GRAVE DIGGER IS BURIED ALIVE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 30.—Frequent dreams of being buried alive that had engendered deep seated fears proved realistic today to Geo. Wilkinson, 75 years of age, who himself gravitate in a grave.

He had been stricken with paralysis while digging a grave in Redondo cemetery.

With great difficulty he managed to clamor out and collapsed. He was found by a motorist and removed to a hospital here.

"For more than 50 years," the aged grave digger told hospital attendants, "I have dreamed of being buried alive. Today I thought my dream had come true."

SEARCH FOR RELATIVES OF FIRE VICTIMS

PORTLAND, Ore., April 30.—Search for relatives of 16 persons who died yesterday in an apartment house fire here, and investigation of the blaze at an inquest tonight were chief developments in the tragedy today.

The coroner's office today wired Mrs. Eugene Sullivan, Vallejo, Cal., concerning the disposition of the body of Sullivan, who died from injuries after missing a life net in a jump from the burning building. Instructions to follow the body of Miss Bernice Frazier to Vancouver, B. C. were received by the coroner. No word has been received this morning from Sacramento concerning disposition of the body of Miss Clara Short, whose mother was reported to reside in that city.

Mrs. William H. Lawr, widow of the aged blind man who died in the fire, was sufficiently recovered today to be removed from the emergency hospital to her home.

For prompt tax service, city or country trips. Phone 44.

MARY MAC SWINEY HAD NO PASSPORT

"and I might even have come down on one of the rays of the eclipse," Miss MacSwiney announced that she planned a six months lecture tour.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The next step of labor departments' officials in their investigation of the presence in this country of Miss Mary MacSwiney, Irish republican worker, apparently hinged today on the report of immigration officials at Chicago, who questioned her there yesterday about her passports.

Immigration officials here said that in the event Miss MacSwiney did not possess proper passports or had entered the country without proper inspection, her presence was illegal and she might be deported.
