

LOCAL NEWS

Visitor Tuesday - Mark Tidale was a visitor in this city yesterday and last night. He is a resident of Sutherlin.

From Riddle - Fred Stuey was a visitor here Tuesday from Riddle and spent the day attending to business matters.

From Wilbur - Miss Beulah Parker was here from Wilbur yesterday and spent the day on business and visiting with friends.

In From Melrose - Phil Nachter was here from Melrose yesterday and spent the afternoon visiting and attending to business matters.

Eastern Star to Meet - The members of the Eastern Star lodge will meet Tuesday evening, April second at 8 o'clock for a banquet and initiation.

In Tuesday - Carl Lindsay spent several hours in this city yesterday attending to business matters. Mr. Lindsay is a Melrose resident.

From Garden Valley - George Webber was here from his ranch at Garden Valley Tuesday afternoon, and spent several hours attending to business matters.

Visitors Tuesday - Mr. and Mrs. John Nachter spent several hours in Roseburg Tuesday attending to business matters and shopping. They are from Melrose.

Business Visitor - C. A. C. Sucas was a visitor in this city from Willis Creek, near Dillard, Tuesday. Mr. Sucas was here transacting business and trading.

From Coast - Albert O. Hess was an arrival from the coast yesterday and spent the day here on business. Mr. Hess is from Marshfield and returned home last night.

From Melrose - Among the out of town visitors here yesterday was Alvin Anderson. Mr. Anderson is a Melrose resident, and was here attending to business matters.

Here On Business - E. E. Wilson, of Portland, arrived here yesterday from Marshfield where he has been attending to business matters, and will spend a day or so in Roseburg on business.

From Yoncalla - Mrs. Earl Brant and family were visitors in this city Tuesday and spent the afternoon shopping and attending to business matters. They are residents of Yoncalla.

From Days Creek - Mrs. J. T. Wright was a visitor here on Tuesday morning from points south of the city, spending several hours shopping and visiting. She resides at Days Creek.

Visitors Here Yesterday - J. DeBernardi and son, Albert, were Roseburg visitors from Glendale yesterday afternoon. They spent several hours attending to business matters and purchasing supplies.

Is Recovering - Mrs. Charles E. Hazar, who has been quite ill at her home, "The Maples," east of the city, for the past few months, is convalescing and greatly improved, but is still unable to assume any of her household or social duties.

Mock Circus at Elgarose - There will be a mock circus held at Elgarose school Friday evening. It will consist of a main performance of circus acts and several side shows besides ice cream and lunch counter and fish pond. A small admission fee will be charged.

Back From Portland - Miss Alice Mahn and Mrs. Howard Carnes, who have been visiting in Portland for a short time, have returned to this city. Miss Mahn was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Claude Plaster of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Plaster is also a sister of Mrs. Barton Helwell and is a guest at the latter's home.

Fines Are Paid - Ethel McCharles and Lewis Powers, arrested recently in the city court, have paid fines of $25 each for disorderly conduct. They were arrested at a local rooming house, and officers found evidence indicating that they came here from California, but as the government apparently did not care to prosecute the case, the city charge was lodged and fines imposed.

Here Today - W. B. Jamison arrived here yesterday from Portland and spent the day and today attending to business matters.

Will Leave For Seattle - Mrs. H. E. Coleman of this city, will leave soon for Seattle where she expects to spend a week or so visiting.

Leaves for Salem - D. Boyer, of this city, left for Salem this morning, where he will spend the next few days attending to business matters.

In Town Tuesday - J. H. Kalpe spent several hours in this city Tuesday attending to business affairs. Mr. Kalpe is a resident of Oakland.

Returns to Myrtle Creek - Frank Ackley returned to his home at Myrtle Creek this morning after spending Tuesday here attending to business affairs.

Let us have your orders for sheep shearing machines now. We have three power drops coming and can get any style that you wish. Wharton Bros.

Spends Tuesday - R. J. West was an arrival from the north yesterday and spent the day attending to business matters. Mr. West is a Portland resident.

Guild to Meet - St. George's Guild will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Parish house for the regular meeting of that organization.

The texture is as fine as linen. The quality one hundred percent pure. It will win you for all time to come. GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD. Phone 133.

Ladies Aid to Meet - The Presbyterian Ladies Aid society will meet at the church parlors Thursday afternoon at two thirty for the regular business meeting.

From Coast - A. H. Stunz is here for a day or so transacting business. Mr. Stunz is a resident of Coos Bay, and arrived from the coast yesterday afternoon.

Leaves for San Francisco - J. R. Hardin, who has been visiting at the Wm. Singleton ranch near Dixonville for the past two and a half months, left this morning for his home at San Francisco.

Will Pass Through Today - Mrs. Ida Hunt, of Los Angeles, will pass through this city some time today on her way from the south to Seattle to visit. She is a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm of this city.

Return to Glendale - Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clougherty, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Clougherty's mother, Mrs. S. L. Dillard for some time, returned to their home at Glendale this morning.

Senator Hall Visits - Senator Charles Hall was an arrival here Tuesday from Coos Bay, an dwas an overnight guest at the Grand Hotel. Senator Hall left this morning for Medford to transact business.

On Way South - Mrs. G. T. Hanley, of Whittier, California and Mrs. J. G. Home of Portland, were visitors here yesterday. They are motoring to Whittier, where Mrs. Home will visit at the home of Mrs. Hanley.

Regular Meeting Thursday - The Missionary society of the M. E. church south, will hold its regular business meeting Thursday afternoon at the church parlors at 2:30. All members are urged to attend.

Missionary Society - The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. J. E. McClintock at 318 E. Cass street, Thursday afternoon at 2:30. A splendid program has been arranged, and Mrs. Frank Davis, one of the national workers, will be present.

Alaska Dog Team Goes Through - The Alaska dog team, with its leader, which successfully carried typhoid serum to Nome this winter, passed through this city yesterday evening on Number 15. They are on their way, with the owner, to Hollywood, where they are under contract for a moving picture concern.

Announce Arrival of Son - Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sawyers today received announcements of the arrival of a son, John Robert, to Mr. and Mrs. John V. Rast at Washington, D. C. Mr. Rast is Mrs. Sawyers' brother, and is well known here. The birth occurred on the 26th of March, and the child weighed 8 lbs, 14 ounces.

Spends Day - C. T. Cousins arrived here yesterday from Portland and spent the day here attending to business affairs.

See our Sprywheel garden tractor. It is just the thing for truck garden work. Wharton Bros.

To Harrisburg - A. W. Trumbull returned to Harrisburg this morning after spending yesterday and last night here on business.

Arrival From Corvallis - H. A. Lindgren arrived here yesterday from Corvallis, and will spend the day here attending to business matters.

Here Today - C. E. Jensen arrived here yesterday afternoon from Portland and spent today in Roseburg transacting business.

S. P. Special Agent Here - M. Coturri, S. P. district special agent, was in the city today conferring with A. Stewart, the local special agent.

Eugene Man Visits - A. H. Neal arrived here Tuesday from the north and spent the day attending to business interests. Mr. Neal is from Eugene.

From Portland - Among the arrivals from northern points to visit in this city over Tuesday was W. G. Carr. Mr. Carr is from Portland.

Portland Men Here - Fred A. J. Penott and A. F. Smith arrived here from Portland yesterday afternoon to spend a day or so in Roseburg on business.

Arrives From Medford - L. F. Lozier arrived here last night from Medford to spend the next four or five days here attending to business matters.

Returns to Portland - Howard Irvine returned to Portland last night after spending several hours in this city yesterday attending to business matters.

On Way South - Mr. and Mrs. E. Holton were visitors in this city yesterday and overnight. They are residents of Salem, and are enroute to southern points by motor.

Spends Day Here - G. E. Conklin was a visitor in this city yesterday and overnight from eastern Oregon points. Mr. Conklin is a resident of Imbler.

Visitor From California - Ed. McCormick stopped over in this city Tuesday as a visitor. Mr. McCormick is from Palo Alto, and is enroute to northern points by auto.

In Today - Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clingenpool, former residents of Roseburg, were here from Looking Glass today and spent the day visiting and attending to business matters.

Here Tuesday - Miss Gertrude Lough of Portland and F. W. Lough, of Menouvia, California, stopped over here to view the town yesterday and were overnight guests at the Grand Hotel.

Leave for Portland - Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lane left for Portland yesterday afternoon to remain permanently. Mr. Lane has been sales manager for the Lockwood Motor company for the past few months.

Wisconsin People Stop Over - Mr. and Mrs. George O. Bosche stopped over in this city as guests at the Douglas hotel overnight Tuesday. They are residents of Milwaukee, Wis., and left this morning for the north by auto.

On Way to Grants Pass - Dr. Keith K. Allen and George M. King, manager of the Roosevelt hotel, of Portland, stopped here overnight Tuesday as guests of the Terminal hotel. They are on their way to Grants Pass on business, traveling by motor.

Leaves for Ashland - Mrs. R. J. Farnsworth, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Farnsworth of this city for the past three days or so, and has been attending to business interests, left for her home at Ashland this morning.

Leaving for California - Harry Fletcher, linotype operator in the News-Review office, expects to leave soon to join his father at Coyote, Cal., where the latter has been located for some time. Young Fletcher has been a trusted employee of this office for many years and it is hoped he will meet with success at his new location.

From Albany - H. L. Nebergall was an arrival from Albany yesterday and spent the day and a short time today attending to business matters here.

Here From O. A. C. - Clifford Fields is here from O. A. C. for a few days visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fields.

Here Today - Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Petch arrived here from Medford last night, to spend a short time here on business at the Southern Oregon Gas company office.

Here Today - W. F. Olsen arrived from the coast this morning and is spending the day here attending to business affairs. He is a resident of Marshfield.

Visits Today With Mr. Weaver - George King, manager of the new Roosevelt hotel at Portland, spent a few hours here today visiting with W. J. Weaver, owner of the Hotel Umpqua.

Purchases Property - Rev. H. E. Mow has purchased the house and property of A. I. Dow. The property is located on Harrison street, in West Roseburg, and Mr. Mow expects to move to his new home soon.

Clean Up Sale!

All Broken Lots and Odds and Ends of Shoes Sacrificed!

We have just finished remodeling our store, and will discontinue several lines to make room for our new stock of WEYNBERG SHOES. These odds and ends are all good makes and are substantial shoes. Prices will be cut to the quick to move them; and you can save dollars and dollars by looking to your shoe needs while the sale is on.

One Lot of 16-inch HI-TOP FARM SHOES. All Sizes and a big Value at $4.98. All other Hi-Tops 10 per ct. off.

Men's Summer Work Shoes. These will give a lot of service and are priced exceptionally low at $2.19.

White Slippers and Pumps. Here is a lot that will please the bargain hunter. 49c. Look them over, as low as 49c.

Children's Shoes. Here is your chance to outfit the youngsters with good shoes at small cost; 200 to 300 pair, practically all sizes, as low per pair as 98c.

Women's Shoes. In this lot is a mixed assortment of Slippers and Oxfords that will be sacrificed, many of them at the pair $1.98.

Sale Begins Thursday Morning. The Early Bird Gets the Choice.

Roseburg, Oregon

A. H. PERRIN

111 West Cass Street

Elkton Man Here - Aleck Sawyers of Elkton, was in Roseburg today attending to business matters.

Ill at Home - Charles Fields, postal clerk at the post office is reported ill at his home today.

Horse collars and collar pads at Wharton Bros.

From Eugene - C. A. Newell was an arrival from Eugene Tuesday and an overnight business visitor.

From South - S. H. Wright was a visitor in Roseburg overnight Tuesday from southern points. Mr. Wright is a resident of Grants Pass.

Leaves For Eugene - Creek Thornton, who has been employed at Brockway, near here for some time, left for Eugene this morning to make his home.

Here Today - Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis were here today attending to business matters and visiting friends for the afternoon. They are from Glide.

Dr. Belt in Tiller - Dr. Belt, county physician, went to Tiller today and will bring back a county dependent who is to be given a home at the county farm.

Coos Bay Man Visits - L. A. Blane, well known Coos Bay man, was a business visitor in this city yesterday and a guest at the Hotel Umpqua.

From Albany - H. L. Nebergall was an arrival from Albany yesterday and spent the day and a short time today attending to business matters here.

Here From O. A. C. - Clifford Fields is here from O. A. C. for a few days visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fields.

Here Today - Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Petch arrived here from Medford last night, to spend a short time here on business at the Southern Oregon Gas company office.

Here Today - W. F. Olsen arrived from the coast this morning and is spending the day here attending to business affairs. He is a resident of Marshfield.

Visits Today With Mr. Weaver - George King, manager of the new Roosevelt hotel at Portland, spent a few hours here today visiting with W. J. Weaver, owner of the Hotel Umpqua.

Purchases Property - Rev. H. E. Mow has purchased the house and property of A. I. Dow. The property is located on Harrison street, in West Roseburg, and Mr. Mow expects to move to his new home soon.

From Medford - A. W. Aya was a business visitor in this city Tuesday, arriving from southern points. Mr. Aya is a resident of Medford.

In Today - Mrs. W. S. Broas was a visitor in Roseburg today from Winston, and spent several hours attending to business matters.

From Dixonville - Mrs. G. H. Newport was here today spending the afternoon on business and visiting. She resides at Dixonville.

From Salem - J. T. Shelton was here from northern points yesterday attending to business affairs. He is a resident of Salem.

From Coast - E. S. Crothart was an arrival from the coast Tuesday and transacted business matters. Mr. Crothart is a resident of Marshfield.

Ashland Couple Stop Over - Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robertson were visitors here Tuesday from the south, and guests at the Hotel Umpqua. They are from Ashland.

From Coquille - Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Willis were visitors in Roseburg over Tuesday, arriving from the coast. They reside at Coquille.

Returns to Portland - E. L. Heninger, who has been visiting with friends here for the past few days, returned to his home at Portland this morning.

EASTER NEARLY HERE - Get your favors, baskets, chicks, candy eggs, etc., at Carr's. We have quantities for S. S. classes, etc. Fine Easter booklets, cards, place cards or novelties now on display. Carr's.

Second hand Ottawa drag saw for sale cheap at Wharton Bros.

INDIANS CELEBRATE. (Associated Press Local Wire.) KIAMATH FALLS, Ore., April 1. -Government checks of $100 each were distributed to Kiamath Indians yesterday for the sale of their timber on the reservation.

Ten Indians awakened in the city jail this morning with headaches. They were arrested by the police last night in liquor raids. Bootleggers are said to have enjoyed a flourishing business after the Indians began pouring into town from the reservation.

GENERAL IS KILLED. (Associated Press Local Wire.) MEXICO CITY, April 1. -General Abelardo Acosta was shot dead by three men said to have been identified as army officers while he was entering the war department last night.

Two persons were wounded by stray bullets. The assassins escaped.

Jos. Lyons Home - Joseph Lyons, of Reedport, who with his daughter has been spending a winter vacation in California visiting with a daughter in Los Angeles, returned to Roseburg last night, and left this morning for his home. He reports a most enjoyable visit. While in the south he went to Tia Juana and visited some of the other points of interest in southern California and northern Mexico.

For prompt taxi service, city or country trips. Phone 44.

MARKETS. PORTLAND, Ore., April 1. -Egg storage has been active on the coast during the past week, especially at Portland. Local scoters now show 21,317 cases, not white holdings at this time last year amounted to only 9,359 cases.

Egg shipments have been coming in heavy during the last few days and operators have been accumulating holdings.

The egg market is steady today with values unchanged on the local board. Butter is a trifle weaker in the local market with standard cubes off a half and prime firsts a cent on the exchange.

The onion market is firmer with the 1924 crop pretty well cleaned up. Late estimates show approximately 10 carloads of No. 1 grade left. Buyers are paying around $3.25 to $3.50 at country loading points. The wholesale market is 25 to 50 cents higher with best Sherwood stock held at $1 to $1.50 per sack.

Country dressed meats are unchanged. Receipts moderate and demand is good for top grade stuff. Poultry receipts continue light with the market strong.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1. -Wheat bids: hard white, blue stem, hard $1.50; soft white, western $1.50; hard winter, northern $1.50; western $1.40. Today's cash receipts: Wheat 5; flour 6; corn 1; oats 1; hay 7.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1. -Cattle, hogs and sheep nominally steady; no receipts.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1. -Eggs steady, unchanged. Current receipts 25c; pullets 23c@24c; firsts 24c@25c; henneries 26c@27c delivered Portland.

Butter easier. Extra cubes, city 45c; standards 45c; prime firsts 44c; firsts 44c; undergrades nominal; prints 48c; cartons 49c. Butter fat steady. Best churning cream 45c@47c net shipper track in zone 1; 48c delivered Portland.

Poultry firm, scarce. Heavy hens 25c@26c; light 23c@24c; spring nominal; big roosters 10c; ducks, White Pekin 25c; live turkeys 25c; dressed turkeys 33c@36c; geese 16c.

Onions steady $3@3.25. Potatoes steady, $1.50@1.60. Nuts steady. Walnuts No. 1, 23c@24c; filberts nominal; almonds 20c@25c; Brazil nuts 12c@15c; Oregon chestnuts nominal.

Hops easier; prices nominal. New clusters 16c@17c; fuggles 15c@16c; old crop nominal. Casaca bark quiet, inactive. New peel 7c@8c per pound; Oregon grape root 4c.

Electro-Chiropractic

Has proven its merits in thousands of cases when turned to as the "LAST RESORT."

Electro-Chiropractic

Has permanently cured Headaches, Stomach and Bowel troubles, Nervousness, Lumbago, Goiters, Female Disorders, High Blood Pressure, Prostate troubles in men and many other diseases.

INVESTIGATION COSTS YOU NOTHING.

DR. RUPERT A. MOON

325 Perkins Bldg. Phone 954

SEE OUR SPECIALS THIS WEEK

- Davenport, $127.50, special $92.50
Mahogany Dining Table, $48.50, special $31.75
Hoosier Cabinet, $80.00, special $42.50
Two-inch Iron Beds, $12.50, special $8.95
Seven-inch Coil Springs, $15.00, special $10.50
35 lb. Silk Floss Mattresses, $24.00, special $12.50

If you have furniture you do not want, we will trade you something you want.

ALL KINDS OF HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

J. M. JUDD

122 N. Jackson St. Phone No. 4

Advertisement for THE NEW Marswell Range. White panels, Malleable hinges, and frames. Many New Features in the Marswell. Zigler-Fee Hdw. Co. Phone 25. Watch Our Window for Bargains.

Advertisement for GET FEELING WELL AGAIN. From Mother Nature's storehouse we have gathered the roots, herbs and... TANLAC FOR YOUR HEALTH.