BENNY LEONARD QUITS THE RING

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Mar. 16.—Benny Leonard, retired lightweight boxing champion, said last night that he never expected to fight as a professional again.

The announcement came at a testimonial dinner at the hotel Astor where several hundred of Leonard's friends and admirer gathered.

"For years it has been my ambition to serve the public, by passing on to it the methods I found most valuable in promoting my own physical development in converting myself from a weak, unhealthy boy to a world champion fighter," Leonard said. "I retired from the ring two months ago for reasons that I believed were compelling and logical. I believe now, as I did then, that I am right.

"I never expect to fight as a professional again. I feel that the work I am now going to devote myself to is bigger than defending a world championship. I have always wanted by years of experience in training myself and the time spent in instructing our soldiers during the world war, to be of service in teaching the men and women of America correct methods of keeping their minds and bodies sound and healthy. I am now going to have that opportunity."

MRS. STRAHORN DIES IN SOUTH

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Mrs. Robert E. Strahorn, of Spokane, wife of a pioneer railroad builder of the Pacific Northwest, died yesterday at a hotel here.

Mrs. H. E. Lacey, Los Angeles, a sister of Mrs. Strahorn, and Mrs. Quintaro Johnson, of Spokane, a niece, were with Mrs. Strahorn when the end came.

Strahorn said he expected to arrange for the shipment of Mrs. Strahorn's body to Spokane by Tuesday.

Mrs. Strahorn was conscious up to within a few minutes of her death.

SPOKANE, Wash., March 16.—Mrs. Carrie Adell Strahorn, who died in San Francisco yesterday, was the author of numerous magazine articles and one book descriptive of her experiences during nearly half a century of travel over the west as the companion of her husband, Robert E. Strahorn, railroad builder.

Since their marriage in 1877, Mrs. Strahorn had accompanied her husband in his work as an engineer, traveling by stage or horseback. She was declared to have been the first white woman to explore completely and describe Yellowstone Park and what are now Glacier and Rocky Mountain National Parks. She also was one of the first women to explore and detail the wonders of Alaska.

Mrs. Strahorn was born in Mareno, Ill., in 1854. She was the daughter of Dr. John W. Green, who served as division surgeon in Grant's army of the Tennessee during the civil war. She is survived by her husband and a sister Mrs. Hattie E. Lacey of Los Angeles.

COOS-CURRY ARCH WILL BE BUILT AT JUNCTION OF ROADS

An ornate and attractive arch, combining the purposes of a guide-post and a community advertisement of resources, is to be erected at the junction of the Pacific and Coos Bay highways near Dillard if the plans of a group of energetic Coos and Curry county citizens are carried out. It is proposed to expend about $3,500 on the project. The work of securing contribution to the fund is now under way in the coast region with every purpose of success. It is understood that commercial organizations of the two counties have pledged a large share of the money and that most of the remainder will be secured from the county courts.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Editor News-Review:

I want to say a few words regarding the Christians of Roseburg and their duty towards law enforcement. I will not give my opinion of religion and the right church as there are near 700 different views.

A real Christian is a man or woman who believes in standing behind the officers of the law in aiding them to enforce same. Without law and order we could not exist, neither could the church. A Christian will not call a policeman or many peace officer, dog catcher nor criticize them in trying to do their duty. There are crooked officers but no crooked Christians. "Him that has ears let him hear." A Carlstian can be narrow and not accomplish much. He can be broadminded and accomplish a great deal. Their is a minimum amount of work to do, but the maximum is bounded only by the end of space. Ignorance is Satan's influence. Ignorance denies people of their liberties, keeps them from taking part in civic affairs. One man in this city voted last fall for the first time in 25 years and his conscience still hurts him, he is a good man, but is not doing much for God.

Another told me that he had been reborn and his desires had left him, had no use for secret orders. I believed him as he spoke as a child and thought as a child. This is ignorance. The Bible tells us how far we can go. The light of Christianity is the only true light. All knowledge comes from God. Science is the scattering seeds that blew from the main tree and planted in the wilderness. People have been the same from the beginning as far as human nature is concerned. If Ananias lived today he would be eligible to be a member of the Oregon legislature and Sapphire could be governor of a great state. God does not care what we eat or drink.

But we must not destroy our lives by so doing. The drunkard or glutton is doomed. We are all striving after that knowledge that keeps us on the right road. The Christian life is a life full of adventure. I enjoy studying people and the way some people act is interesting indeed. Sometimes I feel like laughing out loud.

Sincerely,
CLARENCE WHITE.

Tip For Beginners.

Solve this puzzle by comparing the synonyms listed in the "Horizontal" and "Vertical" columns with the number of spaces extending crosswise or downward on the diagram, as the case may be. If a word occurs to you meaning substantially the same as the synonym and the correct number of letters to fit in the spaces between its number and the first shaded step following, write it in lightly. Work away the small words, the "easy" words, first, and they will give you plenty of clues to the difficult ones
