ROSEBURG, OREGON, TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1925.

FAVORITE INDOOR SPORT

Passing the buck is a regular indoor sport with many people. For instance, when some fellow wants to lambast another person he writes a communication to his local paper, setting forth his grievances in very plain language with a formidable display of adjectives to give his thoughts full expression.

A fellow townsman walked into our sanctum yesterday and said he was proud of one thing—probably two. One was the fact that he had a good set of teeth and the other was the virtue of maintaining a whole lot of pep and ginger at the age of three score years, or thereabouts.

Roseburg is making a good, sound conservative growth. Nothing spectacular—nothing savoring of a boom—just growing bigger and better every day. And the future presents many constructive accomplishments that will be born before the year 1925 goes down in history.

During the writer's absence from the city last week, one of our dearest and most esteemed friends answered the call of the Master. With an acquaintanceship lasting over a period of thirty years we have never found a person in whom we could place a trust of confidence, whose friendship we prized more highly, whose every action was directed through love and kindness, than that of Mrs. Charles L. Hadley.

Start right in today to save your pennies so that on next Tuesday, April 7, you will have assembled one big, round iron dollar to be given for the benefit of the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. The drive is being conducted by the local Women's Christian Temperance Union and is one of the most worthy causes to come before the people of Roseburg.

Portland is taking on the earmarks of a metropolitan city. Her latest achievement to cope with her rivals is the slaying of a woman by an unknown person who demonstrated his ability with a healthy chunk of gas pipe.

The greatest cross-word puzzle going the rounds today is how to get through the street monuments planted at the corner of Cass and Jackson streets and keep to the right and still be right.

If some people could, or would, work as hard as they talk, it would certainly be a great relief to those who are trying to accomplish something constructive.

If fashion should declare that women's dresses be made shorter the stocking manufacturers will certainly have to stretch their hosiery.

May 3 to 10 has been set aside as "Music Week." The air will be full of it—with the modern radio outfit in perfect working order.

Some fellows never get any where for the simple reason they never get up to the starting point.

PRUNE PICKIN'S

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—

They had a bolt of lightning Down in Salem Yesterday that Skidded thru The penitentiary Which proves That a feller Ain't even safe Behind bars These days.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS Esophagus is a Greek orator. PRESUMABLY Respected Sir— If, as we are reliably informed, as a man wearing the uniform of the U. S. navy is called a "Gob", should the little children herabouts who wear pocket editions of that uniform be called "goblets"?

Anxiously, ARTIE FISHEL. Owing an automobile is great sport, but one of the main objections is that it always needs a new tire just about the time friend wife wants a new hat or some thing.

HOW OLD IS THIS RUTH? (Overheard in a Drug Store.) "I see you are not dating with Ruth any more. What's the matter?" "My tailor bill got too high. Every time I left her, I had to have my clothes pressed!"

NEEDS SPANKING, WE'D SAY The fellow who is messing and fussing around, scolding and complaining, reminds us of the little girl who called: "Muvver, I'm up stairs crying; come an' see what's the matter wif me."

Wonder when prohibition goes into effect? So far it has only raised the price. The bankers say they have no money. Evidently money is occupying a quiet sector somewhere in pants.

A FATAL FLASH Silly kid, Car skid, Glass lid. Waffles are like kisses, maybe, because the last one tastes best.

When a man is looking for trouble he never has to hire a detective to help him find it. "Be it ever so humble," Said Wallie McDoms, "I'm free to confess. There is no place like home. For your dear home and fireside How fondly you sigh When you're miles out of town, And your gas tank runs dry."

No wonder Washington crossed the Delaware—there was a girl on the other side knitting him a neck tie. There is one thing harder to find than a lost collar-button, and that is a broad-minded woman.

Scientific boxing is a great thing, but the fellow with the inch-and-a-half forehead and the "kick" in his right hand often takes the winner's end of the purse. And another kind of pest is the fellow who professes a story thusly: "This wouldn't be a funny story if it wasn't true." Usually he's right.

SILLY AWSS A silly gink is Abner Carroll. He's less brain than a chigger; He stuck his thumb in a shotgun barrel And then he pulled the trigger.

About the only advantage a horse has is that he doesn't have to take off his shoes when he goes to bed. In 1775 we fought for our freedom; now we have to go to Cuba to enjoy it.

Some people are so fond of an argument they won't eat anything that agrees with them. "The feller who sez he never kissed a girl will lie as easily about other things."

RED CROSS FIELD WORKER TO SPEND WEEK IN COUNTY Miss Nell Halsinger, field representative of the Red Cross, arrived in Roseburg today and will remain for a week meeting the executive committee of the chapter here and taking up the work in the county.

Miss Halsinger is the city at frequent intervals, assisting in the local and county work wherever possible. There are a number of matters which she expects to take up in this county, and will discuss these things with the officials of the local and Douglas county chapters.

WORK STARTED ON NEW MAXWELL HOME

Work is being started today on a new building, which will occupy the site of the old Deer Creek barn which burned last winter, and which will be the home of the Maxwell auto agency after its completion. The building is being constructed by Contractor Elmer Metzger for A. E. Davidson, who purchased the property about two years ago, and who has been making a fill and other improvements preparatory to the construction of the garage building.
