

Meritol Eczema Remedy

Is a prescription compounded expressly and only for the relief of skin diseases. It is invaluable for the treatment of eczema in its various forms...

LOCAL NEWS

From Glendale— F. R. Clarke was an arrival here yesterday from Glendale, and spent several hours in Roseburg attending to business affairs.

On Business— Leo B. Rice was here yesterday from Portland, and spent the day and last night here attending to business matters.

Spend Day in Medford— Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Clinger left this morning for Medford in their car, and spent the day there visiting and on business.

Here Yesterday— Miss Beasie Brown was here yesterday and a short time today visiting friends and shopping. She is from Camas Valley.

To Ogdén— C. J. Ritter returned to his home at Ogdén last night. After spending yesterday in this city attending to business matters.

Here from Glide— M. L. Kemmel arrived here yesterday afternoon from Glide, and is spending a day or so in this city on business and visiting.

Visitor Friday— S. S. King was a visitor in this city from northern points yesterday and last night and transacted business. Mr. King is from Salem.

Leaves for California— A. C. Nelson left for his home at San Francisco this morning, after spending some time in Roseburg looking after interests.

In From Myrtle Creek— Among the Myrtle Creek residents in Roseburg yesterday attending to business matters were Carl Koonitz and T. M. Tomlinson.

To Visit in Los Angeles— Mrs. C. D. Wharton of this city, will leave tonight for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the next few months visiting with relatives and friends.

From Coast— P. J. Schoppit was an arrival here yesterday from the coast, and is spending a short time in this city on business. Mr. Schoppit is from North Bend.

Here From Medford— B. L. Barry was an arrival yesterday afternoon from southern points in the state, and is spending a short time here on business. Mr. Barry is a Medford resident.

Services at Green— There will be services as usual at the Green School house Sunday, Sunday school at 2 p. m., preaching service at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. McCullagh. All are invited.

Myrtle Creek Visitors— Mrs. F. W. Stone and daughter, Miss Nettie, former residents of Edenhower, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dieckmann, all of Myrtle Creek, were visitors in Roseburg yesterday.

Dr. Bell Very Ill— Dr. J. R. N. Bell, newspaper publisher and minister in Roseburg during its pioneer days, is very ill at his home in Corvallis, where he has resided for many years. His condition is so serious that he cannot raise his head without assistance and he is unable to speak above a whisper. Both in years and tenure of service, Dr. Bell is the oldest chaplain of the Masonic lodge in the United States.

LOCAL NEWS

F. m Medford— T. Gebauer was an arrival here from Medford yesterday, and spent the day in Roseburg transacting business affairs.

From Cleveland— Mrs. George Reynolds was here yesterday visiting and attending to business matters. Mrs. Reynolds resides at Cleveland.

To Portland— O. Utman returned to his home at Portland this morning, after spending Friday and last night in Roseburg transacting business.

Ashland Couple Visit— Mr. and Mrs. Behler were among those from southern points to stop over in Roseburg yesterday and last night to visit. They reside at Ashland.

Visits Friday— L. Older was a visitor in Roseburg Friday from southern points, and spent several hours attending to business matters. Mr. Older is from Medford.

From Medrose— Mrs. T. E. Busenbark was a visitor in this city yesterday and spent the day on business and shopping. Mrs. Busenbark resides at Medrose.

From Camas Valley— Mrs. George Moore and Mrs. C. F. Sigel are spending a short time in this city visiting and on business. They both reside at Camas Valley.

Teacher From Sutherlin— Miss Gibson, a teacher at the Sutherlin Academy was a visitor from that place yesterday, and spent a few hours on business and shopping.

On Business— S. A. Götter arrived here from the coast yesterday afternoon and is spending a day or so in Roseburg on business. Mr. Götter resides at North Bend.

New of Death— Mrs. W. K. Taaffe, of the Kohlhaagen Apartments, received the sad news Wednesday of the death of her father, William H. James, at Vancouver, B. C.

Arrived From North Dakota— Mr. and Mrs. E. Langdon arrived here last night from Walcott, North Dakota, and will visit with Mrs. Frank Staffanson. They may decide to locate in this city.

Leaves for California— K. McKnight of Seattle, who has been transacting business in this city for the past several days left for northern California points yesterday afternoon.

Leaves for Sacramento— Mrs. H. A. Palmer, who has been visiting in this city for a week at the home of Mrs. H. M. Hensley, left yesterday afternoon for her home at Sacramento.

Judge Hamilton To Eugene— Judge J. W. Hamilton left for Eugene, yesterday afternoon on business, and to attend a meeting of the board of regents of the University of Oregon.

To Visit Parents— Mrs. Emmett E. Richards arrived this morning from Portland, and will spend the week end in Roseburg visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamlin.

From Sutherlin— Miss Boyer, teacher at the Sutherlin Academy was here Friday and spent several hours in Roseburg on business and shopping.

Spend Week End— Miss Gertrude Wickham arrived here last night from Monmouth, where she is attending Normal School, and will spend the week end in Roseburg visiting with her parents and friends.

On Way to Klamath Falls— Mrs. N. B. Puros and daughter and Mrs. George Pappas stopped over in this city as visitors yesterday and last night. They are en route home to Klamath Falls, after a trip to northern points by auto.

Former Resident to Visit— Miss Zella Zigler arrived here this morning from Portland, and will visit in this city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bolter. She formerly resided here and has a number of friends. She will be here for about six weeks.

Food Sale Today— The Thimble Club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft Lodge held a food and fancy article sale today in the display windows of the Zigler-Poe Hardware Store. A number of delicious articles were for sale, and some pretty fancy work. A good sum was realized from the sale, the proceeds going to the club funds.

Leaving For Portland— Mrs. D. P. Strum, who has been residing in Roseburg for the past few months, will leave Sunday for Portland, where Mr. Strum has been located for the past month. They expect to make their home there.

To Arrive Today— Mrs. William Bell is expected to arrive here some time today, after spending the past week or ten days visiting at northern points. Mrs. Bell accompanied her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Baker, and two children, who visited here for some weeks, as far as Seattle, where they embarked for their home at Cordova, Alaska. Mrs. Bell visited in Seattle for about a week, and in Port Angeles, Wash. On her return she visited in Portland.

Mr. Smith in— Willard Smith was a visitor in this city on business yesterday, and spent several hours transacting business and visiting friends.

Here Friday— T. B. Evans was a visitor of Roseburg Friday, from points south of town, and transacted business. Mr. Evans resides at Dillard.

From South Deer Creek— Clarence Main spent yesterday in this city on business and visiting with friends. Mr. Main resides at South Deer Creek.

To Grants Pass— Frank Battle, who has been in this city a short time transacting business matters, left yesterday evening for Grants Pass.

Spends Day— Mrs. T. Vanderwood returned to her home at Green last evening, after spending the day in this city shopping and visiting.

From Sutherlin— Mr. Condon was here from Sutherlin yesterday, and spent several hours attending to business matters and visiting friends.

It leaves a wonderful taste in your mouth. This cannot be said of ordinary baker's bread. GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD. PHONE 123.

From Medford— Among the arrivals here yesterday from southern points to spend the day on business, was H. Hart. Mr. Hart is a Medford resident.

It's a table decoration. It's a household necessity. No larder is complete without it. GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD. PHONE 123.

From Wilbur— Mrs. Coke was a visitor in this city from points north Friday. Mrs. Coke is a Wilbur resident, and was here on business and shopping.

Sutherlin Residents— Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gildersleeve were visitors here today from Sutherlin. They spent some time shopping and visiting friends.

Here from Glide— R. S. Hartnell arrived here yesterday from Glide and spent the day and today in Roseburg attending to business matters.

From Coast— E. W. Cooper is spending a day or so in this city on business matters. Mr. Cooper arrived from North Bend yesterday afternoon.

Here Friday— Mrs. Godley was a visitor in this city Friday from points north of Roseburg. She is from Wilbur and was here shopping and on business.

From Medford— I. L. East was an arrival here yesterday evening from southern points, and was an overnight guest and visitor. Mr. East is a Medford resident.

To Visit Sister— Miss Mary Edgerton arrived yesterday evening from Seattle, and will spend some time in this city visiting with her sister, Mrs. Hennigh.

From Oakland— Jack Chenoweth was here today and spent some time on business and visiting with friends. Mr. Chenoweth resides at Oakland.

Mr. Hally Leaves for Grants Pass— C. E. Hally, of the public service commission at Salem, who has been here on business for the past few days, left for Grants Pass yesterday evening.

Spend Day Here— Mrs. A. A. Rose was here from points south of town yesterday and spent the day shopping and visiting. She returned to her home at Green last night.

Visitors From Looking Glass— Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clingston were visitors here this morning from Looking Glass. They were here shopping and visiting with friends.

From Coast— R. Miller was an arrival here yesterday from coast points, and spent several hours in this city on business. Mr. Miller resides at Coos Bay.

Here This Morning— Mrs. Claude Harvey and two children were visitors in this city this morning and transacted business and shopping. They reside near Sutherlin.

From Bend— C. B. Patterson, well known Bend resident, was among those to arrive from the coast yesterday evening. Mr. Patterson was here a short time today on business.

Here from Oakland— Orb Getting was here from points north of the city today and spent several hours on business and visiting. Mr. Getting resides at Oakland.

From Umpqua— George Solomon was a Roseburg visitor this morning from Umpqua and spent several hours transacting business matters and purchasing supplies.

Here Today— Mrs. C. J. Bjerg was here from the rural districts for a few hours this morning on business and shopping. She resides north of town, on one of the Curry tracts.

Arrive From St. Helens— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vernon and family arrived here last night from St. Helens, and will visit with Mr. Vernon's mother, Mrs. S. Montgomery. They may decide to locate in Roseburg.

Here Today— Martin B. Bass was here today for a short time from Powers. Mr. Bass was here on business matters.

Here Friday— Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leake were visitors in Roseburg Friday from Dixonville, spending several hours here visiting and on business.

Three times a day every day for a year is not once too often. You will agree when you try one loaf of GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD. Phone 123.

From Grants Pass— A. H. Wright was an arrival from southern points yesterday, and spent a few hours here on business. Mr. Wright is from Grants Pass.

To Eugene— Mrs. Effie Fisher and E. McBroome left this morning for Eugene, where they will spend the week end looking after property interests.

Here Today— E. H. Crane was a business visitor in this city today, and spent a few hours visiting relatives. Mr. Crane is from Umpqua.

Visitor From Myrtle Creek— J. H. Morrison was a visitor in this city yesterday from points south of Roseburg. Mr. Morrison resides at Myrtle Creek, and was here transacting business.

Returns To Salem— W. A. Winters returned to his home at Salem this morning after spending Friday and last night in Roseburg on business. Mr. Winters is with the state highway department.

To Visit in Portland— Mrs. J. R. Chapman left this morning for Portland, where she will visit with her mother, who has been ill for some time, but is improving nicely now. Mrs. Chapman expects to be gone for two weeks or more.

Fire Department Called— The fire department was called out last night for a fire at the Hash rooming house on East Douglas street. No damage was done by the fire.

Divorce Granted— A decree of divorce was granted today to Cordelia V. Neas from J. H. Neas by Judge Hamilton, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Neas was represented by Attorney J. O. Watson.

Mrs. Dolan Improving— Mrs. James Dolan, who has been confined to her bed for the past two weeks, and who has been severely ill for the past several days, is reported as much better today.

Harry Stapleton, who is ill with Harry Stapleton who is ill with pneumonia at his home in this city, as the result of a cold, is reported as getting along as well as can be expected by the physician, Dr. E. B. Stewart.

Leave For Eugene— Mrs. A. Spencer and children left this morning for Eugene, where she will visit over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Patrick and her husband, who is employed by the Southern Pacific company out of there.

Grocery Is Remodeled— The interior of the Maddox & Wetherell grocery at the camp grounds has been remodeled to give more room to the large stock carried by that popular concern. A fine line of canned goods are attractively displayed on the shelves and everything for the table is carried.

Here From Portland— United States District Attorney George Neuner arrived here today from Portland for a short visit with his family. Mr. Neuner states that he is now hard at work in the office work but will attempt to find time occasionally to drop in for a visit with the folks in the home town.

Opens Real Estate Office— H. G. Wilson has opened a real estate office at 264 North Jackson street. Mr. Wilson has a great deal of city and rural property listed and also some timber property. Mr. Wilson stated this morning that he expects to see a great influx of people here this spring and summer and expects a great many transfers in real estate.

Our Hairdressers are adepts and are familiar with new variations in styles that are constantly appearing and will arrange your coiffure to suit your own individuality.

Terminal Hotel Beauty Shoppe Pansy Ward, in charge

Did you ever meet a motorist who is not satisfied with Shell Motor Oil?

DEPENDABLE LUBRICATION

SHELL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

Here Today— Mrs. Archie Elliott spent a few hours in this city today on business and shopping. Mrs. Elliott resides at Myrtle Creek.

Here From Los Angeles— Miss Gertrude Dolan is here from Los Angeles to be with her mother, Mrs. James Dolan, who has been quite ill.

Goodman Arrested— Leo Goodman was arrested today charged with operating a motor vehicle for hire without a permit. He took time to enter a plea and was released upon his own recognizance.

J. P. Brown, who has been ill for the past several weeks, is better and was able to be about on the streets again today.

Use News-Review Classified Advertising for results

Envelopes, bill heads, calling cards, business cards, posters, folders, booklets of every description printed on short notice by The News-Review exclusive job printing department. Phone 125.

Read the Classified ads in The News-Review. They mean dollars to you.

America's "Sole Defense" Against Air Attack

Above is pictured the First Pursuit Squadron of the United States Army Air Service, stationed at Solifridge Field, MI. Clemens, Mich., where Major Lamplier is the commanding officer. This is the famous pursuit squadron named by Brigadier-General William Mitchell, assistant chief of the air service, in his testimony before a Congressional committee, as being America's "sole defense" against attack from the air.

Snapshots of a Puzzler When the Solution Is At Hand By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

A series of cartoon panels showing a man struggling with a crossword puzzle. The panels are numbered 1 through 10, showing his frustration and eventual success. Captions include: 'IS STILL TRYING TO FINISH CROSS WORD PUZZLE FROM YESTERDAY'S PAPER. WHEN WIFE REMARKS THE SOLUTION IS IN TO-NIGHT'S IF HE WANTS IT', 'SAYS CERTAINLY HE DOESN'T WANT IT. NO POINT IN WORKING OUT A PUZZLE IF YOU LOOK AT SOLUTION FIRST', 'IMMEDIATELY GETS STUCK ON "WOOD" IN FOUR LETTERS', 'AFTER TICKING OFF ALL THE KINDS OF WOOD HE KNOWS, NONE OF WHICH WILL FIT. NOTICES WIFE HAS LEFT PAPER WITH SOLUTION ON TABLE', 'MUTTERS THIRMLY NO HE ISN'T GOING TO LOOK AT IT AND BEGINS FINISHING "OAK", "PINE", "WALNUT", "HOGANONY"', 'FIVE MINUTES LATER FEELS IT WOULD BE ALL RIGHT TO LOOK UP THIS ONE WORD, BUT THAT'S ALL, NO MORE, NO, GIRL', 'WRITES DOWN "WORLD" MUTTERING "HE THOUGHT IT WAS SOMETHING LIKE THAT AND ABSOLUTELY PUSHES PAPER ACROSS TABLE"', 'FIGS NEXT WORD IS "CERTAIN" THOUGH IN GREEK MUSIC TARD IMMEDIATELY FALLS SOLUTION BACK AGAIN', 'EVENTUALLY FINISHES PUZZLE AT HIS EASE WITH SOLUTION IN ONE HAND AND SOLUTION IN OTHER.' © McClure Newspaper Syndicate

Advertisement for 'EXTRA EARLY EGYPTIAN SPECIAL BEET' seeds. Text includes 'You can't Beat this' and 'Early to Bed, Early to Rise'.

Advertisement for GILL BROS SEED CO. PORTLAND, OREGON. Text includes 'Send $1' and 'The Extra Early Egyptian Special has had our personal selection and produces extra early beets with small leaves and small tap roots.'