ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY, APRIL 6, 1925.

SPRING PLANTING

In some communities, the spirit of improvement has become so strong, that almost every home is attractively planted with shrubs, flowers, and trees. Yet this is not the case in the average American town, where much remains to be done in the way of home decoration.

The pictures of the awful tornado in the central states bring home to the rest of the country what a terrible thing it is to a family to see its home gone. It is one thing to philosophize about other people's troubles, and another to see your own home levelled to the ground and not know where you and your family are going to find shelter.

Quite frequently one reads of young people not yet out of colleges and schools, who have been in such a hurry for marriage that they had to hustle to the minister's, so they could enjoy the satisfactions of wedlock while carrying on their studies.

The "miracle man," Albutus, having concluded his engagement in Roseburg, a lot of men and women who are eager to absorb advice given in a mysterious way will await the usual disappointment.

A real talking machine—not merely a machine that records and reproduces speech like the phonograph—but one that will actually utter sounds of language at the will of the operator is the latest achievement of science.

There's only one way to develop a boy—give him a hard job, is the advice of William Jardine, secretary of agriculture. There is much truth in the assertion. Making a pet out of a boy doesn't fit him for anything—other than a grown up loafer.

The Literary Digest shows a chart portraying the most popular hour to die. But we hardly think most mortals will have any regard for this particular success in life.

Getting behind in all things—and staying there—has killed many a good prospect.

KLAMATH INDIANS PLAN BIG POW WOW

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., April 4.—On the picturesque shores of Agency Lake, where the towering pines form a sheltering background, tribal Indians of the Northwest will foregather during the week of June 28 to 30, to discuss problems of vital interest to the fast diminishing vanguard of redskins.

of the Klamath Indian reservation. In addition to the problems of the Indians, an historical Pageant depicting early Indian life and leading up to the coming of the white man will be staged. Tapes will be pitched beneath the pine boughs; war paint and feathers will be donned; wild dances of the dancing redskins will be tethered about the meeting grounds while the old Indians live again the days of their youth.

PRUNE PICKIN'S

BY BERT G. BATES GOOD EVENING FOLKS— A flock of Scottish Rite Masons were holdin' a reunion in the village today but on acct. of the inclemency of the weather they didn't wear their kilts.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS Hard wheat oughta be boiled in soft water.

Some fellers think they own the world after they get a shot of hooch under their belt.

Give us the lad who is willin' to work. This a. m. as we were headed for the sanctuary in quest of our daily bread we saw a lad totin' along a mammoth bundle of papers. The frost in the air and the overhangin' clouds did not dampen his enthusiasm.

We read the other day where lightning knocked a feller out he had back east. It is said the first words he uttered were, "Awright m'dear, I'll git up."

The red necktie epidemic has hit the village amidships and unless it quiets down before Easter the damsels will have been competition for their spring bonnets of vari-colored hues.

When a feller eats celeri in a restaurant he imagines everyone at the neighborin' tables is tunin' in on his crunchin' concert.

The kids of fryin' age are flyin' kites and shootin' marbles, which we opine is a dern sight more fun than spadin' garden an' mowing lawn.

Next month is strawberry month and we are today announcin' our annual contest. Less see who brings ye ed. in the first box of strawberries. If you can't be first try an' bring us in the biggest box or the biggest berries. Suitable prizes will be awarded in each division.

After watchin' the pre-Easter parade on the main stem yesterday we've about decided that the girls are tryin' to outstrip each other. That'll make it mighty interestin' for the sterner sex and we hope the competition keeps up until the Fall rains.

Judgin' from the number of empty flasks layin' around is up to the moonshine business is all to average.

The June bride season is almost here. The June brides of last year are still blushin'—over kitchen stoves.

On these crisp mornings a stack of steamin' buckwheat cakes, lathered with cozin' syrup and a slab of butter ain't no worse.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 6.—The Des Moines Register today began an experiment of segregation all crimes news on an inside page at the suggestion of the Des Moines federation of women's clubs.

Today's second page carried several stories with headlines that likely would have made page one, but for the experiment, such as "Kills girl who spurs dance," and "Chapman may escape death."

DAILY BINGLES IN BIG LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Walter Johnson was slated to try his hand again today at baffling the Giant bats when the Senators resumed their spring series with the National leaguers at Memphis. Dutch Roether was named to share the pitching burden. Manager Harris was reported as hopeful of getting a better break than even in the remaining seven games to be played, although the Giants' five to one advantage in games to date made the chance of winning the series an admittedly slim one for the Senators.

BOSTON, April 6.—Both Boston major league teams are north bound. The Red Sox, from their New Orleans proving ground, have ventured as far as Louisville, where yesterday they won a five to four game, squaring the series. The Braves left St. Petersburg yesterday and are scheduled to show their stuff against Rochester in Savannah today.

The Braves have released Bill Cunningham, outfielder, to the Sacramento club of the Pacific coast league for what was said to have been in excess of the big league waiver price of $4500.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—St. Louis American league baseball club forced the volunteers to accept a thirteen to two defeat at Nashville yesterday, expecting to repeat the victory in the last of the Nashville series today. The Browns got 13 hits for a total of 24 bases. The Cardinals are due in El Paso Tuesday.

CLEVELAND, April 6.—After five consecutive exhibition games, Manager Tris Speaker was prepared to put his Cleveland Indians through a long batting and fielding drill at New Orleans today. Pitcher Jim Edwards and Catcher Glen Myatt of the Indians formed the New Orleans battery in an exhibition yesterday which Cleveland won, 12 to 4.

CINCINNATI, April 6.—Adolphe Luque will be on the mound for the Cincinnati Reds when they play Detroit Tigers in Atlanta today. If his performance is good, he will probably be Manager Hendrick's pitching selection when the Reds play their opening game of the championship season at Redland field a week from Tuesday.

CHICAGO, April 6.—After defeating the Greenport team, 5 to 3, the Sox left for Little Rock, Ark., last night. It was the eighth time the Sox had whipped the gassers and the fourteenth victory for them on their training trip. The Sox expect to play Little Rock today. The Cubs expected entraining at their camp at Catalina Island and left for Kansas City after losing to the Oakland team, 3 to 6. The Cubs won eleven and lost five games in playing coast league clubs.

NEW YORK, April 6.—So-called one man diamond teams of a day frequently do not win ball games, even when the individual is Babe Ruth. Although Ruth planted two balls among the suburbs of Chattanooga yesterday and tapered off this performance with a single in the closing inning, the Yankee's loss to the Brooklyn Dodgers, 12 to 6. The result put the National league entry in the pre-season series on the long end of the test up to this time.

Ruth proved that a sleepless night, due to chills and fever, was not sufficient to dim his batting eye. The Giants passed through eleven delirious innings at Memphis with the Memphis Chicks, tying the Southern League club, 11 to 11.

SPORT SHORTS

ST. PAUL, April 5.—Confidence that Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul heavyweight, will knock out Gene Tunney, American fighting heavyweight champion, when they meet in New York June 12, was expressed last night by Eddie Kano, Gibbons' manager. "Gibbons will stop Tunney in six rounds or less," said Kano, who came here to discuss plans for Gibbons' training for the fight. "Gibbons can punch harder, he is a swifter ring general and is vastly superior on the defensive."

Rademacher, it also was announced did 500 meters breast stroke in 7 minutes 40.8 seconds. Both marks are claimed to be world swimming records. International amateur swimming federation figures adopted last July show Rademacher as holding the world's record for 400 meters breast stroke with six minutes 12.4 seconds made over a 25 meter course at Vienna September 20.

CHICAGO, April 6.—The ten round contest between Sammy Mandell of Rockford, Ill., claimant to the world's lightweight championship and Joe Benjamin, outstanding Pacific Coast lightweight, for Michigan City, Ind., July 4, probably will be closed on Thursday, it was announced today.

TULSA, Okla., April 6.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, former world's heavyweight champion wrestler, and Joe "Toots" Mandt, will wrestle two out of three falls in a finish here tonight.

TIME TABLE MAY SAVE CHAPMAN FROM GALLOWES

NEW YORK, April 6.—New York attorneys are at variance in their opinions on the part a railroad time table may play in securing a new trial for Gerald Chapman, million dollar mail looter, who on Saturday was sentenced to hang for the murder of a patrolman during a holdup in New Britain, Conn.

The time table was asked for by the jury after it had retired, as an aid in determining whether Chapman could have left Springfield, Mass., after 3:30 p. m. and arrive in Brooklyn by 8:30 on the night of the murder. The schedule had not been introduced as evidence, nor authenticated as exhibits must be, although counsel for both state and defense agreed to let the jury have it.

Former Governor Whitman, who as district attorney prosecuted the slayers of Herman Rosenthal, said such procedure would not be allowed in New York. Chief Assistant District Attorney Hector, agreed with him, while federal attorney Backner, on the other hand thought that by agreement of counsel the introduction of the time table was permissible.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 6.—States Attorney H. M. Alcorn, who successfully prosecuted Gerald Chapman for the murder of Police-man James Skelley of New Britain, feels sure that the state of Connecticut had every legal right to try the bandit for the crime and that a sentence of death having been imposed, that sentence will be carried out.

This opinion was expressed by Mr. Alcorn today in comment on a report from Washington that Chapman might have to serve his 25 years sentence in Atlanta.
