LABOR TEMPLE MANAGER ROBBED OF $5,000 CASH

PORTLAND, Ore., May 9.—Will E. Gibson, manager of the Labor Temple, was held up and robbed of $5,000 in cash by two men shortly after noon today. The robbers escaped in a machine which they had left on the curb near the Labor Temple with the engine running.

The gunmen waited in the foyer just inside the Fourth Street entrance to the Temple. When Gibson started out of his office with a satchel containing the money, one of the men slid alongside of him, shoved a small automatic pistol into his ribs and demanded the satchel.

There were half a dozen men standing within a few feet of Gibson and the robber. They all stood still as if paralyzed.

The second robber was standing at the bottom of the dozen steps which lead to the building entrance. The first gunman seized the satchel and the pair dashed out of the building and into the waiting machine. They disappeared on Fourth Street.

Gibson had drawn the money from the Brotherhood Bank about 11:30 as he does every Saturday. The money is used to cash pay checks of union members on Saturday afternoons.

ISLAND OF OAHU NEEDS DEFENSE WAR GAME SHOWS

Incidental to the presence of the United States fleet in Hawaiian waters, but not arising out of the joint maneuvers, there have already arisen wide discussions of the inadequacy of the Pearl Harbor naval base to serve the fleet such service being the fundamental reason for establishing any defense whatever on the islands. That question has to do with the creation of channels deep and straight enough to permit entry by the heaviest battle ships on any tide; dredging within the harbor of an area sufficient to permit the mooring of the entire fleet, and erection of additional drydock facilities.

EMINENT MEN PAY TRIBUTE TO MOTHER

Let France have good mothers and she will have good sons.—Napoleon.

I remember my mother's prayers, and they have always followed me.—Lincoln.

Memories of mothers are sweet, but never as sweet as mothers themselves. Some of us forget this.—M. D. Hillmer.

A mother is a mother still, the holiest thing alive.—Coleridge.

Quotations Lincoln says: "All that I am or hope to be I owe to my angel mother. Jane Taylor says: "Who ran to help me when I fell And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the part to make it well? My mother."

The dearest word known to mortal tongue is the love-charmed word—"Mother."
