

A Safe Place to Trade

We do not contend to sell every item in our store cheaper than other's "Specials." But we do believe that on the average, you can save most at our store. Visit our store and compare our prices. STONE'S is a safe place to trade.

SOAP	CRYSTAL WHITE, 10 bars	38c
OLEO	PACIFIC NUT MARGARINE, 2 lbs. for	45c
SUGAR	PURE CANE, Cloth Bags, 10 lbs. for	68c
FLOUR	KERR'S HARD WHEAT, 49 lb. sacks	$2.45
CR. WHEAT	25c Pkgs., regular size	20c
BREAD	15c size, large loaves, for	12c
COFFEE	STONE'S BEST, 3 lb. pkgs. for	$1.29
BUTTER	STONE'S BEST, Fresh Creamery, 2 lbs. for	93c
TEA	ROYAL GARDEN, Wonderful Flavor, half lb., green	39c
CRACKERS	5 lb. Boxes, Fresh Sodas each	95c

Drive Your Car and Save STONE'S 311 West Cass Street Roseburg, Ore.

LOCAL NEWS

Man From Lebanon Firm—

Mr. Gibson of Gibson and Alvin Realtors, of Lebanon, was here from that place yesterday and spent the day on business.

Returns From Portland—

Mrs. Louis Melvin, who has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Steel, in Portland for the past several days, returned to her home in this city last night.

From Camas Valley—

Mrs. Charles Sigl was in Roseburg yesterday for several hours from southern points in the county. Mrs. Sigl lives at Camas Valley and was here shopping and on business.

Mrs. Merrill Better—

The many friends of Mrs. C. Merrill, who has been quite ill at her home on Mill street for the past week or ten days, will be glad to learn that she is much improved in health today.

Baggage Car Trouble—

As a result of baggage car trouble on Shasta 12, that train did not arrive here yesterday until 5:55, two hours late. The car run hot near Davis, California, causing the loss of time.

To Visit in Camas Valley—

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clemens arrived here this morning from San Francisco, and spent a few hours. They are on their way to Camas Valley, where they will spend the next two months visiting.

From Myrtle Creek—

Mrs. P. R. Weaver was a visitor in Roseburg from southern points in the county yesterday. Mrs. Weaver resides at Myrtle Creek, and spent the day visiting and shopping.

Returns to Medford—

Mrs. Ellen Dougherty, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Druecker for past week, left for her home at Medford this morning. Mrs. Dougherty has been visiting at eastern points also for the past three months.

Mr. Parrott Here—

Fred Parrott was here from the rural districts today attending to business matters and visiting Mr. Parrott has a fruit ranch at Garden Valley.

Expected Today—

Fred Bell and family, of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. Bell's relatives in Los Angeles, are expected to arrive this evening. They are motoring from the south and will visit until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, before going on to their home.

Here From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moorehouse and J. P. Williams are here from Portland, and will spend the remainder of the week in Roseburg on business. Mr. Moorehouse and Mr. Williams are transmission engineers from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be here to attend the exchange meetings in Roseburg and vicinity this week. Mr. Williams and Mr. Moorehouse have a number of friends here, having visited Roseburg before. Mr. Williams was the first wire chief of the local exchange in 1910.

Returned From California—

Kenneth Clark, who has been spending the past six weeks or so at Weed, California, has returned to Roseburg.

Here From Portland—

C. W. Spencer arrived here last night from Portland and is spending today and Saturday in this city on business.

From Olalla—

E. Jennings, formerly of this city, but now of Olalla, was in this morning and spent several hours transacting business.

From Glide—

H. D. Connine was here today from Glide and spent the day attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

From Klamath Falls—

R. L. Tenby was an arrival from southern points yesterday and was an overnight visitor. Mr. Tenby is from Klamath Falls.

From Ashland—

Among those from southern points to arrive and visit here over night was J. R. Shotz. Mr. Shotz resides at Ashland.

Visits Today—

Paul Talbot was here today from points south of town. Mr. Talbot resides at Canyonville, and was here on business matters.

From Coast—

Among those from coast points to arrive yesterday evening and visit overnight was R. F. Shelton. Mr. Shelton is from Coquille.

Here Today—

Mrs. C. H. Bailey was a visitor in this city today from South Deer Creek. Mrs. Bailey was here visiting friends and shopping.

Here On Business—

Charles I. Elliott arrived here yesterday afternoon from Salem, and is spending a day or so in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Sutherland Resident Visits—

A. J. Littleburg was here from Sutherland yesterday and spent the day visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

The finest banquet served in the city in the past year served GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD to the satisfaction of all the guests. Try one loaf, Phone 153.

Mrs. Morse Visits—

Mrs. G. E. Morse spent several hours in this city yesterday shopping and transacting business. Mrs. Morse resides at Camas Valley.

To Corvallis—

Harold Irwin and Hall Seely will leave tonight by auto for Corvallis to attend the game between the O. A. C. and University of California basketball teams.

Mrs. Day Here—

Mrs. Robert M. Day, of Eugene, arrived last night and will visit over the week end with her daughter, Gladys Collins, a teacher in the local high school.

Mr. Parrott Here—

Fred Parrott was here from the rural districts today attending to business matters and visiting Mr. Parrott has a fruit ranch at Garden Valley.

Expected Today—

Fred Bell and family, of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. Bell's relatives in Los Angeles, are expected to arrive this evening. They are motoring from the south and will visit until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, before going on to their home.

Here From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moorehouse and J. P. Williams are here from Portland, and will spend the remainder of the week in Roseburg on business. Mr. Moorehouse and Mr. Williams are transmission engineers from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be here to attend the exchange meetings in Roseburg and vicinity this week. Mr. Williams and Mr. Moorehouse have a number of friends here, having visited Roseburg before. Mr. Williams was the first wire chief of the local exchange in 1910.

Returned From California—

Kenneth Clark, who has been spending the past six weeks or so at Weed, California, has returned to Roseburg.

Here From Portland—

C. W. Spencer arrived here last night from Portland and is spending today and Saturday in this city on business.

From Olalla—

E. Jennings, formerly of this city, but now of Olalla, was in this morning and spent several hours transacting business.

From Glide—

H. D. Connine was here today from Glide and spent the day attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

From Klamath Falls—

R. L. Tenby was an arrival from southern points yesterday and was an overnight visitor. Mr. Tenby is from Klamath Falls.

From Ashland—

Among those from southern points to arrive and visit here over night was J. R. Shotz. Mr. Shotz resides at Ashland.

Visits Today—

Paul Talbot was here today from points south of town. Mr. Talbot resides at Canyonville, and was here on business matters.

From Coast—

Among those from coast points to arrive yesterday evening and visit overnight was R. F. Shelton. Mr. Shelton is from Coquille.

Here Today—

Mrs. C. H. Bailey was a visitor in this city today from South Deer Creek. Mrs. Bailey was here visiting friends and shopping.

Here On Business—

Charles I. Elliott arrived here yesterday afternoon from Salem, and is spending a day or so in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Sutherland Resident Visits—

A. J. Littleburg was here from Sutherland yesterday and spent the day visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

The finest banquet served in the city in the past year served GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD to the satisfaction of all the guests. Try one loaf, Phone 153.

Mrs. Morse Visits—

Mrs. G. E. Morse spent several hours in this city yesterday shopping and transacting business. Mrs. Morse resides at Camas Valley.

To Corvallis—

Harold Irwin and Hall Seely will leave tonight by auto for Corvallis to attend the game between the O. A. C. and University of California basketball teams.

Mrs. Day Here—

Mrs. Robert M. Day, of Eugene, arrived last night and will visit over the week end with her daughter, Gladys Collins, a teacher in the local high school.

Mr. Parrott Here—

Fred Parrott was here from the rural districts today attending to business matters and visiting Mr. Parrott has a fruit ranch at Garden Valley.

Expected Today—

Fred Bell and family, of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. Bell's relatives in Los Angeles, are expected to arrive this evening. They are motoring from the south and will visit until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, before going on to their home.

Here From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moorehouse and J. P. Williams are here from Portland, and will spend the remainder of the week in Roseburg on business. Mr. Moorehouse and Mr. Williams are transmission engineers from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be here to attend the exchange meetings in Roseburg and vicinity this week. Mr. Williams and Mr. Moorehouse have a number of friends here, having visited Roseburg before. Mr. Williams was the first wire chief of the local exchange in 1910.

Returned From California—

Kenneth Clark, who has been spending the past six weeks or so at Weed, California, has returned to Roseburg.

Here From Portland—

C. W. Spencer arrived here last night from Portland and is spending today and Saturday in this city on business.

From Olalla—

E. Jennings, formerly of this city, but now of Olalla, was in this morning and spent several hours transacting business.

From Glide—

H. D. Connine was here today from Glide and spent the day attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

From Klamath Falls—

R. L. Tenby was an arrival from southern points yesterday and was an overnight visitor. Mr. Tenby is from Klamath Falls.

From Ashland—

Among those from southern points to arrive and visit here over night was J. R. Shotz. Mr. Shotz resides at Ashland.

Visits Today—

Paul Talbot was here today from points south of town. Mr. Talbot resides at Canyonville, and was here on business matters.

From Coast—

Among those from coast points to arrive yesterday evening and visit overnight was R. F. Shelton. Mr. Shelton is from Coquille.

Here Today—

Mrs. C. H. Bailey was a visitor in this city today from South Deer Creek. Mrs. Bailey was here visiting friends and shopping.

Here On Business—

Charles I. Elliott arrived here yesterday afternoon from Salem, and is spending a day or so in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Sutherland Resident Visits—

A. J. Littleburg was here from Sutherland yesterday and spent the day visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

The finest banquet served in the city in the past year served GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD to the satisfaction of all the guests. Try one loaf, Phone 153.

Mrs. Morse Visits—

Mrs. G. E. Morse spent several hours in this city yesterday shopping and transacting business. Mrs. Morse resides at Camas Valley.

To Corvallis—

Harold Irwin and Hall Seely will leave tonight by auto for Corvallis to attend the game between the O. A. C. and University of California basketball teams.

Mrs. Day Here—

Mrs. Robert M. Day, of Eugene, arrived last night and will visit over the week end with her daughter, Gladys Collins, a teacher in the local high school.

Mr. Parrott Here—

Fred Parrott was here from the rural districts today attending to business matters and visiting Mr. Parrott has a fruit ranch at Garden Valley.

Expected Today—

Fred Bell and family, of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. Bell's relatives in Los Angeles, are expected to arrive this evening. They are motoring from the south and will visit until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, before going on to their home.

Here From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moorehouse and J. P. Williams are here from Portland, and will spend the remainder of the week in Roseburg on business. Mr. Moorehouse and Mr. Williams are transmission engineers from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be here to attend the exchange meetings in Roseburg and vicinity this week. Mr. Williams and Mr. Moorehouse have a number of friends here, having visited Roseburg before. Mr. Williams was the first wire chief of the local exchange in 1910.

Returned From California—

Kenneth Clark, who has been spending the past six weeks or so at Weed, California, has returned to Roseburg.

Here From Portland—

C. W. Spencer arrived here last night from Portland and is spending today and Saturday in this city on business.

From Olalla—

E. Jennings, formerly of this city, but now of Olalla, was in this morning and spent several hours transacting business.

From Glide—

H. D. Connine was here today from Glide and spent the day attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

From Klamath Falls—

R. L. Tenby was an arrival from southern points yesterday and was an overnight visitor. Mr. Tenby is from Klamath Falls.

From Ashland—

Among those from southern points to arrive and visit here over night was J. R. Shotz. Mr. Shotz resides at Ashland.

Visits Today—

Paul Talbot was here today from points south of town. Mr. Talbot resides at Canyonville, and was here on business matters.

From Coast—

Among those from coast points to arrive yesterday evening and visit overnight was R. F. Shelton. Mr. Shelton is from Coquille.

Here Today—

Mrs. C. H. Bailey was a visitor in this city today from South Deer Creek. Mrs. Bailey was here visiting friends and shopping.

Here On Business—

Charles I. Elliott arrived here yesterday afternoon from Salem, and is spending a day or so in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Sutherland Resident Visits—

A. J. Littleburg was here from Sutherland yesterday and spent the day visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

The finest banquet served in the city in the past year served GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD to the satisfaction of all the guests. Try one loaf, Phone 153.

Mrs. Morse Visits—

Mrs. G. E. Morse spent several hours in this city yesterday shopping and transacting business. Mrs. Morse resides at Camas Valley.

To Corvallis—

Harold Irwin and Hall Seely will leave tonight by auto for Corvallis to attend the game between the O. A. C. and University of California basketball teams.

Mrs. Day Here—

Mrs. Robert M. Day, of Eugene, arrived last night and will visit over the week end with her daughter, Gladys Collins, a teacher in the local high school.

Mr. Parrott Here—

Fred Parrott was here from the rural districts today attending to business matters and visiting Mr. Parrott has a fruit ranch at Garden Valley.

Expected Today—

Fred Bell and family, of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. Bell's relatives in Los Angeles, are expected to arrive this evening. They are motoring from the south and will visit until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, before going on to their home.

Here From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moorehouse and J. P. Williams are here from Portland, and will spend the remainder of the week in Roseburg on business. Mr. Moorehouse and Mr. Williams are transmission engineers from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be here to attend the exchange meetings in Roseburg and vicinity this week. Mr. Williams and Mr. Moorehouse have a number of friends here, having visited Roseburg before. Mr. Williams was the first wire chief of the local exchange in 1910.

Returned From California—

Kenneth Clark, who has been spending the past six weeks or so at Weed, California, has returned to Roseburg.

Here From Portland—

C. W. Spencer arrived here last night from Portland and is spending today and Saturday in this city on business.

From Olalla—

E. Jennings, formerly of this city, but now of Olalla, was in this morning and spent several hours transacting business.

From Glide—

H. D. Connine was here today from Glide and spent the day attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

From Klamath Falls—

R. L. Tenby was an arrival from southern points yesterday and was an overnight visitor. Mr. Tenby is from Klamath Falls.

From Ashland—

Among those from southern points to arrive and visit here over night was J. R. Shotz. Mr. Shotz resides at Ashland.

Visits Today—

Paul Talbot was here today from points south of town. Mr. Talbot resides at Canyonville, and was here on business matters.

From Coast—

Among those from coast points to arrive yesterday evening and visit overnight was R. F. Shelton. Mr. Shelton is from Coquille.

Here Today—

Mrs. C. H. Bailey was a visitor in this city today from South Deer Creek. Mrs. Bailey was here visiting friends and shopping.

Here On Business—

Charles I. Elliott arrived here yesterday afternoon from Salem, and is spending a day or so in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Sutherland Resident Visits—

A. J. Littleburg was here from Sutherland yesterday and spent the day visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

The finest banquet served in the city in the past year served GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD to the satisfaction of all the guests. Try one loaf, Phone 153.

Mrs. Morse Visits—

Mrs. G. E. Morse spent several hours in this city yesterday shopping and transacting business. Mrs. Morse resides at Camas Valley.

To Corvallis—

Harold Irwin and Hall Seely will leave tonight by auto for Corvallis to attend the game between the O. A. C. and University of California basketball teams.

Mrs. Day Here—

Mrs. Robert M. Day, of Eugene, arrived last night and will visit over the week end with her daughter, Gladys Collins, a teacher in the local high school.

Mr. Parrott Here—

Fred Parrott was here from the rural districts today attending to business matters and visiting Mr. Parrott has a fruit ranch at Garden Valley.

Expected Today—

Fred Bell and family, of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. Bell's relatives in Los Angeles, are expected to arrive this evening. They are motoring from the south and will visit until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bell, before going on to their home.

Here From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moorehouse and J. P. Williams are here from Portland, and will spend the remainder of the week in Roseburg on business. Mr. Moorehouse and Mr. Williams are transmission engineers from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be here to attend the exchange meetings in Roseburg and vicinity this week. Mr. Williams and Mr. Moorehouse have a number of friends here, having visited Roseburg before. Mr. Williams was the first wire chief of the local exchange in 1910.

Returned From California—

Kenneth Clark, who has been spending the past six weeks or so at Weed, California, has returned to Roseburg.

Here From Portland—

C. W. Spencer arrived here last