We are sparing no expense to make this the best equipped dairy in Douglas County. The most modern machinery known to the dairy industry is being installed. A steam boiler will furnish the steam and hot water for cleaning and sterilizing.

The herd is composed of good grade and registered Jersey cows, everyone tested and proven.

PERGANDAS AND YOKEL WINNERS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 2.—Mike Yokel and Louis Pergandas were the winners in a double main event wrestling card here last night, in which the other principals were Ray McCarroll, Pendleton, and Frank Pilling, claimant to the Canadian championship.

Yokel took one fall and the decision from McCarroll, and Pergandas pinned Pilling in two out of three falls. All four grapplers are light heavyweights.

The only fall in the Yokel-McCarroll tussle came after one hour, eight minutes, and twenty three seconds of rough wrestling. Yokel clamped on hold after hold, only to have it broken by the powerful Pendleton man. Finally Mike won the fall with a toe hold. After the fall they wrestled out the remainder of the hour and a half time limit without another fall. It was a match of McCarroll's immense strength against the cunning of Yokel.

In the other main event, Pilling opened with a clever burst of speed and just eleven seconds after time was called, he had Pergandas on the mat for the first fall, made with a flying mare hold. Pergandas took the second and third falls with short arm scissors holds. The second in 33 minutes and the last in one minute and two seconds. The match was fast throughout.

Science and invention are the furnaces of civilization. Why content yourself with a makeshift. Try one loaf of GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD, and you will never forget the Phone No. 133.

SEVERAL TEAMS ARE ELIMINATED

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Apr. 2.—Competition had narrowed considerably when 26 survivors of the 42 entrants in the national inter-scholastic basketball tournament of the University of Chicago went into the third round today. Games in the consolation tournament today include: Franklin High, Portland Ore., vs. Rupert, Idaho.

CHICAGO, Apr. 2.—In the consolation basketball tournament, Salem, Ore., today forfeited a game to Tonopah, Nev. Salem returned home before time for the game.

CHICAGO, Apr. 2.—Forfeiture of a consolation game by Salem, Ore., to Tonopah, Nev., was recalled at the national basketball tournament today and the contest will be played at 3 p. m. The Salem players did not leave town as previously reported but failed to show up as result of a misunderstanding regarding the time.

ARCHDUKE FLUNKY FOR FILM CONCERN

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

VIENNA, Apr. 2.—"I am an unskilled laborer, and must provide for my wife and children," pleaded the Archduke Leopold when arrested for speeding his motor-cycle last night and knocking a man down. The Archduke explained that he was employed nightly to rush motion picture films from one theatre to another and had no time to lose. The victim of his motor-cycle, said in court: "I don't want any compensation. The defendant is a victim of hard luck." But the magistrate fined the Archduke 20 shillings.

INDIANS STRIVE TO DEFEAT NURMI

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

LOS ANGELES, Apr. 2.—A little squad of Indian long distance runners of the Sherman Indian school near Riverside, are training with an intensity and enthusiasm that perhaps they never have equalled before. They have a stiff assignment—the defeat of Paavo Nurmi—and if they do not accomplish their goal, it will not be because of lack of preparation. The four Indian distance men who will meet the record smashing Finnish runner at the Coliseum here April 25 are Willie Roy Arness, Garnett Billy, Amos Hoyeween and Tom Humphries, and they were picked by Charles Paddock and Loren Murchison, star sprinters, as possessing the requisite stamina and speed to compete against the Finn. Prior to their departure on a trip around the world, Paddock and Murchison spent much time in giving the Indians instructions.

U. OF O. TO ESTABLISH MAR. BIOLOGICAL STATION

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

EUGENE, Apr. 2.—A marine biological station, the first in Oregon, will be established by the University of Oregon at Sunset Bay, three miles south of the entrance to Coos Bay on the coast, as part of the work of the summer session, June 22 to July 31. Plans have been completed for courses at Sunset Bay in elementary, advanced, and graduate marine zoology under the guidance of Dr. Harry B. Yokum, assistant professor of zoology.

"The site is extraordinarily well suited for the work of collecting, identifying, and studying marine life," said Dr. Yokum, "as all sorts of conditions exist where marine animals live."

Cliff structure, exposed mud flats, sand dunes, and the immediate vicinity of the station provide excellent opportunity for research. The site is fourteen miles from Marshfield. The instructional staff and students will occupy cottages at Sunset Bay at an attractive scenic spot.

The establishment of the station will be a great forward step in the career of the anatomy of the Oregon coast. There is no other station in the Pacific Northwest with the exception of the University of Washington site at Friday Harbor, Wash., which has attracted biologists from all parts of the country. It is hoped by the Oregon staff that the development of work at Sunset Bay will prove equally attractive to scientists.

Ethel I. Sanborn, University instructor in botany, will conduct research work in paleo-botany at the station during the summer session.

SEVENTEEN CARS VEGETABLES AND FRUIT SHIPPED IN

The Pacific Fruit and Produce company has shipped into Roseburg a total of 17 carloads of fruit and vegetables since the first of the year, according to C. E. Hatfield, the local manager. In spite of the fact that Douglas County is supposed to be one of the leading counties in the state in farm products, it has required ten carloads of potatoes, two of lettuce, one of celery, one of cabbage, one of mixed vegetables, one of grapefruit and one of bananas, to supply the city since January 1, Mr. Hatfield says. During the month of March, the company brought in three carloads of potatoes, one of lettuce, one of cabbage, one of mixed vegetables and one of bananas.

In addition to the carload lots there have been several truck loads of oranges, apples, potatoes and fruits and vegetables of other kinds brought in at various times, Mr. Hatfield says. The company maintains a fleet of trucks which operate between the various surrounding points. Trucks make regular trips between Roseburg, Medford, Marshfield and Eugene, maintaining a balance in the markets of those points.

Mr. Hatfield is anxious to see more farm products produced in this vicinity. He states that he endeavors to purchase all suitable fruits and vegetables which the local market will consume, as well as supplying outside markets by truck. Lettuce, celery, rhubarb, asparagus, and other such vegetables could be raised with much profit he states and would find a ready market.

Theatres

ANTLERS THEATRE.

Douglas Fairbanks' amazing picturization of the Arabian Nights, "The Thief of Bagdad," which will be presented at the Antlers tonight, is generally considered as being, beyond question, the most extraordinary example of screen art known up to the present time. According to all accounts, it marks a distinct and radical advance in this popular form of all entertainments, and places it on a higher plane than it has yet attained. In "The Thief of Bagdad" Douglas Fairbanks will be seen at his best as the agile happy-go-lucky rascal of old Bagdad. The story is based upon the Arabian Nights tales and utilizes the services of thousands of people. Fairbanks' role is that of a Thief who reforms and becomes a veritable Prince—conquering unbelievable difficulties and finally winning the hand of the beautiful Princess.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Do authors become so involved in their world of fiction that they fail to keep in touch with the real persons about them? Do they pour all their romance into book form and have none left for their own wives? In "The Fast Set" William de Mille's latest Paramount picture which opens tonight at the Majestic, Elliott Dexter appears in a role which gives support to the contention that to an author a manuscript is more real than life itself.

Clara Beranger, who wrote the screen play from Frederick Lonsdale's stage play, "Spring Cleaning," calls him— "A successful novelist who provides everything but romance."

LIBERTY THEATRE.

A riot of laughter and thrills, with more comedy than the average straight laugh-maker and more suspense than many big dramatic features, "O. U. West," fourth of the Harry Garson productions starring Lotta Flynn, makes its appearance on the screen at the Liberty Theatre tomorrow and Saturday. Young Mr. Oliver U. West, a wild and dissipated boy with too much money, is shipped out to his partner's ranch in the west by his father; but since the story starts on the Pacific Coast, Oliver is consigned eastward to the west. F. O. B. He reneges his most recent drunk on the train, with the Pullman porter as his vis-a-vis; and the experience he undergoes when
