FINE PROGRAMS AS MUSIC WEEK IS NEARING END

Great Number of Talented Musicians in Roseburg Is Surprise.

OPERETTA TONIGHT

Pupils of Mrs. Brand to Appear in Japanese Setting at Heinline Conservatory Tonight.

Unusual crowds have been reported at all the Music Week attractions, and Thursday night was no exception, with each musical event announced for that night crowded with eager music lovers. Considerable astonishment has been expressed at the excellence of the musical talent in Roseburg, this week having served to bring the musicians before a larger public than at any time heretofore. Many strangers have remarked on the variety and fine quality of the work done by the people here, stating that such a band of accomplished musicians is unusual for a town of this size.

Over two hundred people crowded Ott's Music Store and overflowed to the street outside while many were unable to get in to hear the fine musical program arranged by Mr. Ott for the public last night. The program was varied and delighted everyone, and the event proved to be one of the most successful of the week. The Eastern Star Lodge also opened its doors to the public at 8:45 and offered them a musical program of rare excellence. The Boys Band delighted passers by with a short program in front of the Umpqua Hotel.

Tonight the main attraction will be the Japanese operetta at the Heinline Conservatory under the direction of Mrs. Charles A. Brand. Mrs. Brand and a group of vocalists have been working for the past two months on this operetta which is of unusual melody and beauty and are offering it to the public free of charge tonight and again Monday night, May 11, as a part of National Music Week. Cards of admission are being issued from the Conservatory. The hall has been beautifully decorated and special lighting effects will add to the beauty of the production.

Other events tonight will be a program at 7:30 in the lobby of the Hotel Umpqua under the direction of Miss Evelyn Noland. Included in the numbers, will be a reading by Miss Olive Lawrence, a dance by Elizabeth Williams, sailor dance by Dorothy Ogilvie and Dorothy McDonald, reading by Marjorie Miller, dance by Helen Virginia Yount, and a toe dance by Miss Noland. At the Liberty Theatre Mrs. Lucy B. Haley and Mrs. Frank Lilburne will sing a group of solos and duets and Gordon V. Cook will play a piano number.

Saturday night will close Music Week aside from the Mother's Day programs and music on Sunday at the churches, and the hotel programs which proved so successful last year, will bring this national observance to a climax. The programs will be given in the hotel lobbies starting promptly at seven o'clock. A different orchestra will play at each hotel the entire hour, but the soloists will go from one place to another, with a continuous program. At the Grand Hotel Mrs. A. J. Young's orchestra with Mrs. Arthur Knuss, accompanist, will play with Mrs. Charles Brand managing the program; at the Umpqua Mr. Ott's orchestra, with Mrs. E. T. Melvin, accompanist, will play with Mrs. Charles Brand in charge of the program; at the Terminal Hotel the Sherman Clay orchestra with Mr. Arundel, accompanist, and Mr. J. E. McClintock as manager; at the Douglas Hotel, the Christian Church orchestra, under the direction of T. H. Olson, with Miss Lucille Sappington, accompanist, and A. T. Lawrence, manager.

The program that will be given at all the hotels follows:

Saxophone Solo, Mrs. Roy Wells; Contralto solo, Miss Edna Haseltine; Cornet duet, Mr. Crocker and Mr. Tester; Bass solo, Mr. H. A. Canaday; Euphonium solo, Mr. Fred Strang; Soprano solo, Mrs. Fred Powell; Toe dance, Marjorie Miller; Trombone solo, Mr. Dale Strange; Violin solo, Mr. Herbert Williams; Soprano solo, Mrs. Fred Strang; Gypsy dance, Helen Virginia Yount; Tenor solo, Mr. Warren Burt.

The Sherman Clay company will provide a piano at the Terminal hotel for the program; and Ott's Music Store is providing pianos at the Grand and Douglas hotels.

LIBERTY THEATRE

It is a photo-drama resplendent with beautiful scenery—shot on hitherto camera virgin locations. The action never lags, and the splendid work of Bob Custer, the star, is well mounted in an excellent supporting cast of screen notables. Mary Beth Milford is Custer's leading lady in "Galloping Vengeance," a picture suited to the title under which it is released.

This unusual western drama, starring Bob Custer, earns every compliment of the screen reviewer, and those who follow Bob Custer, acclaim him already one of the brightest of Western star heroes. "Galloping Vengeance" will be shown for tomorrow only at the Liberty Theatre.

(Associated Press Lead Wire.)

QUINCY, Cal., May 8. — Joe Tanko and Floyd Hall, escaped murderers from San Quentin state prison are reported to have passed through Battle, Sierra County, about 35 miles southeast of here yesterday. MRS. H. A. CALKINS MAKES A GOOD GUESS.

A lot of people are deeply interested for a week in the sandy soil of smooth, small stones that occupied the center of the Markham window displaying ladies' hats. It was proposed to present the person who guessed the number of stones a box of three pair of Bobolink silk ladies' hats. Of course there were several hundred guesses registered, and when the stones were counted this morning it was found that Mrs. H. A. Calkins, of Edenbowser, had guessed the nearest to the actual number. There were 1225 stones in the pair, and Mrs. Calkins guessed ranged all the way from a few hundred to several thousand, so the history goes to Mrs. Calkins, she being considered the winner.
