STATE HOSPITAL ATTENDANT FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
SALEM, Ore., April 17.—E. J. Tobin, who for the last two months has been an attendant at the state hospital for the insane, was arrested today in the office of Dr. R. K. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the institution, and is in the county jail charged with aiding and abetting an inmate to escape. The charges result from the fact that Tuesday night Tobin let Orel Courter, an inmate out of a ward at the hospital and later in the night met him with an automobile and drove to Falls City, Polk county, it is alleged, to the home of Courter's father. From his father, Alex Courter, an old man who is blind, Orel Courter was to get $100 and another automobile, according to the inmate's story. Then he and Tobin were to meet at Vancouver and drive east to Chicago. The $100 was to be given to Tobin. The older Courter refused to let his son have the automobile.

Hospital authorities suspected that Courter had gone to Falls City and T. W. Campbell, a supervisor at the hospital, was sent there to look for him. He found the Courter house barred, but succeeded in returning the patient Wednesday.

When questioned today Tobin said he had confessed to taking a ring from another patient recently. The charge under which he was arrested is under a new statute which provides a penalty of $1,000 and six months in jail.

Tobin and Courter are both about 24 years old. Tobin left his employment at the hospital last Tuesday without notifying any of the authorities. The issue is admitted the story told by Courter, he has given other information that tends to confirm the story, Courter was committed from Polk county for attacking girls and is said to be dangerous when at large.

GOVT. EVIDENCE AGAINST SENATOR WHEELER BEGINS

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
GREAT FALLS, Mont., April 17.—The first evidence being directed on the indictment charging Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana with accepting on behalf of a client before the department of the interior after his election to the senate, was read into the record at the Montana senator's trial here today.

James MacGowan, former employee of Gordon Campbell, Montana oil operator, for whose senator Wheeler is accused of accepting, told on the witness stand of encouraging several persons to take out applications for all prospecting leases. He said many

SNOW AT KLAMATH
 (Associated Press Local Wire.)
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., April 17.—A light wet blanket of snow covered Klamath Falls this morning as the culmination of four days of varied weather, which the elements went from one extreme to the other. A trace of the snow which swept up from the south during the windstorm yesterday vanished with the coming of the sun. Local weather forecasts indicate that a return of the spring weather is in the offing.

HOW MUCH WILL HE CHARGE TO STOP IT?

(Associated Press Local Wire.)
FRESNO, Cal., April 17.—W. H. Elliget, Tulare Lake grain grower, this afternoon formed the Fresno Bee that he had presented Charles M. Hatfield, Glendale, Cal., "rain maker", a check for $8,000 in payment for rainmaking operations from March 15 to April 15.

of these applications were left blank.

When MacGowan was called to the stand, all other witnesses in the case were excused from the court room by Judge Dietrich on the motion of W. F. O'Leary of defense counsel.

MacGowan said he was employed by Campbell for two years, beginning in June 1920. District Attorney John L. Slattery then asked him if he had induced many persons to take out permits and assign them to Campbell.

"I object," said Senator Walsh and launched into a long explanation of his contention.

Mr. Slattery then told the court that he expected to prove through MacGowan that the latter urged other persons to take out blank permits and assign the leases later to Mr. Campbell.

"We object again," said Senator Walsh. "That is the substance of another line of argument in another court which we shall meet later."

Judge Dietrich, however, held that the government need not be hampered in this case by the indictment in the other court and permitted MacGowan to tell of other permits which were made assignable at Campbell's suggestion.

SAN FRANCISCO WAS DESTINATION; THAT ROSEBURG SUBURB

Yesterday afternoon when number 15 pulled into Roseburg it carried a Scandinavian who had lost his sense of direction if not his sense of direction. Boarding the train at Hillsier, Washington, with San Francisco as his destination, he had made Portland, the first lap of his journey. There he purchased a ticket direct to San Francisco. Nearing Roseburg, the end of the conductor's division, the little yellow ticket was removed from Mr. Larson's, as well as the other gentlemen's hat bands. Mr. Larson took this to mean that he had arrived at his journey's end and piled off his hat and baggage, finding a hotel near the station, he engaged a room, cleaned up, got a shave and shoe shine, and went to the restaurant to have something to eat before taking in the sights of the city. Asking the size of the town which he thought must be a suburb of the city, he was told "the city was between 4,000 and 7,000. His next was "How many blocks to the main part of San Francisco?" He was told that over 500 miles lay between him and the great city which he imagined lay a few blocks away. Mr. Larson was last seen scanning the time table for the hour of departure of the next south-bound train.

DEFENSE MADE OF SALE SHIPS TO DOLLAR CO.

The answer alleged that at one time ships operated in the Orient trade by the Pacific Mail had been disposed of to enterprises controlled by foreign interests.

Accompanying the answer was a number of supporting affidavits signed by Chairman O'Conner and Commissioners Lisner, Hill and Hanes, who constituted the majority voting for the sale, as well as affidavits from business men and organizations on the Pacific coast testifying to the backing of the Dollar interests.

Commissioners Thompson and Plummer would file separate answers.
