Big chefs and little chefs

Chefs of great renown and chefs whose fame extends only to family and friends start on an equal footing with Golden West Coffee.

The magic of good coffee making goes back to the selective choice of the world's best-flavored high-grown coffee berries—and to the 40-year-old years of blending, roasting and cutting—then vacuum packing—which insures coffee goodness in Golden West.

Even more—there's the economy of spending to yield more delicious cups to the pound.

Theatres

ANTLERS THEATRE.
One of the most interesting scenes in Richard Barthelmess' new picture "Classmates" now at the Antlers Theatre, is an actual view of "Camp Illumination" at West Point. This is the first time the United States Military Academy authorities have ever permitted the filming of any part of their grounds or activities by private motion picture companies, and "Classmates" is replete with new scenes. "Camp Illumination" has been an annual function at the close of West Point's summer camp since October, 1781. At that time General George Washington ordered a special celebration there of the birth of the Dauphin of France.

LIBERTY THEATRE.
The Simplicissimus Cate, one of the most famous and notorious resorts in all Vienna, is the scene of much of the action of "The Crimson Runner," Hunt Stromberg's new Priscilla Dean feature, which is to be shown at the Liberty Theatre next Sunday. This colorful and adventurous for students, brave-hearted tourists and dangerous underworld characters, has been reproduced with unusual fidelity and in its entirety presents one of the most colorful panoramas of Continental night life that the screen has presented in many moons.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.
What is regarded as one of the timeliest dramas that ever found its way to the silver screen will be seen at the Majestic Theatre for two days, beginning today, when William S. Hart makes his appearance in "The Patriot," a thrilling story by Monte M. Katterbach, and directed by Thomas H. Ince.

"The Patriot" is written about a man passionately devoted to the Stars and Stripes, but who, thinking that the government had defrauded him turns in furious rage against his country, only to be finally reclaimed by his native land through the advent of a golden-haired boy who revives for him the tenderest of memories.

Church services at Calapooia Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Needham will preach.

ENGLISH WILLING TO TAKE PART IN MEET
(Associated Press—London, Mar. 27.—) Daily Mail says it learns that in addition to the assurances given to Mr. Lloyd before he left London embassy to become American secretary of state, the government sent a note to Washington reasserting Great Britain's willingness to participate in a disarmament conference whenever one was announced by the United States. It was also indicated that the dominions were ready to act with the British.

Lutheran Services—Service next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. in the Episcopal Parish House, 214 E. Cass St. Subject of the sermon is "Christ Compared With Barabbas." In Barabbas we see a reflection of the corrupt human nature in Christ, who is the true Savior of mankind. He is also your Savior and even though you may be a great sinner like Barabbas, He wants to be your Savior if you will only accept Him. Show Him that you love Him, that you love to meditate upon His great passion by attending services Sunday, whether you be a stranger in our services or not. Come! As our Savior welcomes all, so we welcome all. Sunday school at 1:30 o'clock. Let us have a full attendance Sunday. You cannot afford to miss a single lesson. Confirmation instruction every Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the parsonage. H. H. Young, pastor.

Church of Christ of Myrtle Creek Sunday, March 29. Sunday school—10:00 a. m. It certainly is an inspiration to attend the Sunday again last week. "Bring your children to Sunday school." Preaching and communion at 11:00. There will be a chart sermon in the morning. Christian Endeavor at 6:30. There will be a union meeting of the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League. Everybody comes. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Is Russellism Scriptural?" This will be a message you will want to hear. The pastor has been confronted many times in a personal way about the teachings of this religious sect and Sunday evening the subject will be treated from a scriptural standpoint. Everybody is given a cordial invitation. Luke Elliott, Minister.

First M. E. Church, Corner of Main and Lane streets, Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor. The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Mr. E. Goodburn, supt. Only two weeks till Easter. Let every one be on hand for the opening song. The papers are continuously deploring present moral conditions of our country. The best way to remedy matters is for parents to come and bring their children to Sunday school and do it regularly. The Junior League meets at 2 p. m. The Epworth League meets at 6:30 p. m. The morning sermon theme is "The Measurement of Pilate's Friendship." This is a pre-Easter sermon and is an interesting treatise on Pilate's character. Do not miss hearing it. The evening service will be in charge of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. They have been making extensive preparations and have arranged a most interesting program. A cordial invitation is extended to all, particularly to strangers.

Church services at Calapooia Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Needham will preach.

M. E. Church, South Main and Lane streets, Stewart O'Neil, pastor. W. L. Cobb, S. S. superintendent. People engaged in the pursuit of business and pleasure knowing that folks are dying about them every day. All admit that "we know not the day nor the hour"; most people will admit that they are not prepared. The pastor of this church will speak Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock upon the text: "If a man die shall he live again?" At 7:30 the text will be, "What think ye of the Christ?" There are no strings to this invitation. It is for your good and for the good of humanity that you attend church services and prepare to meet the great issues of life. All regular services will be held Sunday as usual. Wednesday prayer meeting will be held by the W. M. S. Mrs. Gamble will lead the service. People engaged in business, Tinsley, Fillemore, W. M. business meeting at the church

Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Bible Standard Mission—Rev. L. P. Burror, pastor. The brief revival held by the pastor at Looking Glass will come to a close Sat. evening. Services in this Mission tonight at the usual hour. Miss Leona Wright will preach. Miss Wright though only 15 years old has a good knowledge of the Bible and is a very interesting speaker. Services Sunday at 2:30 and 7:30. In the afternoon service the pastor will preach, his subject will be "Power from on High." In the evening service the pastor will preach again, subject "Breaking the Bands." This will be the first of a series of four sermons leading up into Easter. The other subjects which will come on Sunday evening will be "Calvary" and "Go Tell" and the Easter Morning Service "The Lord is Risen Indeed." Also services in the Mission every Tuesday and Friday evenings at 7:30, S. S. at Riverside at 10:00 a. m. Young People's meeting at 6:30 and preaching at 7:30. Services at Glenary at 11:00 o'clock. Services at Rice creek at 11:00 the pastor will fill this appointment. We are reaching out and we invite you to come and help us tell the good old story and to worship with us. Nothing new, Just the Old Time Religion.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. HADLEY HELD

Hundreds of sorrowing friends gathered this morning at the Presbyterian church where they paid their last tribute to Mrs. Charles L. Hadley, who passed away Thursday morning after a long illness. The great bank of beautiful floral tributes was a token of the love and esteem felt by the great throng of friends for the one whose death has brought sorrow into many homes. A touching eulogy was delivered by Hon. J. W. Hamilton, and after the services the body was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery.

JUDGE DECIDING OWNERSHIP TEAPOT

(Associated Press—London, Mar. 27.—) Possession of Teapot Dome hinged on legal points today and rested in the discretion of Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy before whom the lease annulment suit of the government against the Harry F. Sinclair's Mammoth Oil company was completed here yesterday. The decision of Judge Kennedy will determine whether Hamilton obtained the lease on the Wyoming naval oil reserve as a result of conspiracy and fraud, as the government alleges, or whether the Mammoth Oil company obtained the grant because it submitted the best bid and because the government was forced by an act of congress to develop the oil field, as the defense contended. At least thirty days will elapse before Judge Kennedy will have all documents of the case in his hands and until then he probably will not make a decision. This is the result of an agreement between counsel yesterday given 15 days in which to file a brief of the case, and the defense a similar length of time in which to reply to the plaintiff's brief.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR SPELLING CONTEST

Elimination matches have been conducted in all of the schools of the city, and contestants from each grade are now setting in readiness for the Kiwanis spelling contest to be staged at the high school auditorium on Friday, April 3. Three contestants have been selected from each fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade in the city. The three contestants being the three highest in the elimination matches in each of those grades in each school. This gives 33 contestants to participate in the final match on next Friday. The fifth and sixth grade spellers used at school, and from the supplementary list provided by the Kiwanis club for this event, and the seventh and eighth grade representatives will have words from the book used in their grades and from the supplementary list. The first prize is to be a $50 gold watch, which will go to the boy or girl, who is the last one to remain standing. Eleven prizes of $5 each, one for the winner in each grade, in each school will be awarded. The winner of the grand prize will receive $5 in addition to the $50 watch. This spelling contest has resulted in more attention being given to this subject in the city schools than ever before. Each school has entered whole-heartedly into the plans, and the students have been working hard to win places.

STAR CAR MAKES SECOND HILL CLIMB

The Star car driven by Louis Dusevier, factory engineer, which climbed to the top of Mt. Nebo yesterday morning, repeated the feat in the afternoon. Charles Clark, a local photographer, expressed a desire to make pictures of the climb, and Mr. Dusevier immediately volunteered to repeat the dangerous stunt, and with Gary and Leo Rapp for passengers went back up the hill without a stop, while Mr. Clark photographed the climb from the Oak street bridge. Later pictures were made at the top of the hill and during the descent, which in itself is a very risky undertaking.

Swampscott, Mass., May Be Summer Capital

Frank W. Stearns, of Boston, friend and advisor to President Coolidge, has leased "White Court" at Swampscott, Mass., for several months, and, although no official announcement has yet been made, his action indicates that this estate will be the unofficial White House and Summer residence of the President. The property is owned by the family of the late Frederick E. Smith, and overlooks Marblehead Bay. President Coolidge has spent his Summers in Massachusetts for several years.
