STOP "NERVE" ATTACKS BEFORE HEALTH BREAKS

To many, neuritis is but a series of sharp, agonizing pains. Sometimes these pains are called neuralgia. Often they are known as rheumatism. Vaguely the sufferer knows that such pains are caused by a disordered condition of the nerves. But wise doctors shake their heads gravely over such symptoms. They know that these pains herald the approach of very serious, and oftentimes fatal, results unless the cause of the trouble is removed and the pains stopped.

Francisco now comes forward with what has been proved a remarkable discovery. Taking as a basis the science of Homeopathy, endorsed by leading physicians and scientists all over the world, this physician has evolved a method of treatment for "nerves" that has met with amazing success in thousands of test cases and in scientific clinical experiments.

This treatment is now available in the form of Eopa Neuritis Tablets. These tablets not only bring relief in cases of nerve pain, but they tone up the exhausted nerve cells, thereby revitalizing the entire nervous system. They are absolutely harmless and contain no narcotics, bromides or coal tar products. Your druggist will recommend them. W. F. Chapman's Pharmacy will supply you. Mail orders filled.

COURT OF HONOR TO MEET TONIGHT

The Boy Scout court of honor, will meet on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock, at the city hall. The Scouts will be given first and second class tests, and will also take examinations for merit badges. The sessions of the court will be open to adults and to Scouts if accompanied by an adult. County Judge Quinn presides over the court of which Dr. G. C. Finlay and Fred Haynes are also members. John Runyan, the scout commissioner is also one of the court officials.

BAND WILL HAVE WHITE UNIFORMS

The Douglas County Concert Band has ordered new uniforms for the strawberry carnival. The uniforms will consist of white duck trousers, white shirts, and white caps. These will be used during the summer, and will be much cooler and more comfortable. The heavy flannel uniforms are too warm for street work during the summer, and in the white uniform the musicians will present a good appearance and be much more comfortable.

THIS WOMAN'S REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Entirely Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Forest City, Iowa.—"My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after. When I bent over and raised myself up again I could almost scream with pain in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my washing and get ready to go to the doctor. He gave me medicine but it did no more good than if I drank just water. Once when we had been in town a little while talking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was left in our car. I have taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound now and I do all my housework and help with the milking and taking care of chickens and garden. Besides I have a fine baby girl eight months old, just the picture of health and I am feeling fine myself. You may use this letter as a testimonial and I will answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. OSCAR F. BOGELIN, Route No. 5, Forest City, Iowa.

A BRIDE'S DIARY

A Love Story of Today
By Idah McGlone Gibson

AFTERMATH OF MARRIAGE.

My husband and I arrived at Connie's house rather early. For some unknown reason Paul seemed very anxious to get away. I think he had promised Connie that he would come early when he phoned her that we were leaving for Fort Sam Houston tomorrow. I wanted to wait until my new frock which I had bought with some of the money Dad gave me was delivered, but he hurried me off before it came saying "You always look well enough." I could not help thinking that before we were married that he was always interested in my clothes as I was. I wasn't very happy over not being able to show my new gown especially as I found Connie sporting another new one more beautiful and much more revealing than the one she wore at the reception.

The first thing Con insisted upon doing was to mix a cocktail for Paul. I refused one for myself. "Going to be a prohibitionist, now that you are married Cleo?" Perhaps you're right. A reliable bootlegger is very expensive," sneered Connie. I was furious but my husband laughed. "You know," I said turning to him. "I never liked half-eared whiskey nor synthetic gin, and I don't see why I should ruin my stomach and fill up on them just because Connie wants to get you all spilled up."

"Well," Connie spoke up airily. "I of course want to give this nice man a good send-off." "That's right Con," I said acidly. "I'm quite sure the 'nice man' would not feel that he had been at your house if he didn't wake up with a head the next morning." The poor stupid man that I had married blushed and shook his head and frowned at me, but he soon forgot that I had been nasty to Con as he drank another of her cocktails.

"Where are you going to live when you get to Fort Sam Houston, Paul?" asked Connie ignoring me completely.

"I'm sure I'll be a vacant house somewhere in the officer's quarters for us."

"You never did care much for keeping house, did you Cleo?" said Con turning to me with sudden interest. "I don't know whether I like it or not. I'm like the chap that didn't know whether he could fiddle or not as he never had tried."

"I presume, however, that I'll get along as well as most girls who got married. In one thing I am very fortunate; my husband you know is so much in love with me that he will not mind even if the biscuits are heavy. Will you dear?"

"I don't like biscuits anyway," Paul's voice was already growing thick.

"Lock with you there anyway Cleo," consoled Connie. The crowd came straggling in; the radio was turned on, and we danced.

"Come on Cleo," I turned to find Chick standing beside me holding out his arms. "Wait until I finish this cocktail, Cleo, and I'll dance with you myself," called Paul.

"Perhaps your hostess will be polite enough to wait for you, soldier-man, but I confess I have not strength to refuse when a handsome man that you entreats."

Paul started forward. "I could see he was angry, but I danced with Chick. I noticed, however, out of the corner of my eye that he finished his cocktail very quickly and that he and Connie followed us.

"I'm glad I'm leaving tomorrow," I hadn't intended to say it out loud and I almost lost step as the words became audible. "Can't be you are jealous already?" Chick asked.

"Not at all, but every time we come over here Connie gets my husband squiffy and he's crosser than a bear the next morning. I think she does it on purpose."

"Now you're talking like a wife. Don't you know Cleo that Connie doesn't care. It's not her husband. She doesn't have to endure the grouch of a morning after."

"Well I'm glad I'm going away and I might as well own up to it." "So I'm going to lose you tomorrow, Cleo. What am I going to do all the rest of my life? I think I'll join the army, get sent to your husband's regiment and become his striker."

"Don't joke, Chick. I'm almost homesick already—I'm almost wishing—"

"What are you wishing sweet-heart?"

"You mustn't call me that, Chick, and I mustn't tell you what I'm wishing."

"You don't have to tell me, Cleo, Cleo, dear. Do you suppose for one moment that if I were married to you, I would be hanging around Connie Terhune all the time?"

"You can't tell what you'd do, Chick. Everybody does very differently after marriage from what he had thought he would do. That is one of the things I have learned in the last ten days."

PRIZES OFFERED IN ESSAY CONTEST

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 12.—Two hundred dollars in cash prizes will be offered for the best essays written by high school and grade school students in the Prize Essay Contest to be conducted between now and September 15, by the All-Oregon 1925 Exposition Committee according to an announcement made today.

Contestants will write on one of two general subjects: (1) Oregon-made products, or (2) the educational and cultural values of art. The subjects were deemed appropriate inasmuch as the All-Oregon 1925 Exposition, to be held in Portland, October 5 to 19 inclusive, will feature Oregon-made goods. The exposition itself is planned to promote the cause of art in Oregon.

The state prizes are as follows: The High School Contest: $50 for first place; $30 for second place, and $20 for third place. Grade School Contest: $50 for first place; $30 for second place, and $20 for third place.

The All-Oregon 1925 Exposition Committee, which offers the awards, will make an effort to offer prizes for the best essays written in each county, but no announcement will be made on this plan as yet.

Essays must be confined in a general way to the two subjects mentioned above: (1) Oregon-made products, or (2) the educational and cultural values of art, but the contestant may choose his own title and, of course, his subject matter so long as they fall within one of the two headings mentioned. The committee suggests the following titles as an example of what is desired, but the contestant is not necessarily restricted to those titles, as has been stated. In fact, an original and striking title, provided it falls within one of the two general heads, may be one of the factors in weighing the merit of an essay.

The suggested titles: 1. The Economic Importance of Oregon-made Goods. 2. Oregon's Basic Industries and their Relation to the Welfare of the State. 3. The Value of a State-wide Oregon Products Exposition. 4. Art as an Expression of the Characteristic Culture of a State. 5. Art as an Essential in the Education of a People. 6. The Value of an Oriental Art Exhibit to the Pacific Coast.

Essays must be written legibly in ink or (preferably) typewritten, double-spaced, and have wide margins. The size of paper should be 8 1/2 by 11 inches. The contestant should write on one side of the paper only.

Essays must not exceed 800 words. Any exceeding 800 words will not be considered by the judges of the contest. All direct quotations in essays must be enclosed in the quotation marks.

The essays must be in the hands of the Secretary of the All-Oregon 1925 Exposition Committee, 651 Court House, Portland, Ore., not later than September 15.

The contest judges are: Judge Charles H. Carey, former president of the Oregon Writers' League and author and historian; Anthony Euwer, poet and illustrator, and Dean Eric W. Allen of the University of Oregon School of Journalism.

The subjects in the All-Oregon Exposition Essay Contest are designed to bring out the knowledge of the contestant of the role played in the economic life of the state by Oregon manufacturers and of the importance of art in the life of a community. The All-Oregon 1925 Exposition, to be held in the Civic Auditorium in Portland, October 5 to 19, will be one of the most significant and comprehensive displays of Oregon products ever held. A small admission fee will be charged. The proceeds from this source will go toward a fund to finance a state Fine Arts Building, to be constructed at some future date on the campus of the University of Oregon.

The prizes are $10 and $5 for first and second awards. The first class district winners for the state were Dorothy Slead, 6th grade Medford, and Clyde Fisk, 8th grade Pendleton. CITY CLEANUP UNDER WAY

The city clean up is progressing in a very satisfactory manner, and from all appearances is more thorough and complete than ever before. Throughout the entire city residents have gathered up tons of old rubbish, which has been placed in sacks, boxes, and other containers and piled out along the curbs. Hauling has already started, and will continue throughout the week.

ANNUAL CLEAN UP

The annual Clean Up of the City of Roseburg will be held from this date until the evening of May 12th and all parties interested are requested to have their rubbish ready by that time. The City will haul free all rubbish placed conveniently along the curbs in proper containers within that time, but special attention is called to the fact that it is necessary that all such rubbish be placed in good substantial containers, either sacks or boxes, and if not so contained will not be picked up. Sacks should be used. A charge will be made for hauling all rubbish placed on the streets after May 12th.
