ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1925.

EASTER THOUGHTS

According to any prediction that could have been made at the time, when Jesus Christ was condemned by the fanatical Jews of his day, his message and influence on earth were closed. No one could have dreamed that 1900 years thereafter in lands at that time unknown, the religion which he founded would be accepted as the finest statement of spiritual truth ever made.

For the fourth time since the close of the World War France has decided to change prime ministers, this time in the chief hope that a cabinet head can be found who can perform a miracle; for it will require the services of a miracle man to lift the burden of debt from a country whose wealthiest citizens, if reports are to be credited, are transferring their heaviest investments to other countries to avoid money conscription.

Ever since 1918 when the country suffered so severely from an influenza epidemic, there has been some nervousness for fear of a recurrence of that great affliction. Many localities this year have reported grip as epidemic, and in London, 40,000 school children are said to have this disease.

Women are now permitted to serve as jurors in 21 states, and are asking for this right elsewhere. Many may argue that the women are already taking on all the public duties that they can handle in addition to home work.

It is expected that 35,000 young men will attend military training camps this summer. Are there a number in Roseburg who will join this big army? If so, they will find it a most interesting experience.

Every man, woman and child in the United States would have exactly $41.99 if all the money in circulation today were evenly divided. However, it is not evenly allotted, therefore, a great many fall short of having the last two numerals to their credit Saturday night.

Kid McCoy yesterday started serving his four to thirty-eight-year sentence at San Quentin penitentiary. Probably the four year's confinement is worrying him more than the 38.

Fruit growers proclaim that last night's showers were worth a million dollars to them—more or less. We sincerely hope more.

Cleanup week will soon be declared by city authorities. Better start to assemble the rubbish.

Looks bad for the Easter bonnet—from the weather standpoint.

PRUNE PICKIN'S

BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—

'Twas the night before Easter and all thru the house Was stirrin' Not a creature Was stirrin' Not even the spouse— The rain was patterin' Softly—

The house was filled With sorrow— For there'd be no Bonnet-wearin' Withe the comin' Of the mornin'!

DUMBELL DORA THINKS Adenoids is a book of pomes.

We saw a tattered urchin with his face glued to a store window in which he was inspectin' radio sets. Realizin' that perhaps the lad was not fully acquainted with the intricacies of radio we stopped to explain 'em. He looked at us a moment and said, "Yep, but I wouldn't have nuthin' but a three-pip polyphase hitrodine regenerative unit, and a reflex inductive oscillatory tube!" He was still talkin' of "transformers," etc. as we passed on up the main stem.

An' speakin' of radio, Jimmy Judd made his premier appearance over the air last night. J. M. was up to the metrop and visited the Hoot Owls and broadcasted a few remarks. We don't know whether he had a cold or if it was the static but anyhow his voice sounded husky. Maybe he'd been eatin' or drinkin' corn.

If it rains tomorrow it'll pour for seven Sundays, tradition tells us. Well, by that time it'll be too late to wear the Spring outfit and well hafta appear in the conventional B. V. D's.

Give us the home where there's mush on the davenport and jelly on the piano keys, for the divorce courts will never be bothered by the inhabitants thereof.

Coroin' Easter eggs is a lotta fun if you own your own hens.

Most of the preachers will hafta wear smoked glasses in church tomorrow to save their optics from the glarin' colors of the damsel's derbies.

When we see everybody flockin' to church on Easter it reminds us the kids who uster go to Sunday school just before Xmas. Some folks can shout "Amen" a dern sight louder when they've got some new duds to show off.

Will Remodel Gas Company Office

Before leaving for Medford late yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Peteh, who has been in town for several days checking up business in the local office of the Southern Oregon Gas Co., stated that the company offices at 340 North Jackson street would be remodeled at once. Contractors will begin the improvement early next week.

COVOTES KILLED. Joe Matthews yesterday brought in four week-old coyote pups, which he dug out of a den in the lower end of Flourboy valley near his home. The mother had killed a sheep and Mr. Matthews tracked her to a rock cliff. His dogs located the den, and the old coyote chased the dog out, and upon seeing the man abandoned the pups. Mr. Matthews brought the four little animals in alive, but later killed them and claimed the bounty.

DAILY BINGLES IN BIG LEAGUE

FRIDAY'S GAMES IN PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. (Associated Press Leased Wire.) At Los Angeles, 11; Portland 10.

San Francisco, Seattle, no game, rain. At Sacramento 0; Oakland 4, called end of 7th, rain. At Salt Lake 5; Vernon 15.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The Chicago Cubs had a close shave in Kansas City yesterday, when the Kaws drummed up a ninth inning rally and the Chicagoans barely escaped with a five to four victory.

CLEVELAND, April 11.—Manager Tris Speaker sent seven of his collegians against the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa and the Cleveland Indians defeated the Southern intercollegiate champions 9 to 3.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11.—Nearly 1,000 Easter visitors in Washington—950 to be exact—overran the White House executive offices at noon today to shake hands with President Coolidge. It took 17 minutes for the crowd to pass through the president's office, Mr. Coolidge shaking hands with them at the rate of almost one a second.

Members of the debating team of the Oregon Agricultural College found that President Coolidge waits for no one late for an appointment. Senators Stanford and McNary of Oregon had arranged for the president to receive the debaters in advance of the crowd. Arriving late, the college men found that the hand shaking period was over.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

Simple Desserts. A DESSERT that one need not fear to give to the little people is:

Date Pudding.—Wash and cut in pieces one package of dates. Add a quart of milk and cook in a double boiler until slightly thickened, add a speck of salt and serve cold. Figs With Lemon Sauce.—Soak or steam figs until soft and plump, add one-fourth of a cupful of lemon juice to a cupful of figs, simmer until the figs are tender. Thicken the sauce, chill and serve poured over the cooled figs. Garnish with whipped cream.

French Pie.—Into a baked pastry shell put a layer of well-cooked apple sauce that has been sweetened and a tablespoonful of butter added while hot. Cover with a layer of raspberry or currant jelly and top with a meringue, set in the oven to brown. If a meringue is not liked, whipped cream may be used instead. Canned blueberries poured over sliced bread and allowed to soak, then served with sugar and cream makes a fine pudding for the children.

Chocolate Bread Pudding.—Soak a pint of bread crumbs in a quart of scalding milk for half an hour. Melt two squares of chocolate, add one-third of a cupful of sugar, and milk from the bread crumbs to make of the consistency to pour. Add to the bread mixture with another third of a cup of sugar, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, one-half cupful of finely minced almonds, two eggs slightly beaten and a quarter of a teaspoonful of cinnamon. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake one hour. Spread with a meringue, brown and serve with any desired sauce.

Bordeaux Pudding.—Cut sponge cake in thin slices, put together in layers with raspberry jam. Cover with whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped nuts. Baked Bananas.—Remove the skins from as many bananas as needed. Place in a baking pan and bake while baking with butter, a little water and lemon juice. Serve with broiled beefsteak.

Two in one. The quality of two loaves in one, the value of two loaves in one and the satisfaction of two loaves in one. GRIMM BROS. MILK BREAD. Phone 133.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

M. E. Church, South, Main and Lane streets, Stewart O'Dell, pastor; W. L. Cobb, Sunday school superintendent. A full attendance at Sunday school is expected on Sunday morning. Everybody is invited to our Easter service at 11:00 o'clock. The pastor will bring the Easter message. The music will be good and you will enjoy the service, in honor and remembrance of our Lord who rose amid the flowers 1900 years ago. Junior League at 2:30 in the afternoon. Senior League at 6:30, and message by the pastor at 7:30. If you are right with God you will attend the church services on Sunday. If you are not you will do well to attend and think upon the risen Christ. There is no other way for a good citizen to spend the Sabbath than in the worship of God. The W. M. S. will meet in special session at the home of Mrs. Mabel P. Taylor on Flint street Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The hostesses of the day are Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Taylor and Miss Gammon. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. The W. M. S. will have charge and the lesson will be founded upon the books of James, and Jude. Mrs. Hamilton will lead.

Safe storage, day, nights or monthly at the Terminal Garage. Attractive rates. Slightly used ranges at Powell's.

SORORITY HOUSE ROBBER ADMITS NUMEROUS JOBS

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 11.—Leo A. O'Toole, 21, has confessed, police here said today, that he is the "Lone Kid," who two years ago entered and robbed several sorority houses at the University of Michigan. After the arrest of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb for the murder of Bobby Franks, it was believed they were the "Lone Kid." Both had been students here. O'Toole signed the name of "Lone Kid" in soap on mirrors in houses he robbed. He was not a student at the university.

WILLIAM E. BORAH & EDOUARD HERRIOT

In a speech in Chicago, United States Senator William E. Borah declared, "We are building up a bureaucratic form of government—the most burdensome, the most inefficient and the most arbitrary ever permitted to torture the human family."
