CLEVELAND ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove left for Rice Creek last week, where they have taken up a homestead.

Mrs. Adam Doerner is home again after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. R. Fieser at Los Angeles.

The seventh and eighth grade pupils attended the agricultural demonstration at the Melrose school last Wednesday. They reported a beautiful crop of freckles in that vicinity.

Mrs. Fred Durham of Umpqua is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reynolds.

Chas. Churchill and J. L. Pierson of Umpqua showed their smiling faces on our streets last week.

Martha Tavenner has been the "chore boy" at the Lutman home the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Lutman were entertaining an unwelcome visitor, Mr. Flu, who didn't like the present brilliancy of old Sal, so took his "gripes" and left for parts unknown.

Freslie Becker left for Roseburg yesterday, where she will be employed at the Sam Shoemaker home.

Mrs. Goff spent the week end with her parents at Sutherland. Ethel Krohn accompanied her.

Chas. Hammer of Roseburg visited the Reynolds children for a few days last week.

Milton Tavenner went down Main street as usual this morning with his "peller dog" occupying the back seat of his sedan.

John Thomas of Roseburg spent Sunday with the Thomasons.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Troyle of Sutherland were seen in the vicinity last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Becker gave a May Day party at their beautiful home on the hill last Friday night. Odorous of delicious ice cream and cake were served. Those who attended outside of the community were Rex and Mrs. Murphy, Lucy Becker, Mabel Maxwell and Mr. Williams of Roseburg, Mrs. Bridge and children Vivian and Jesse of Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and Bill Vanorman of Elgar.

A lively discussion was held at the Christian Endeavor meeting last Sunday night on "Religious Training of Young People of the Past and Those of Today."

I began to think we wouldn't get home till morning. After exchanging their surprise supply of wine they finally decided to give Rex Murphy a chance to deliver an interesting sermon on "Judgment."

BURGLAR SURRENDERS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

DETROIT, May 4.—George D. Komar, 54, walked into a police station here today and asked to be arrested for the theft of $10,000 from the city of Maplewood, Mo., a St. Louis suburb, of which for 8 years he was treasurer. The money, he said, had been lost at the gambling tables. Komar said he left Maplewood two weeks ago.

"No one there knows where I am," he said, "but I couldn't get on. My conscience wouldn't let me. I want to go back and face the music."

Komar is a bachelor.

"Probably if I had been married I never would have started gambling," he said.

AILMENTS OF YOUNG GIRLS

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound School Teacher's Experience

Evanston, Wyoming.—"A few years ago I had troubles every month such as migraines, headaches, and would suffer awfully every time. I was teaching school and it made it hard for me as I had to go to bed for two or three days. One day my mother suggested that I take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and it did wonders for me. In the course of a year I married and after my first baby was born I got up too soon and it caused a displacement. This troubled me so that I could hardly walk or do my housework. I knew what the Vegetable Compound did for me before so I took it again. It strengthened me and now I have five little kiddies. The eldest is six, the baby is five months old and I have twin boys three years old and a boy of five years. I do all my own housework, washing and ironing, and I never felt better in my life. I owe my health to your wonderful medicine."

A BRIDE'S DIARY

A Love Story of Today
By Idah McGlone Gibson

Cleo Madison, entertaining a few friends, decides to read her grandmother's diary. Grandmother's diary is so quaint, so modest, that these modern-day girls are thunderstruck. When the girls go, Cleo thinks of her elopement with Paul Winthrop planned for the immediate future. Her conscience is pricked by a passage of the modest, old-fashioned diary. For, though engaged to Paul she, only the night before enjoyed the kisses of Chick Adams. Both sets of parents opposed the match because at one time the families had been rich, but now were social climbers and the parents wanted each to marry money. Connie Terhune, wealthy, wanted to marry Paul. At a party Chick Adams draws Cleo aside protesting that she should have come with him. Cleo doubts her love for Paul. Her grandmother's diaries his love for the girl. They are wed. Cleo's mother becomes hysterical. Connie shows again her jealousy. The fathers of the new-lords rejoice. The honeymoon begins. The fierce flame of her love almost whelms Cleo. The honeymoon grows more effulgent. The reception for the newly-weds shows Connie in her true light.

EYES OF GREEN

"I'm sorry to find you neglected so soon," Chick said as I turned at his voice. "But perhaps you might as well learn it now as well as later, for you can't keep such a good looking man as Paul all to yourself. All the other women will be trying to make him forget you."

"Now if you had taken a homely man like me you would not have had that trouble."

"Come on and dance and forget your worries."

As we moved out into the middle of the room among the dancers, Chick bent down with his mouth close to my ear. "I don't know why I came here tonight, Cleo. It just seems as though I want to make myself miserable. I can't stay away from you even when you are married. Why would you not have loved me?"

I looked up into his face wondering and answered honestly, "I don't know Chick."

"Why didn't I love Chick? He had been just as devoted to me all the years as had Paul. I think perhaps that if Paul had stayed away from me for a whole year, I might have loved, married and been called Mrs. Charles Adams."

I remembered that night when he first kissed me. I remembered the thrill of his kisses, the night before Paul came home, and decided that it was all bunk that a woman could love only one man all her life through.

Something of this must have been in my face for Chick blighted his hold upon me. "Cleo, I can't make myself believe I have really lost you."

"You can't most always sometimes tickle."

"What do you mean? Surely you are not sorry already?"

"Perhaps I want to be safe and not burn my bridges behind me. I answered flippantly.

I looked across the room where my husband and Connie were dancing and as I noticed how closely she was snuggled in his arms, and how happy he looked, how oblivious to everything else he was except the exquisite

MAN ON WAY TO ROSEBURG MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

E. W. Cornwell, of San Francisco narrowly escaped death when his auto went over the grade near Shasta late last night. Mr. Cornwell, former federal operator, at San Francisco, was on his way to Roseburg to visit with relatives. His car plunged over the grade, turning over three times, and crashed to the bottom of the incline where it burst into flames. Mr. Cornwell escaped with only minor injuries, but returned to San Francisco by train.

BABY BOY BORN.

Word was received here today of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reimers, of Los Angeles, early this morning. Mrs. Reimers, who is in the Carlton hospital, is doing nicely. Both of the young people are well known here, having resided here for many years.

DANGER SIGNAL FLASHED BY "NERVES"

When you suffer from sharp, darting pains, nerves a-tingle, nerve fatigue, accompanied by a feeling of exhaustion, you are too restless and upset to seek needed relaxation. The nerves are sending out to you a cry for help. Heed this plea! If you do not, serious consequences may result.

For years scientists have sought an effective remedy for such a condition. Thousands of tests and experiments have been made, but heretofore, no sure remedy has resulted. Now, at last, an eminent San Francisco physician announces a new discovery based upon the science of Homeopathy, a form of treatment recognized by many prominent physicians as the most effective remedial agent known to science.

This discovery is compounded into Eopa Neuritis Tablets and is now available to all who want relief from neuritis, neuralgia, nerve pains and other forms of nervous disorders. If you suffer from "nerves," try this remarkable preparation at once before your condition gets worse.

Eopa Neuritis Tablets are free from narcotics, bromides and coal tar products. W. F. Chapman's Pharmacy will supply you. Mail orders filled.

MELROSE ITEMS.

Isn't this lovely weather? Yes, lovely for garden work and everybody is busy making garden and planting broccoli seed.

A representation of the agricultural classes of the Roseburg High School gave a very interesting program at our school Wednesday afternoon. They were assisted by their teacher, Mr. Moreland and the High School quartet.

Pupils were in attendance from the Cleveland, Elgarose, Sylton Valley and West Melrose districts.

At the last Grange meeting an essay contest was held. The subject, "How Can the Grange Be More Beneficial to the Community?" was well handled by the contestants. Six essays were read.

Mr. Ernest Johnson drew first prize, while Mrs. Grace Conn and Mrs. E. R. Fenn tied for second.

Besides the reading of the essays by Mrs. F. A. Goff, the following numbers were given. Readings by Joyce Busenbark and Elsie Busenbark, songs by a girls' chorus and duets by Mrs. H. P. Conn and son James.

Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Blakely of Glide and Dr. C. H. Badley of South Deer Creek visited our Grange.

A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

Postmaster Scott has been busy the past week grubbing out his hedge, which was killed during the severe weather last winter.

The painting of the posts around the school yard improves the looks of the property as well as preserving the posts. Mr. J. H. Bosard is handling the brush.

Further improvement will be made on the grounds on Friday, May 8th, when "Community Day" will be held for that purpose. Biring your baskets and as a picnic dinner is planned.

We understand the new little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Mabley is doing fine and has been named Dorothy Jean. Here's best wishes for the little Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson called at the H. P. Conn home on Thursday. Mr. Wilson was a resident of Melrose, when a boy and is a brother of H. E. and H. A. Wilson of this locality.

BELGIAN PREMIER GIVES TALK ON CONTROL OF TRAFFIC IN FIREARMS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

GENEVA, May 4.—The traffic in arms cannot be considered a merely commercial matter and escape international regulation, declared Count Henri Carton De Wiart, former Belgian premier in formal opening today the international conference for control of the traffic in arms, called by the League of Nations, in which an American delegation is taking part. The presiding address drew out frequent bursts of applause.

GENEVA, May 4.—Reports that the British delegation would present a substitute concentrating at the international conference for control of the traffic in arms, opening here today, were confirmed by British spokesmen, who said they probably would also offer other suggestions as will the American delegation. A draft convention prepared by a special committee, is to be presented as the basis for its discussions. Representative of arm manufacturers have come to Geneva to watch the conference which so directly affects their business. Other potential opponents of some of the proposed regulations are states that insist that the "sacred right of revolution" must be protected.

This latter feeling is recognized as a difficult problem by the conference leaders who fear that enforcement of the right to send arms into a country would give the great powers a dangerous measure of diplomatic pressure, enabling them to assure victory to a revolutionary party they favored by the furnishing of it with an unlimited supply of arms. There is a tendency to emphasize the importance of this phase to Latin-American and certain parts of Europe.
