ATTORNEYS FOR BOARD REMOVED

SALEM, Ore., May 11.—The state land board today removed D. W. Sheehan as attorney for the board in Deschutes county and appointed in their places Sylvester M. Hurley of Enterprise and N. A. Burdick of Redmond respectively. The change in Wallawa county was recommended by James S. Stewart, investigator for the board the reason being that Sheehan was not active enough in the work of the board and was reluctant to prosecute foreclosures arising out of long-standing defaults of interest payments on state loans. Governor Pierce was not recorded as voting for or against this change. The governor voted against the change in Deschutes county. Members of the board said no complaint had been made against Farnham's work, but that there were other reasons for his removal. Both Sheehan and Farnham were appointed by the board when Governor Pierce and Jefferson Myers were its majority members, and Farnham served as a special prosecutor of prohibition violation cases in Deschutes county by appointment of Pierce. Burdick is the father of Benton G. Burdick, speaker of the house of representatives at the 1925 legislative session.

HIGHWAY OPENED BY TWO STATES

GRANTS PASS, Ore., May 11.—Oregon and California joined hands in the dedication yesterday of 14 miles of the Redwood highway paralleling the Smith river. The celebration which was held at the mouth of Patrick's Creek, on the Smith river, 20 miles from Grants Pass, was attended by more than 600 persons. Nel Norte, Cal., sent a large representation and scores were present from Grants Pass and other points in Oregon.

A. D. Lee, president of the Crescent City Chamber of Commerce, presided at the ceremonies, and addresses were made by O. S. Blanchard, former president of the Grants Pass Chamber of Commerce; H. D. Norton, present head of that organization; E. W. Miller of Josephine county; Tom Cotter of Brookings, general manager of the California and Oregon Lumber Company; William Ward of the same company; George Cloney of Eureka; E. H. Green, federal engineer in charge of the work, and engineer Stockard of the California highway department.

A sea-food dinner and wild flower show were features of the day's program.

Speakers declared the stretch of highway opens new scenic attractions for tourists, and short-cuts the line between Grants Pass and Crescent City. The Skikyon road east through which the road goes was declared to abound in game and fish.
