SNOW IN KLAMATH.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., March 6.—Klamath Falls was covered with snow today as a result of a brisk snow storm which followed a heavy rain last night. Within the city the snow covered a depth of about four inches, and was even heavier in the surrounding hills.

It makes you hungry to think of it. Why a substitute? Get the genuine GRIMM BROS.' MILK BREAD. Phone 133.

SOVIETS ARE CRITICISED.

TIFLIS, Ga., March 6.—For the first time in the history of the Russian soviet the strongest criticism of certain government matters were sounded yesterday by several members of the soviet parliament belonging to the non-party group of peasants, in reply to the government's report on its internal policy and the domestic situation.

Delegates from the Ukraine echoed the dissatisfaction of their peasant population with the government relief measures after the failure of last year's crops, considering the relief inadequate and not properly distributed.

Several delegates accused the government of lack of aggressiveness in its foreign relations.

Premier Rykoff said that the sowing area in the districts where the crops failed would be increased fifteen percent and that the number of homesteads lacking cattle had decreased.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

International Bible Students Association. Study at the Moose Hall Sunday at 10:30 a. m. The subjects for study will be, "The Resurrection, and the Atonement." Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m. Mr. K. P. Loop will speak. The subject will be, "Three Worlds of the Earth." Earth's history, divided into epochs or worlds, marks an ordered tread toward the Utopia for which man has longed and hoped. The throes of world-wide distress mark the end of our present world. Man stands on the brink of a new order—the Third World. Events marking the transition were foretold, events of such severity as seem to describe our own day. A commensurate blessing, however, the new world of the Bible, is the prediction for the immediate future. Lecture will be at the Moose Hall, corner Jackson and Washington Sts. Seats free. No collection.

First Presbyterian Church. W. S. McCullagh, pastor. Should we allow in our schools the sayings of poor Richard but not the parables of Jesus, Ovid but not the Psalms; Shakespeare but not Job; Demosthenes but not Isaiah, nor sermon on the Mt., nor Psalm of Love. Is our modern education fulfilling its intended purpose? Sunday morning the pastor will speak on the subject, "The Bible and Education." On Sunday evening the subject will be, "What Does God Require of You?" The whole church studying the Bible in a Sunday school. You should be ashamed not to know the Bible. You can find a class to correspond to your age, and the child's capacity also. Three C. E. societies—Junior and Intermediates at 3 p. m. Sunday and Junior at 6:30.

Church of Christ of Myrtle Creek. Bible school 10:00 a. m. We went over the top last Sunday with 111 present—on time. Let's do even better this Sunday. Preaching and Communion at 11 a. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Revelation," the conflict between the Dragon and the woman. There will be a new chart for this, the last part of the book. Two sermons will probably be used to cover this last division. Tell your friends about it and be sure and come. Lake Elliott, Minister.

Lutheran Services—Lenten service next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Episcopal Parish House, 214 E. Cass St. Subject of the sermon will be "Christ Before the Jewish Church Council." Sermon is based on Matt. 26, 57-68. This is the second sermon of our Lenten series. In it we shall consider how Christ was tried and sentenced without cause, and how He was mocked and maltreated by a crowd of ruffians. Let us make a special effort to attend these Lenten services. If we miss one service we have more or less lost interest because we have lost out in that part of the Passion story. Stranger, a cordial welcome awaits you at our services. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m. Confirmation class meets every Friday afternoon at 4:30. All members are urged to attend every week. H. H. Young, pastor.

Catholic Church, Kane and Oak streets. Rev. B. Chery, pastor. March 8th, Mass and Sermon at 8 a. m. Catechism Class and Biblical instruction at 9:45 a. m. Keep your children coming regularly to these lessons. High Mass and Sermon at 10:30 a. m. The Rev. Beignus Brennan of Lincoln, Neb., will speak at all the services on Sunday. The Mission being conducted in this Church this week will close Sunday evening with Rosary, Sermon and Benediction of the M. B. S. at 7:30. You are always welcome in a Catholic church. Glendale: Mass and Sermon at 9:30 a. m.

St. George's Episcopal Church. Cor. Cass and Main Sts. Communion services at 9:00 a. m. Services at Church of Holy Spirit Sutherland, at 11:00 a. m. Litany service and meditation Friday evenings at 7:20 p. m. Holy Communion every Wednesday at 9:00 a. m. What shall we do with our talent? Each of us is responsible to God for the use of the talent which He has given us—that particular gift that endows us with the power to do one thing well and for which we are best fitted. Not to use this power is to thwart our Maker's plan for us. The talent must not be "wrapped in a napkin" and laid away indefinitely. God wants us to use it now so that the increase may be of value to His cause and to our fellow men. This Lenten season is the time to take our talent from its hiding place and use it so that when the day of reckoning comes we may be able to say "Lord, thy talent has gained, ten, five or ten talents." Our talent may be a special knowledge—it may be a capacity to labor in the vineyard, or it may be simply money. In any case the burning question is: What shall we do with our talent this Lent? Rev. A. O. Dodge, vicar.

Christian Church. Last Lord's Day sure enough it was a Ford that carried the prize for bringing the largest load, and is now decorated with a couple of new Roseburg tags. Mr. Sprague was the one who piloted the winning car to victory. Remember that our revival meeting begins on Sunday, Mar. 22. Get your work out of the way as much as possible so you can be free to give some worth while time to the meeting for three weeks. Next Sunday morning the minister will speak on the subject, "Seeing Ourselves As Others See Us." In the evening another in the Old Testament series will be given entitled, "The Man Who Went to the Wrong Place." Our big ten-piece orchestra will play again Sunday evening, H. E. Mow.

REED USES SATIRE.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, March 6.—Satirical attack on any one man who would set his will against that of the senate was delivered here last night in an address by Senator Reed of Missouri. He did not mention names, but told of an "attack" on the senate. Apologizing to Kipling, he said, the object of his remarks reminded him of "an India rubber on a sphere."
