JOHN C. RITTER DIES AT WEST ROSEBURG HOME

John Carl Ritter, Sr., of West Roseburg, died at noon today after a prolonged illness. Mr. Ritter was in poor health for many months prior to his death, and a few days ago, realizing that the end was near, prepared his own obituary, which he asked be furnished for the information of his friends following his death. His own story of his life is as follows:

"I, John Carl Ritter, Sr., was born in Kosciusko county, Indiana, on the 24th day of May, 1862, near North Webster. My childhood days were spent on a farm. In April 1884 I moved with my parents to Bollivar, Mo., and attended the public schools of that city for a number of years.

"I confessed my faith in the Lord Jesus at the age of 14 and was baptized and received into the Christian church where I gave several years to regular attendance and active work. In the fall of 1907 a trip west to benefit my health caused me to resign as deacon and clerk. After this date, moving often and the care of a growing family, my attendance became irregular.

"On the 24th day of April, 1904, I was united in marriage to Myrtle Elizabeth Hyde of Holliver, Mo. This has proven a happy union as to us were born three children. My near relatives are my father and mother, James M. Ritter and Harriet J. Ritter; my dear wife, Myrtle E. Ritter, and the children, John Carl Ritter, Jr., Ruth Mildred Ritter, and Esther Elizabeth Ritter, all living at the family home in West Roseburg.

"In February 1914 we moved to Roseburg and lived in West Roseburg continuously several years on the ranch which in our present home.

"My favorite scripture is John

QUEBEC HAS QUAKE OF GREAT INTENSITY

(Associated Press Local Wire.)

QUEBEC, Mar. 21.—An intense earthquake shock was felt here this morning. Houses were shaken but no serious damage or fatalities were reported.

The shock occurred between 10:24 and 10:26 o'clock.

Following the earthquake tremors of February 28, there were recurrent disturbances for several days in this district. Today's shock lasted only five to ten seconds, depending upon the locality.

Telephone communication with Blainville, Murray Bay, St. Simons and other places in Charlevoix county, as well as points in the Saguenay district, was interrupted.

First reports of the quake came from the harbor front in Quebec. The signal service station timed it as at about 10:25 and described it as short but violent, sending a perceptible tremor up the building tower and rattling windows.

Residents near the parliamentary buildings said the quake made china dance on breakfast tables spilling contents of cups into saucers.

The shock ceased to be observed only a few streets away and was believed to be confined to a narrow belt along the river bed, although a sporadic offshot gave a twitch or two in parts of upper town.

The dominion observatory seismograph recorded the movement as taking place at 10:22 and lasting 30 seconds.

3:16 "For God so Loved the World, etc."

The funeral services will be held from the chapel at the Roseburg Undertaking Parlors on Monday, March 22, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. H. E. Mow, pastor of the local Christian church, will officiate.

G. W. WONACOTT IS DEAD ON HIS 79TH BIRTHDAY

Douglas County Judge for Eight Years, Twice in the Legislature.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Instrumental in Wiping Out County Debt and Noted as Pioneer of Era of Good Roads.

PORTLAND, Or., Mar. 20.—Judge George Washington Wonacott, former member of the Oregon legislature, a good roads pioneer of the state, and county judge of Douglas county for eight years, died today at his home in Gresham on his 79th birthday.

He was a democrat and several years ago was urged by many of his friends as a candidate for the nomination for governor, but he declined to enter the race because of his age.

Judge Wonacott was born March 20, 1846, in New River Va. He moved to Virginia City, Ill. in 1855, and served during the Civil war with company H 168th Illinois Infantry. In 1881 he drove across the plains in a covered wagon to be for a time with his friend, Dr. Blalock, after whom Blalock, Wash. was named.

He continued to Roseburg, Ore., in 1882, and there, a little later, was chosen county judge. In 1898 and again in 1900 the people of the county elected him to the legislature.

When Judge Wonacott entered public life in Douglas county the county was deeply in debt and the community was accursed by poor roads. He took his stand in advocating for good highways and he was a leader in forming the plans that extricated the county from debt. His work made him widely known throughout the state.

About 16 years ago he moved to Gresham to make his home. He was a member of the Gresham grange and the Gresham post of the G. A. R. Funeral services, which will be held in Portland Saturday, will be followed by interment in Rose City Park cemetery, at which services the Gresham A. F. and A. M. will have charge.

Judge Wonacott is survived by his widow, Louisa Wonacott, one daughter, Mrs. William Glover of San Francisco, and four sons, William of Silverton, Edward at Twin Falls, Idaho, and Roy and Charles of Portland.

SHEPHERD MAY BE ACCUSED OF FOURTH MURDER

Brother-in-Law's Mysterious Death in Salina Kansas 4 Years Ago Probed.

SHEPHERD SEEKS BAIL

Attorneys Making an Effort Today to Secure Released of Man Under Bonds.

CHICAGO, March 21.—A fourth death that of Otto Graf in Salina, Kansas, twenty years ago is being investigated by Judge Harry Olson of the Municipal court in connection with the alleged murder of William N. McClintock. Graf, a brother-in-law of William D. Shepherd, foster father of McClintock, now charged with murder.

After Graf's death Shepherd is said to have succeeded to the management of the drug business in Salina.

Jessie Graf, daughter of a Salina barber and sister of Otto is said to have been married to Shepherd, when he was lying in bed with an injured neck, reported to have been broken and when he is said to have believed he would die.

Charles H. Wyrick of Chicago, a former clergyman of Salina, already has been conferred with Judge Olson and recalls Shepherd when the latter was living there.

Judge Olson's information is that Graf's death was sudden and that doctors assigned heart disease as the cause.

The deaths of not only McClintock but that of his mother, Mrs. Emma Nelson McClintock, who died 16 years ago while Shepherd and his wife were living with her and that of Judge Olson's brother, Dr. Oscar Olson, whose death occurred three years ago, have been declared by the judge to have been suspicious. That of Graf adds a fourth he has questioned.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Counsel for William D. Shepherd, accused of killing his foster son, William Nelson McClintock with typhoid germs, were prepared today for an effort to obtain his freedom on bail, which states attorneys were ready to oppose. Shepherd has been in the county jail since Wednesday, when the grand jury returned a murder indictment against him. Prosecutors also planned to arraign Charles C. Falman, head of a science school, who said he paid Shepherd $100,000 for a quantity of typhoid germs, and who was jointly indicted with him.

Shepherd's attorneys said they would attack the testimony of Falman before the grand jury.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Testimony that William D. Shepherd, under indictment charged with the murder by typhoid inoculation of his foster son, William N. McClintock, orphan millionaire, had said he would have McClintock's will drawn to suit himself, was given by C. C. Falman, indicted with Shepherd, at a ball hearing today.

Falman said Shepherd had agreed to give him $100,000 when he completed a "big deal" which the witness said, Shepherd told him he was working on. He said this "big deal" was admitted by Shepherd to relate to the McClintock estate.

Falman, president of the National Association of Sciences, admitted that he knew of no witnesses who had heard conversations he alleged he and Shepherd had had about typhoid germs and about the McClintock will.

He said Shepherd had in one conversation referred to Young McClintock and Miss Isabel Pope, his fiancée, intending to marry soon. That was in the fall of 1923, according to Falman, who said Shepherd referred to McClintock's approaching his majority—he was 21 years old a year ago. Falman asserted that he said to Shepherd that such a marriage would "leave him out," but that Shepherd said he would have McClintock draw a will. The witness said, he then said that "the girl must be taken care of or it would cause trouble, and that Shepherd said 'some of those typhoid cultures could be used.' Falman had previously stated

SALEM MAN IS RETURNED EAST TO FACE BIGAMY

Traced to Oregon From Kansas Where He Has Family of 4 Kiddies.

HAS A SECOND WIFE

Present Wife Declares She Did Not Know He Was Married—Her Mother Signed Complaint.

(Associated Press Local Wire.)

SALEM, Ore., Mar. 21.—Sheriff F. A. Cook of Scott county, Kan., arrived here today to take back to his state Moses Hind, alias Will Johnson, who is held in the Marion county jail and who is wanted in Scott county, Kan., on a charge of bigamy. An extradition hearing will be held in the office of Governor Pierce at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

According to the requisition brought here by Sheriff Cook, Hind has a wife living with her father at Stella, Mo., whom he married December 25, 1912. By this wife he has four children, the youngest of whom is not yet a month old.

Recently after working in the harvest fields of Kansas and making various other movements, he went to Healy, Kansas, where he joined Golding Wallace, 29 years old, whom Sheriff Cook describes as "one of the finest girls in our country." Hind had met her during the harvest season. They went to Scott City where they were married by a probate judge November 20 last. Soon afterward they left for Oregon and were traced to Salem.

When Hind was arrested by Marion county officers here, his wife and her sister were living here and Hind was taking a course in automobile mechanics in Portland. The Salem authorities claimed that she did not know Hind had another wife. Her mother signed the complaint against Hind.

BUICK AUTO SHOW ENDED LAST NIGHT

The Buick auto show closed last night with an attendance which far exceeded the expectations of those in charge of the event. The armory was well filled, and a great deal of interest was shown by all of those present in the motion picture depicting the Hawley expedition through Mexico. Following the picture the factory and district representatives gave short talks, and answered the questions of auto owners who had queries to present.

The show concluded with a social dancing which lasted almost until midnight. Dancing was free, and the event was greatly enjoyed by all present.

The demonstration given by the local Buick agency was a decided success from every standpoint, and four sales were made during the two days of the show, while others are expected to result.

A marriage license was issued today to Earl Westerman and Louise Michaela, of Days Creek.

Lewis E. Stewart was fined $5 in the local justice court today on a charge of passing another car unlawfully.

The local Masonic lodge today telegraphed flowers for the funeral of former County Judge G. W. Wonacott.

Dr. A. C. Seely and wife leave tonight for Portland to attend the Rotary Convention, which opens its sessions Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Whipple and daughter, Annette, of Myrtle Creek, spent the day in Roseburg visiting. Miss Whipple is teaching school at Ridge this term.

that he had given Shepherd three tubes of bacilli. Those tubes he had obtained from the Chicago health department.

Falman's interrogation was the opening of Shepherd's first legal battle, a fight to get himself out of jail by admittance to bail.

"A few days after the death of McClintock," said Falman, "Shepherd called me on the telephone and said the boy was dead. I asked him if any of the domestics around the house knew anything about the circumstances, he said no. He said, he was going away for a few days and would not be able to see anybody."

Falman said in his conversations with Shepherd he told him that authorities administered in the typhoid cases would act as irritants and aggravate the disease. Miss Isabel Pope, fiancée of McClintock, testified at the inquest that Mrs. Shepherd gave McClintock castor oil and that she had told of giving the boy pills. Falman said that Shepherd told him in a conversation after McClintock became ill, that he had given him cathartic pills.

"During the first few conversations," he said, "we spoke of criminal bacteriology, which he had discussed with my representative. He said, when I gave him the germs, that he wanted to experiment with them."

Going to Rotary Convention—A. J. Libborn, M. F. Rice and B. W. Bates will leave tomorrow morning in the latter's car for Portland where they will spend several days attending the Rotary convention to be held at that city the first of the week.
