JURY VERDICT IN DENNISTOUN CASE IS DECLARED VOID

LONDON, April 2.—Justice Henry McCardie delivered his reserved judgment in the Dennistoun case this morning. He held that the alleged agreement for Mrs. Dorothy Marial Dennistoun's support by her former husband after their divorce was void and could not be enforced in law. Therefore he ruled that Mrs. Dennistoun's claim for damages for breach of contract had failed. The judgment sets aside the verdict of the jury last month awarding Mrs. Dennistoun 5,000 pounds or nearly $25,000 for the alleged breach of contract.

The plaintiff, however, recovers the total amount of 475 pounds, 15 shillings for sums loaned to Lieutenant-Colonel Dennistoun and which he had not returned. She also is awarded the costs of the action with the exception of that part involving the allegation of breach of contract. This section of the costs, the court held, the defendant was entitled to recover. The judge ordered a general stay in execution until further order and liberty to appeal.

In delivering his judgment, Sir Henry deplored the fact that to be made public, but he added that the question of publicity was not one for the courts to decide. He quoted Lord Shaw in another famous case that publicity is the soul of justice.

Holland flourishing a pistol confronted the drugist, only to be greeted by several policemen who were hiding behind the counter.

Holland's attorneys offered the opinion that the police "framed him in order that the squad could make a spectacular arrest."

Holland admitted he had a criminal record in California and had been a deserter from the army.

ANTLERS THEATRE

This is the eleven hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the death of the most romantic character of history, of whom comparatively few people have ever heard. Still, the era of fantastic adventure, bizarre romance and quaint standards of chivalry, all but passed away when Haroun-al-Raschid was laid to rest with his fathers. He was born in 763 A. D. and died in 803 A. D. Becoming Caliph of Bagdad at the age of 22, his picturesque personality served as the pivot around which to build all the Arabian Nights tales. Under his reign, Bagdad became a Kingdom of learning and civilization. In Douglas Fairbank's amazing picture, "The Thief of Bagdad," which will be seen at the Antlers Theatre, you are transported to the fantastic Bagdad of Haroun-al-Raschid, where the salt of life was love and the wine of life adventure. It is a love tale, but around a mystical quest that leads through all sorts of fanciful places. Doug flies through the air on a Magic Carpet, fights his way up a flight of a thousand steps, conquers the monsters of the deep, resists the wiles of an undersea princess, and escapes on a flying horse. All of which are but a few of his countless adventures, which has made this picture far ahead of any yet known since this industry began.
