

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By BEULAH JEWETT

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Shower Friday for Attractive Bride Elect

One of the most attractive bride elects of the summer, Miss Dyrna Price, was the recipient of a bridal shower Friday evening for which Miss Elsie Bergh and Miss Lois Geddes were hostesses at the home of Miss Bergh on West Commercial street.

church, and the Business Woman's Club will give a dance at the Armory, Wednesday evening, the music teachers of Roseburg will combine and give a professional recital at the Heintze Conservatory, on Wednesday evening, also the Heintze Conservatory orchestra under the direction of Mrs. A. J. Young will play at the Antlers Theatre at eight o'clock, Thursday evening.

In addition to these evening events all the lodges meeting during that week will have musical programs, the High School glee clubs and orchestras will give a concert at the school Friday afternoon, the Kiwanis club will have a musical program at their noon luncheon Tuesday, the Blue Devils Orchestra will play at the Rotary luncheon Thursday, Irvin Brann, Jr., will play a xylophone solo, and Mrs. Strang and Charles McElhinny will sing.

Smick P. T. A. Has Interesting Meeting

The Smick School Parent-Teachers association held a delightful meeting last night at the school building. After a short business session, Mr. W. E. Ott, Roseburg music dealer, gave a demonstration of the use of gramophone in the schools. Rev. Caldwell of the Baptist church gave an excellent talk on moral education. A declamation contest was held, the contestants being Vera Lovelace, Dorothy Gladwill, Phyllis Beckley and Margaret Murphy. Miss Lovelace won first prize. Following the declamations, a spelling contest was held between the scholars of the North Deer Creek school and the Smick school.

The members of the Kumojojin class of the Christian church gathered for a pleasant evening Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Stanton. After a short business meeting games were in order, and a dainty luncheon was served. About twelve were present.

Ford Singleton Host on Anniversary

A pleasant evening of cards and radio music entertained a number of young men Thursday evening who were the guests of Ford Singleton at his home on East Douglas street, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Large clusters of azaleas and sunburst roses were attractively arranged in the rooms, and the host's mother, Mrs. Walter Singleton served a delicious supper at ten o'clock.

In the group were Fred Lockwood, Phil Singleton, Marion Lilly, George Singleton, Roy Evans, Harry McCabe, William Moffitt and the host.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Spangh entertained at dinner Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Henning of Wichita Kansas. They are former Roseburg residents, and recently returned here and may remain here permanently.

Roseburg Clubwomen Prominent at Federation

The eleventh annual meeting of the Southern Oregon District Federation was held at Rogue River, April 25, 1925 with more than 150 club women in attendance. The Rogue River Civic Improvement Club as the hostess organization.

With but few changes the program as published was carried out. A telegram received in the morning announced the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Sallie Orr Dunbar, president of the State Federation. Miss Grace H. Chamberlain, state vice-president, of Ashland, took her place on the program, appearing in the afternoon instead of the forenoon as scheduled and giving a splendid address, with "The Biennial at Los Angeles" as the theme.

Mrs. William Bell of the Roseburg Women's Club told of the Club Institute held recently in Roseburg, of the interest shown, and the excellent attendance.

With the appointment of Miss Grace H. Chamberlain, Mrs. Rose Schieffelin, Mrs. C. H. Howard, Mrs. J. F. Kimball, Mrs. Mattie Brown, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, and Mrs. H. K. Hanna as nominating committee and Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Mrs. F. W. Clark, and Mrs. Stella Seidell as a resolutions committee the session adjourned for luncheon served in the club room.

The outstanding features of the afternoon session were addresses by Miss Chamberlain, on the "Biennial," Mrs. J. M. Morris, "National Politics," and "Literature and Art" given by Mrs. Humphreys and Mrs. Wallace of Medford.

The reports of committees appointed, were given in closing, nominating for president, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler of Roseburg; vice-president, Mrs. Fred Baker, Klamath Agency; second vice-president, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Eagle Point; recording secretary, Mrs. Long Talbot; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. S. Jost, Roseburg; treasurer, Miss Fanny Abrams, Grants Pass.

Resolved: That the first S. O. D. P. W. C. express their sincere appreciation of the hospitality extended the delegates and friends by the Rogue River Civic Improvement Club and wish to make special mention of the delicious luncheon served by the club and the friendly club spirit that has prevailed throughout this convention.

That the members as a whole unite their efforts in controlling publication of subjects of a demoralizing nature from the front pages of our newspapers.

That the clubs represented in this federation pay special attention to the correct use and respect shown to the flag of the United States.

That the women of Douglas, Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties work together for the needs and interests of these counties and support each other in every topic of interest and give our support through the S. O. D. P. W. C.

Mrs. J. C. Ponsler of Roseburg, and Mrs. Arthur K. Earhart of Rogue River were named delegates to the state convention at Marshfield. The invitation of Roseburg for next year's meeting was accepted.

Dinner Party for Northside Club

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Crocker joined in offering hospitality to the Northside 500 Club on Tuesday evening, serving dinner at seven at the Crocker home. Clusters of beautiful azaleas made the dinner table attractive and were also about the rooms where cards provided the diversion of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sebeck holding high score and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wimberly low. Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sebeck, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brann and the hosts.

Dinner Surprise on Birthday Anniversaries

A dinner party for which Mrs. Bert G. Bates and Mrs. Francis Dillard were hostesses on Thursday evening, completely surprised their husbands and honored their joint birthday anniversaries.

The dinner was served at six thirty at the Bates home in Laurens, covers being placed for Mr. Bates, Mr. Dillard, H. B. Hudson, Ted Post, Clyde Carstensen, Albert Ashford, H. W. Bates, James Goodman, Leon McClintock and Jack Crafton.

Cards, music and informal chatting filled the hours after dinner.

May Day Dance Event of Next Week

The May Day dance under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club will be one of the features of next week, on Tuesday evening, May 5th, at the Armory, and all other musical events on that evening will be subservient to the larger affair. The hall is to be beautifully decorated, and the list of patrons and patronesses includes a number of prominent people.

Rose School P. T. A. to Observe Music Week

In common with all other organizations the Rose School Parent Teachers Association will give Music week a prominent part in its program on Monday evening, May 4. There will be a short business meeting, with election of officers, preceding the musical program.

In the program will be an orchestra number by W. F. Ott, violin, Mrs. Jessie McKeay, Melvin, cello and Miss Althea Hembree, piano; two vocal solos, "Four Leaf Clover" by Coombs and "Little Brown Owl" by Sanderson, Miss Edna Haselinge; reading by Miss Evelyn Noland; cello solo, selected piano solo "Chromatic Waltz" by Gotard, Miss Dorothy Winston; Carl B. Neal will close the program with an illustrated talk on Forest Protection.

Camp Fire Girls Organize Again Here

The Camp Fire Girls organization, which has not had a branch in Roseburg for several years, was reorganized this week at a meeting of a number of interested girls at the home of Mrs. H. N. Graybill. Mrs. Graybill was a member of the Camp Fire Girls organization in Seattle, and served as guardian there, and since coming to Roseburg has been anxious to see a chapter organized here. She will be assisted in her guardianship by Mrs. T. J. Kearney.

Miss Frances Metcalf was chosen president of the "Empire" Camp Fire Girls, with Julia Keastley, first vice president, Ruth Collins as secretary, Louise Douglas as treasurer, and Kathleen Spaur as sergeant at arms. The remaining members are Alice Post, Dallas Colby, Emma Wolford, Doreen Hutchings, Margaret Allen, and Gladys Aiden. Ona Durich, Merle Meyers, Evelyn Thomas, Lydia Neal, Kathleen Ness.

Dancing and Music Entertain Younger Set

Miss Marion Schwarz entertained a number of her girl friends at a delightful evening party on Thursday, the guests making merry with dancing and music. An informal supper was served by the hostess.

Allens Dinner Hosts on Thursday

One of the attractive dinner parties of the week had Mr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allon as hosts on Thursday evening. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mr. and Mrs. John Farrington, Mr. A. J. Hochradel, at a handsomely appointed table centered with clematis.

The hours after dinner were passed with bridge, Mrs. McClintock and Mr. Church holding high scores.

Roseburg Boys Are Pledged at Corvallis

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, May 2.—Maurice Nealand of Roseburg, junior in commerce, has been pledged to Alpha Kappa Psi, national honorary commerce fraternity. Membership in this society is limited to men in the upper two classes in college. Pledges elected must have the qualities of leadership, be prominent in campus activities, and have good character and a high scholastic standing.

Mrs. Ponsler Hostess to Bridge Club

Mrs. J. C. Ponsler provided a pleasant afternoon for the members of the Monday Bridge Club when she invited them to her home for play this week. High score was held by Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Fred Hruby assisted the hostess serve a 2 course luncheon to the following guests, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. John Enger, Mrs. J. E. Love, Mrs. Ben Ziegler, Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. E. T. Naalden, and Mrs. A. F. McKenzie. Orchid and rose pink tulpas in artistic arrangement, were used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. Hume Hostess to Daughters of Nile Club

Mrs. J. C. Hume invited the members of the Daughters of the Nile Club to her home to chat and see one afternoon this week. After the pleasant afternoon Mrs. Hume served a delicious luncheon to Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Ed. Dewardoff, Mrs. Lloyd Crocker, and Mrs. William Bell.

Miss Reymers Hostess to Girls at Bridge

Miss Fern Reymers invited a group of girls to her home for an informal game of bridge Tuesday evening, decorating the tables and rooms with clusters of early spring roses. Miss Marion Post held high score. After the cards were put away luncheon was served at the small tables to Miss Iris Rice, Mrs. Mary Roams, Miss Vera McMillin, Miss Marie Patten, Mrs. Lorrie Conlon, Miss Charles Harpster, Miss Carol Doyle, and the hostess.

Engagement of Attractive Girl Told at Dinner

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Marguerite Frances Rusko and Rudolph F. H. Lindner was made Tuesday evening at six o'clock dinner for which Miss Rusko and her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Rusko were hostesses. Dainty shades of pink, white and green combined to make the table arrangement artistic. A canopy of flowers and fern held ribbon streamers carried to each place by bluebirds, whose small coronas concealed an envelope with the names of the betrothed couple. A delicate arrangement of carnations and maidenhair fern centered the table.

Covers were placed for Miss Lois Cobb, Miss Edna Judt, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Mildred Davis, Miss Mary McCollough of Eugene, Miss Thelma Olmsted, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Dorothy Eddy, Miss Rita Shamhart, Miss Dorothy Winston, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Lillian Flint, of Portland, Miss Daphne Hughes, Miss Velma McDonald, Mrs. John Lindner, Miss Rusko, and Mrs. Rusko.

Miss Rusko is an attractive member of the younger set in Roseburg and graduated from Roseburg High School last year. She has attended the University of Oregon this year. Mr. Lindner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lindner and is associated with his father in the Deer Creek Dairy. He attended the University of Minnesota, before coming to Roseburg. The wedding will be an event of the summer.

Mrs. Applegate Entertains Yoncalla Study Club

All Nature smiled last Saturday in appreciation of the very lovely luncheon tendered the Yoncalla Study Club by Mrs. Maud Applegate at her country home in Scott's Valley. Those who know Mrs. Applegate's reputation as a hostess, know without telling, that any event sponsored by her would be delightful in all its appointments.

A most delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock, the hostess being assisted by her niece, Mrs. Carl H. Koppe, of Eugene, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Grant Applegate. After the luncheon, the club had an interesting program, the roll call being on Current Events, Mrs. Jess R. Lasswell, of Oakland, read a splendid paper, the topic being: "Twelve greatest living American women, as selected by the National League of Women Voters." After the discussion of several other important matters, Mrs. Mary Burt, who has been our most faithful and helpful president, since Mrs. Lasswell left us asked that a new president be elected. All felt sorry to give Mrs. Burt up, but she felt that she had earned a vacation.

After taking a vote, Mrs. Earl Strong was found to have a majority of votes. While we are sure that no one can fill the office of president more ably than Mrs. Burt has done, we are equally sure that Mrs. Strong will make a splendid president.

As Mrs. Solte, our regular secretary could not be present Miss Bernice Richards acted as secretary in a very efficient manner. The program closed with music and singing. Mrs. Miller saved several selections, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Learyman.

The following members and guests were present: Mrs. Mary Burt, Mrs. Edythe Thompson, Mrs. J. R. Lasswell, Mrs. Maggie Cooke, and aunt, Mrs. Mary Doharar of S. F., Mrs. George McGowan, Mrs. Laura Applegate, Mrs. Myrtle Kopp, and two daughters, Bernice and Vernita. Mrs. Frances Breyman, Florence and Emma Miller, Mrs. Annie Kruse, Mrs. Theresa Warner, Paula Strong, Mrs. Myrtle Applegate, Mrs. Carl H. Koppe, Mrs. Frank Applegate and the hostess, Mrs. Maud Applegate.

Japanese Operetta at Conservatory Friday Night

A number of the best vocalists of Roseburg will present Vincent's tuneful operetta "The Japanese Girl" at the Heintze Conservatory Friday evening, May 5, as part of the Music Week program. The operetta is being given by soloists and choral from the voice department of the Conservatory assisted by a number of Roseburg singers, under the direction of Mrs. Charles A. Brand.

The story centers in the celebration of the eighteenth birthday of O Hanu San, a beautiful Japanese girl, daughter of a famous warrior. The story is full of melody and fun, the latter being precipitated by the sudden arrival in O Hanu San's garden of two American girls with their learned gossameress.

Parrots, fans, Japanese lanterns and flowers will transform the recital room of the Conservatory into an oriental garden. Like all other features of Music Week, it is to be free to the public, but owing to the limited seating capacity of the hall, those who wish to attend should secure complimentary tickets as early as possible at the Conservatory.

Mrs. Hume Hostess to Daughters of Nile Club

Mrs. J. C. Hume invited the members of the Daughters of the Nile Club to her home to chat and see one afternoon this week. After the pleasant afternoon Mrs. Hume served a delicious luncheon to Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Ed. Dewardoff, Mrs. Lloyd Crocker, and Mrs. William Bell.

Miss Reymers Hostess to Girls at Bridge

Miss Fern Reymers invited a group of girls to her home for an informal game of bridge Tuesday evening, decorating the tables and rooms with clusters of early spring roses. Miss Marion Post held high score. After the cards were put away luncheon was served at the small tables to Miss Iris Rice, Mrs. Mary Roams, Miss Vera McMillin, Miss Marie Patten, Mrs. Lorrie Conlon, Miss Charles Harpster, Miss Carol Doyle, and the hostess.

Engagement of Attractive Girl Told at Dinner

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Marguerite Frances Rusko and Rudolph F. H. Lindner was made Tuesday evening at six o'clock dinner for which Miss Rusko and her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Rusko were hostesses. Dainty shades of pink, white and green combined to make the table arrangement artistic. A canopy of flowers and fern held ribbon streamers carried to each place by bluebirds, whose small coronas concealed an envelope with the names of the betrothed couple. A delicate arrangement of carnations and maidenhair fern centered the table.

Covers were placed for Miss Lois Cobb, Miss Edna Judt, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Mildred Davis, Miss Mary McCollough of Eugene, Miss Thelma Olmsted, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Dorothy Eddy, Miss Rita Shamhart, Miss Dorothy Winston, Miss Thelma Smith, Miss Lillian Flint, of Portland, Miss Daphne Hughes, Miss Velma McDonald, Mrs. John Lindner, Miss Rusko, and Mrs. Rusko.

Miss Rusko is an attractive member of the younger set in Roseburg and graduated from Roseburg High School last year. She has attended the University of Oregon this year. Mr. Lindner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lindner and is associated with his father in the Deer Creek Dairy. He attended the University of Minnesota, before coming to Roseburg. The wedding will be an event of the summer.

Mrs. Applegate Entertains Yoncalla Study Club

All Nature smiled last Saturday in appreciation of the very lovely luncheon tendered the Yoncalla Study Club by Mrs. Maud Applegate at her country home in Scott's Valley. Those who know Mrs. Applegate's reputation as a hostess, know without telling, that any event sponsored by her would be delightful in all its appointments.

A most delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock, the hostess being assisted by her niece, Mrs. Carl H. Koppe, of Eugene, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Grant Applegate. After the luncheon, the club had an interesting program, the roll call being on Current Events, Mrs. Jess R. Lasswell, of Oakland, read a splendid paper, the topic being: "Twelve greatest living American women, as selected by the National League of Women Voters." After the discussion of several other important matters, Mrs. Mary Burt, who has been our most faithful and helpful president, since Mrs. Lasswell left us asked that a new president be elected. All felt sorry to give Mrs. Burt up, but she felt that she had earned a vacation.

After taking a vote, Mrs. Earl Strong was found to have a majority of votes. While we are sure that no one can fill the office of president more ably than Mrs. Burt has done, we are equally sure that Mrs. Strong will make a splendid president.

As Mrs. Solte, our regular secretary could not be present Miss Bernice Richards acted as secretary in a very efficient manner. The program closed with music and singing. Mrs. Miller saved several selections, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Learyman.

The following members and guests were present: Mrs. Mary Burt, Mrs. Edythe Thompson, Mrs. J. R. Lasswell, Mrs. Maggie Cooke, and aunt, Mrs. Mary Doharar of S. F., Mrs. George McGowan, Mrs. Laura Applegate, Mrs. Myrtle Kopp, and two daughters, Bernice and Vernita. Mrs. Frances Breyman, Florence and Emma Miller, Mrs. Annie Kruse, Mrs. Theresa Warner, Paula Strong, Mrs. Myrtle Applegate, Mrs. Carl H. Koppe, Mrs. Frank Applegate and the hostess, Mrs. Maud Applegate.

Japanese Operetta at Conservatory Friday Night

A number of the best vocalists of Roseburg will present Vincent's tuneful operetta "The Japanese Girl" at the Heintze Conservatory Friday evening, May 5, as part of the Music Week program. The operetta is being given by soloists and choral from the voice department of the Conservatory assisted by a number of Roseburg singers, under the direction of Mrs. Charles A. Brand.

The story centers in the celebration of the eighteenth birthday of O Hanu San, a beautiful Japanese girl, daughter of a famous warrior. The story is full of melody and fun, the latter being precipitated by the sudden arrival in O Hanu San's garden of two American girls with their learned gossameress.

Parrots, fans, Japanese lanterns and flowers will transform the recital room of the Conservatory into an oriental garden. Like all other features of Music Week, it is to be free to the public, but owing to the limited seating capacity of the hall, those who wish to attend should secure complimentary tickets as early as possible at the Conservatory.

Mrs. Hume Hostess to Daughters of Nile Club

Mrs. J. C. Hume invited the members of the Daughters of the Nile Club to her home to chat and see one afternoon this week. After the pleasant afternoon Mrs. Hume served a delicious luncheon to Mrs. M. B. Green, Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Ed. Dewardoff, Mrs. Lloyd Crocker, and Mrs. William Bell.

Miss Reymers Hostess to Girls at Bridge

Miss Fern Reymers invited a group of girls to her home for an informal game of bridge Tuesday evening, decorating the tables and rooms with clusters of early spring roses. Miss Marion Post held high score. After the cards were put away luncheon was served at the small tables to Miss Iris Rice, Mrs. Mary Roams, Miss Vera McMillin, Miss Marie Patten, Mrs. Lorrie Conlon, Miss Charles Harpster, Miss Carol Doyle, and the hostess.

Eugene Road Show to Draw From Here

Those "unique and extraordinary" comedians, Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean, famed the country over for their famous comic ballad, and now on the first lap of their tour around the world as stars of the Greenwich Village Follies, will come to the Heintze Theatre in Eugene, on Tuesday evening, May 5th. A number of Roseburg people will motor to Eugene for the event.

For this World Tour, the Bohemians, Inc., Messrs. Jones and Green managing directors, have originated an entirely new revue which is a composite of the six editions of the Greenwich Village Follies, and combines the most numerous, spectacular and sensational numbers.

A company of sixty dancers, singers, and buffoons are associated with Mr. Gallagher and Shean in this latest musical revue. The show will be presented there in the same lavish and opulent style as will distinguish its run in all of the leading cities throughout its continental tour. Prominent among its players are a number of well-known musical comedy, vaudeville and vaudeville lights any one of whom have seen their names in "Electric" on Broadway, and a spectacular dancing chorus of thirty famous art models.

Sherman Clay & Company store recently opened here. The recital will be an event of May 4, at the First Presbyterian church, with Miss Leona Mouton of Portland as soloist. Miss Mouton is well known in Portland musical circles, and has a voice of exceptional beauty. She will be assisted by Miss Maxine Moore, flutist, and Jessie McKeay, Melvin, cellist.

Roseburg Girls to Represent O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, May 2.—Lois Cheddie and Marion Needham of Roseburg are members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, who will represent the college in Eugene at the Y. M. C. A. state cabinet training conference this week end. The cabinets of all Oregon colleges and universities will be represented in home economics. Miss Cheddie is secretary of the cabinet and Miss Needham, chairman of the conference department.

Mrs. Brumback Will Head Dixonville P. T. A.

New officers were elected at the meeting on April 29 of the View Point P. T. A. of Dixonville. Mrs. Joe Brumback will head the organization as president during the coming year, with Mrs. Charles Kroge as vice-president; Mrs. Fred Caullin as treasurer; Mrs. Clara Howard; reading, Mrs. James Hutchings; medley, Mrs. A. O. Rose; reading, Mrs. A. Bruton; comb solo, Mrs. Ida Stazza; reading, Mrs. L. T. Gibson; vocal duet, Mrs. J. O. Meiz, and Mrs. R. A. Calhoun; reading, Mrs. Guy Radabaugh; reading, Mrs. Belle Case.

Reception Tomorrow Honors Golden Wedding

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver of Myrtle Creek, prominent pioneer residents of this county, will be observed Sunday, May 3, with a reception at the Weaver home near Myrtle Creek to which over one hundred guests from all parts of the county have been invited. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver have resided near Myrtle Creek for many years, and have been actively identified with the growth of that section and of Douglas County. Mr. Weaver has served as county commissioner for several years.

(Continued on page six)

Mrs. Lockwood Honors Wisconsin Visitor

Mrs. Bertha Kaeppler of La Crosse, Wisconsin, who is a guest at the Fred Schwartz home here, was the honored guest at an afternoon of bridge on Tuesday for which Mrs. C. A. Lockwood was hostess. At play were Mrs. Clara Plar, Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. J. I. Love, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Ralph Hunsaker, Mrs. B. E. Owen, Mrs. H. F. Ogden, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mrs. R. L. Gedney, and Mrs. Fleischer. Luncheon was served at the small tables after cards.

Loyal Women's Class Has Social Thursday

"The Loyal Women" of the Christian Church held a most enjoyable class social Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. An interesting program of the following numbers was given: "Blest Be the Tie That Binds"; Prayer by the teacher, Mrs. Sprague and the president, Mrs. Metz; scripture reading by Mrs. L. V. Gates; reading, Mrs. W. H. Camp; piano solo, Mrs. A. Sprague; reading, Mrs. Clara Howard; reading, Mrs. James Hutchings; medley, Mrs. A. O. Rose; reading, Mrs. A. Bruton; comb solo, Mrs. Ida Stazza; reading, Mrs. L. T. Gibson; vocal duet, Mrs. J. O. Meiz, and Mrs. R. A. Calhoun; reading, Mrs. Guy Radabaugh; reading, Mrs. Belle Case.

Announcement

Monday, May 4

We are pleased to announce that we have opened our new Store at 225 North Jackson Street, formerly occupied by the Moore Music Shop. We invite your inspection of our line of Pianos, and other merchandise, including

- Steinway
Weber
Steck
Kraukauer
Kurtzman
Brambach
Aeolian Pianos
and other Pianos

- Victrols
Records
Radios
"King" Band
Instruments
Player Rolls
Sheet Music

All Music Lovers in Roseburg and Vicinity are invited to attend our Formal Opening next Monday. Your patronage is solicited.

SHERMAN, CLAY & CO. EVERYTHING IN MUSIC

225 North Jackson Phone 132 Roseburg, Og.

STEINWAY DUO ART RECITAL

1ST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH May 4th, 8:30 p.m.

HEAR Miss Leona Mouton, Soloist of Portland

Assisted by Miss Maxine Moore, Flutist and Jessie McRae Melvin, Cellist

We extend to the People of Roseburg and neighboring communities a cordial invitation to attend this Recital as our guests next Monday evening, 8:30 o'clock.

COME, ENJOY A RARE MUSICAL TREAT WITH US SHERMAN, CLAY & COMPANY

225 N. Jackson Phone 136 Roseburg