GOVERNMENT HITS A SNAG IN BOOZE TRIAL
(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13.—The government struck a snag today in the trial of Oscar Lund and others charged with rum running, when Mrs. Edna M. McDublin, former special federal prohibition agent, found difficulty in answering questions of assistant United States District Attorney Stearns.

She told of meeting Dean Thomas, one of the defendants. After she met Thomas, she saw him nearly every day. But as to his telling her about bringing in liquor and of his statements on July 1924, the night of his arrest in Warrenton, Ore, she could not recall. After looking at the notes she had kept she said:—

"Mr. Thomas was slightly drunk one night and he made a statement that he had several hundred cases of liquor coming in inside of ten days. He said he would smile to see the government get him—and they got him—"

Asked regarding her friendship for Thomas, she replied:—

"I cannot see that it is necessary to discuss things that happened since I quit the employment of the government."

Stearns asked the direct question whether she and Thomas are engaged, but Mrs. McDublin promptly answered: "No we are not."

Upon continued questioning regarding the turn the case had taken, the witness said: "I think lots of him, yes."
