts, who did such good work in "Woman to Woman." Mr. Cutts has an eye for reality as well as for picturesque scenes as his scenes in "White Shadows" prove. The Parisian cafe vibrates with a tawdry, finest atmosphere while the Swiss mountains and the English countryside reflect only beauty and peace. It is indeed a masterpiece of photographic content.

Antlers Theatre
The Antlers Theatre will have an exceptionally fine film attraction beginning Saturday afternoon when Paramount picture version of Ethel M. Dell's famous novel, "The Top of the World" makes its local debut. For those who like vigorous melodrama tickled with love-interest, this screen play will fill the bill from soup to nuts. The picture has all the compelling drama you have come to expect in Ethel M. Dell's writings; it has all the consummate acting for which Anna Q. Nilsson, Jan Kirkwood, Raymond Hatton and Sheldon Lewis are noted, and it has all the fine finish and dash which only such an experienced director as George Melford could give it. Add to this some extraordinary camera effects, Kirkwood in a dual role; a dynamic story scene which must be seen in all its vivid realism to be appreciated; a thrilling rescue and several terrific fights.

MAN ORDERED TO APPEAR IN COURT

H. L. Newman was today ordered to appear before Judge Hamilton on Tuesday, March 24, to show cause why he should not be committed to the county jail for failure to pay the judgment entered against him in the circuit court. Newman was found guilty in the circuit court two years ago, of being the father of the child of Ruth Wilkinson, and was ordered by the court to pay the sum of $15 per month for 12 support.

Mrs. Wilkinson, the mother of Ruth, has filed a statement with the court to the effect that Newman has failed to pay the amounts required by the court order, and cites delinquencies amounting to $360. Newman has deeded all of his property to his wife, and there is nothing upon which execution can be made, according to Mrs. Wilkinson.

Judge Hamilton ordered Newman to appear on March 24th and state why he should not be sent to jail until the judgment is paid.
