

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By BEULAH JEWETT

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Attractive Party for Bride-Elect Saturday

Miss Teika Haynes, whose wedding has been announced for June 12, has been the inspiration for a round of parties and social affairs during the past weeks. On Saturday afternoon Miss Vernita Kohlhaugen and Miss Beulah Jarvis entertained at bridge and sewing at the Kohlhaugen home in West Roseburg, complimenting Miss Haynes. May baskets and potted plants filled the rooms with the delightful fragrance of pink time, and the luncheon tables were daintily in a color motif of pink and white, centered with small May Baskets filled with pink sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

High score at bridge was held by Miss Helen Casey, and when the guest prize was brought to Miss Haynes, it was revealed to be a surprise plate shower to which all the guests had contributed. Many beautiful silver, cut glass, and hand-painted plates were presented to the bride-elect.

Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen assisted the hostesses through the afternoon. The guest list included: Misses Teika Haynes, Helen Casey, Beulah Jewett, Katherine Merrill, Marion Parter, Myra Henderson, Alice Ueland, Jane Wharton, Bertha Wharton, Lois Geddes; Mesdames A. M. Thorne, I. B. Riddle, F. W. Haynes, J. H. Booth, C. W. Wharton, H. H. Stapleton, J. D. Osborn, Charles S. Heinlein, F. L. Strang, Glenn Wimberly, Geo. Bradburn, Nathan Fullerton, Irvin Brunn, M. F. Rice, Bert G. Bates.

Delegates Go to District Convention

Eleven delegates from the Neighbors of Woodcraft Lodge here, are in attendance at the District Convention that order in Grants Pass which started yesterday and will close tonight. The delegates are Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Leona McDonald, Mrs. H. Hildinger, Mrs. William Wetherall, Mrs. D. W. Taylor, Mrs. Donna Oakley, Mrs. George Quine, Mrs. Dora Gilbert, Miss Carrie Gilbert, Mrs. Frank Register, Mrs. Tillie Johnson, and Mrs. I. T. Whitney. Mrs. Johnson is also a district officer. This district extends from Eugene to Klamath Falls, and takes in the coast towns, so that a large number of delegates attend the convention. A representative of the Grand Lodge also attends and delegates are elected for Grand Lodge in June.

Kitchen Shower for Miss Dyrma Price

Miss Dyrma Price, whose engagement to Phil F. Strader, of Dixonville, was recently announced, was the surprised recipient of a kitchen shower on Saturday evening, arranged by the members of the Bellview Club of which Miss Price's mother, Mrs. W. F. Price is a member. The shower was also a surprise for Mrs. Price.

A large number of both clever and useful kitchen gifts, made in a mock kitchen maid, were given to Miss Price, and a mock wedding was performed under a huge bell, with several of the tiny tots, in appropriate costumes, as the principals. While the ceremony was being performed, Phyllis Beckley, and Miss Price, sang "Oh, Promises" and "Jack and Jill" as a minister, uniting in marriage, Barbara Bell and David Bell, with Thelma Lovelace as flower girl and Eddy Boyer as ring bearer.

After the ceremony there were appropriate readings by Mrs. W. E. Boise, Mrs. R. L. McLaughlin, Mrs. Fred Boyer, and vocal solos by Miss Doris Price. A delicious luncheon was served at the Price home, home near by where the men had gathered for the evening.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckley, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Boise, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Banning, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keener, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. A. Agos, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Price, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Boise, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Price, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Beckley, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Arthur, Mrs. C. R. Bell, Mrs. W. W. Parker, Mrs. George Stearns, Mrs. C. E. Rosebud, Mrs. A. A. Murphy, Mrs. J. B. Hughes, Miss Doris Price, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Dyrma Price, Mr. L. Parker, Mr. Phil F. Strader, Mr. Orval Agos, Mr. Clifton Agos, and Mr. G. T. Saunders.

L. F. T. Club to Enjoy Dinner Dance at Tavern

One of the largest events of next week, planned for the quiet before Carnival days, will be the dinner dance for the members of the L. F. T. club at the Wigwam Tavern, Tuesday evening, starting at eight. This is the first out-of-town dance of this club, but plans are being made for several such affairs to lend variety during the summer months. The recently completed Wigwam Tavern has an excellent cuisine and large dancing space to care for clubs and parties of this kind. A Roseburg orchestra will play.

Pianoforte Recital at Canyonville on Monday

Mrs. Hedwig K. Watzig, of Canyonville will present a number of her pupils in a pianoforte recital at the M. E. Church of Canyonville, Monday evening, May 18. Assisting artists are Mrs. Margaret Porter, soprano, L. J. Barnes, reader, and Louis J. Langenberg, saxophone. The program will include the following numbers: Grand Marche De Concert, Wollenhaupt, Echo Pardee; The Butterfly (Etude de Concert), Lavalley, Elsie Pardee; Paper Dolls, "A Glimpse into the History of Music", Echo Pardee; La Carline, Louis Ganne, Helene Carden; Reception Waltz, Marion Sarone, Waltz Op 18, Lois Bartley; Over the Summer Sea, (Rigolotto), Louis J. Langenberg; saxophone; Marie Langenberg, at piano; Salute de Amour, Elgar, Echo Pardee; Minuet—op. 14, Padreswaki, Seranata, Moszkowski, Elsie Pardee; Intermezzo, (Cavelleria Rusticana), Lovos Dream After the Ball, Arranged by G. Rossy, Helene Carden; reading, L. J. Barnes; Chant Sans Paroles, Tschalkowsky, Valde Op. 64, Echo Pardee; Andante (Surprise Symphony), Hydn—Sant, Suenis, Elsie Pardee; Soprano, Mrs. Margaret Porter; Rigolotto (four hands), Verdi-Bellema, Echo and Elsie Pardee.

Former Roseburg Man Is Author

C. Louis Barzee, formerly of Roseburg, now instructor of history at Benson Polytechnic School, Portland, Oregon, is the author of an attractive book, "A Song of the Columbia River Highway," published in Portland in April of this year. The book is profusely illustrated with beautiful photographs of the spots he describes in his poem which is filled with a love and reverence for the scenic marvels along the highway.

Cast of Operetta Banquet Instructor

Following the final presentation of the Japanese operetta "The Japanese Girl" at the Helpline Conservatory Monday evening, the members of the cast enjoyed a banquet at the Orange Lantern Tea Room, inviting the instructor Mrs. Charles A. Brand to be their guest. A large beautiful born was given to Mrs. Brand in appreciation of her work on the successful production.

Teachers Meet to Chat and Sew

A group of teachers which has been meeting every two weeks to chat and sew, spent Wednesday evening of this week with Miss Elsie Canterbury at the home of Mrs. William H. Rose. Gladhill and columbine were attractively arranged in the rooms, and the luncheon table was centered with a mirrored cluster of pink roses, surrounded by a wreath of the same flower.

Famous Poet Dies on May 12

The death of Amy Lowell, internationally known as the head of the free verse school of poetry, and sister of President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University, which occurred on May 12, at Brookline, Mass., will be keenly felt in literary circles.

Shower for Miss Rusko Is Event of Week

Among the many parties of the week for summer brides was a luncheon and shower on Thursday for which Mrs. M. F. Rice was hostess, complimenting Miss Marguerite Rusko, whose engagement to Rudolph H. Lindner was recently announced. A dainty color motif of pink and white predominated at the luncheon table with a large floral arrangement of pink Cecil Brunner roses and mock orange blossoms in the center with small baskets of the roses at each place.

Mrs. Jost Hostess to Past Patrons Club

Mrs. W. S. Jost invited the members of the Past Matrons Club to her home Tuesday afternoon for the regular business and social meeting, serving a delicious luncheon after the pleasant afternoon. Among the guests were Mrs. John Runyan, Mrs. Albert Abraham, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. H. S. French, Mrs. T. B. Vignier, Mrs. C. G. Reymers and Mrs. T. E. Singleton.

D. A. R. Elect Officers at Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. Wm. Bell Monday, drew a large number of more candidates for graduation in that organization. Annual election of officers was held with Mrs. F. H. Churchill as regent; Mrs. R. H. Grinstead, vice-regent; Mrs. Camp F. Cayler secretary; Mrs. David Busenark, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Sowerby, historian; three directors, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. D. C. Hennigh, and Mrs. E. B. Stewart. Mrs. Smick was appointed chaplain. The new officers were installed and annual reports were made by the retiring officers. The meeting opened with the singing of America and the reading of the Allegiance to the Flag, and the American's Creed.

Recently the D. A. R. offered cash prizes to the girl or boy in the seventh and eighth grades of the schools of the county who wrote the best essay on pioneer history. The essays were read at this meeting, and the prizes were awarded as follows: 1st prize $5 to Vellemonte Morris of Rose school; 2nd prize $3 to Ethelena Cook of Drew; 3rd prize of $2.50 to Ruth Morey of the youth club; 4th prize of $1 to Verma Kafer of Glendale.

New Idea Club Members Are Luncheon Guests

Sweet rockets, iris, roses and a quantity of spring flowers combined to make the rooms of the home of Mrs. T. S. Sprague pleasant on Wednesday when she served a one o'clock luncheon to the members of the New Idea Club of Edenwood. Covers were placed for Mrs. F. A. Clemens, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. Clarence Sims, Mrs. S. D. Cooley, Mrs. Meade Cooley, Mrs. Paul Beaver, Mrs. F. D. Owen, Mrs. R. H. Williams, Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. C. F. Calkins, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. F. L. Calkins, Mrs. F. A. Stewart, the hostess Mrs. T. S. Sprague and one guest Mrs. G. G. Sewell.

The club has had a call from the county health nurse for baby clothes for needy families and sewed through the afternoon, finishing three layettes for that purpose. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. F. A. Stewart.

Kindergarten Recital at Conservatory Tuesday

One of the important musical events of next week announced by the Helpline Conservatory is the annual kindergarten recital on Tuesday evening, May 19 at 7:20 o'clock at the Conservatory. An unusually interesting program has been arranged including rhythmic games, piano solos, readings, ensemble, a Dunning demonstration, and a playlet by the talented youngsters who are members of the kindergarten classes.

Bellview Club Members Have Pleasant Afternoon

A pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed by the members of the Bellview Club at the home of Mrs. G. W. Kincaid, Thursday, with Mrs. R. C. Lovelace, assisting the hostess. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon, to Mrs. Z. W. Parker, Mrs. J. J. Keener, Mrs. F. Boyer, Mrs. E. E. Boyer, Mrs. W. A. Pearce, Mrs. P. W. Beckley, Mrs. J. O. Arthur, Mrs. Lovelace and Mrs. Kincaid. The next hostess will be Mrs. W. A. Pearce on June 11.

Mrs. Winston to Be Hostess to Club

The members of the Roseburg Woman's Club will motor to Winston on Tuesday afternoon to be the guests of Mrs. W. C. Winston. This will be a social meeting with a musical program. At the business meeting the new officers will be installed and reports will be given by the old officers. All club members, not having a way to go, are requested to see Mrs. W. C. Winston, Darby and Baldwin's store at 1:30 and cars will be provided.

High School P. T. A. to Meet on Tuesday

The Parents Teachers Circle of the high school will meet at the high school Tuesday evening. After the business meeting Miss Lois Cobb will give a reading, Miss Suzie Sennin Severance will sing, and the Senior Severance orchestra will play several numbers. There will also be a talk. The meeting will convene at eight.

Queen's Ball Thursday to Be Big Event

The event of next week which will take precedence over all others, is the annual Queen's Ball on Thursday evening opening night of the Carnival. On this evening as usual, the Queen and her maids, with the King, and other members of the court, will direct the parade ball at which hundreds of the royal rulers' legal subjects will attend. The amusement committee of the Carnival has arranged for some unusual entertainment on that evening with a novel program preceding the dance, that will entertain everyone. The Blue Devils orchestra will play.

Roseburg Girl to Graduate from O. A. C.

For her week end guest Miss Beatrice Edmondson, of Eugene, Miss Etel Shrum will be hostess at a small dinner party at Wigwam Tavern, at eight o'clock, tonight. Covers will be placed for Miss Edmondson, Miss Inez Reibel, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Evelyn Noland, Mr. Frank Clemens, Mr. Ivan Pickens, Mr. M. E. Cooper, Mr. Lester Wimberly, Mr. Lynn Skinner and Miss Shrum. Cluster of dainty sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses will make the table appointments attractive and the color motif will be carried out in the place cards. Dancing will be enjoyed at the Tavern later.

Miss Shrum Hostess at Dinner Tonight

For her week end guest Miss Beatrice Edmondson, of Eugene, Miss Etel Shrum will be hostess at a small dinner party at Wigwam Tavern, at eight o'clock, tonight. Covers will be placed for Miss Edmondson, Miss Inez Reibel, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Evelyn Noland, Mr. Frank Clemens, Mr. Ivan Pickens, Mr. M. E. Cooper, Mr. Lester Wimberly, Mr. Lynn Skinner and Miss Shrum. Cluster of dainty sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses will make the table appointments attractive and the color motif will be carried out in the place cards. Dancing will be enjoyed at the Tavern later.

Mrs. Baum Entertains Friends This Week

Mrs. A. Baum has been hostess at several charming parties this week, including two bridge luncheons, one on Tuesday and one today. The guest list Tuesday included Mesdames George Wharton, Jack Wharton, R. L. Geddes, H. D. Harris, Ben Zigler, V. M. Peterson, J. I. Love, A. G. Sutherland, Stanley Kilder, John Enzer, E. T. Madden, George Bacher, Harold Fee, H. C. Waddell, Theodore Tremper, and Paul Bubar. High score was held by Mrs. Waddell, and low by Mrs. Fee.

Mrs. Baum Is Luncheon Hostess on Thursday

Mrs. A. Baum was a luncheon hostess Thursday seating her guests roses and iris. Covers were placed for Mrs. F. W. Benson of Eugene, Mrs. Lucy Dezenoff of Washington D. C., Mrs. Albert Abraham, Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, Mrs. C. S. Heinlein, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. Binger Herman, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Caroline Willis, Mrs. Geo. Hoek, Mrs. Victor Rice, Mrs. L. Skinner, and Mrs. George Sewell. A number of old friends of Mrs. Benson and Mrs. Dezenoff came in later in the afternoon to chat for an hour.

Camp Fire Girls Meet With Mrs. Kearney

Mrs. T. J. Kearney, assistant leader of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls invited the girls to her home for the regular meeting on Friday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the month and girls will continue on the Carnival grounds during the Strawberry Carnival, and it was decided to enter the booth under the name of the Orange Lantern Tea Room. Chatting and music entertained the girls after the business meeting.

Committees Announced for Rose Show

Plans for the annual Rose Show one of the main Carnival events, have been completed by the Roseburg Woman's Club, which organization has this event in charge, and point to one of the most successful and complete displays of any year. The show will be held in the Skyes building next to the Terminal Hotel and will last all 3 days.

"So This Is London" Will Show Here

"So This Is London," with Lawrence D'Orsay as the star and a company on a par with that seen on Broadway will be the attraction at the Antlers, Saturday evening, May 23rd. It should prove the amusement event of the year in this city and according to Henry Duffy, the producer, the cast is the peer of any to appear in several seasons.

Delicious Luncheon Served to Bridge Club

Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. Irvin Brunn joined in offering hospitality to the members of the Friday bridge club this week, serving a delicious luncheon at one o'clock at an attractively appointed table. Covers were placed for Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. V. M. Peterson, Mrs. Kay Adams, Mrs. A. A. Sanford, W. F. Chapman, Miss Casey, T. B. Virden, Roy Bellows, Mark Thiede, Henry Booth, C. S. Heinlein, George Hoek, F. W. Benson, Binger Herman, Allan Carson, George Neuner, W. C. Harding, Alvin Kaufman, George Kohlhaugen, H. H. Stapleton, Miss Teika Haynes, Beulah Jarvis, Helen Casey, Vernita Kohlhaugen, Beulah Jewett, Gertrude Rast, Jane Wharton, Beas Wharton, Alice Ueland, Evelyn Noland, Elizabeth Parrott, Rosa R. Parrott, Lois Geddes.

Miss Winnifred Bates Given Farewell Party

The departure of Miss Winnifred Bates for Los Angeles today, occasioned the gathering of a number of her friends at the home of Miss Vernita Kohlhaugen in West Roseburg Thursday evening. A lovely farewell gift was presented to Miss Bates. The evening passed quickly with chatting and radio music, and fortune telling by Mrs. Mary Hulla. A dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Large Party Honors Miss Teika Haynes

Miss Teika Haynes was again complimented on Friday evening when Mrs. George Bradburn, and Mrs. J. G. Broadway invited a number of guests to the Bradburn home at Winston in her honor. At the bridge tables Miss Evelyn Noland held high score, and Miss Haynes received the guest prize.

Queen's Ball Thursday to Be Big Event

The event of next week which will take precedence over all others, is the annual Queen's Ball on Thursday evening opening night of the Carnival. On this evening as usual, the Queen and her maids, with the King, and other members of the court, will direct the parade ball at which hundreds of the royal rulers' legal subjects will attend. The amusement committee of the Carnival has arranged for some unusual entertainment on that evening with a novel program preceding the dance, that will entertain everyone. The Blue Devils orchestra will play.

Mrs. Baum Entertains Friends This Week

Mrs. A. Baum has been hostess at several charming parties this week, including two bridge luncheons, one on Tuesday and one today. The guest list Tuesday included Mesdames George Wharton, Jack Wharton, R. L. Geddes, H. D. Harris, Ben Zigler, V. M. Peterson, J. I. Love, A. G. Sutherland, Stanley Kilder, John Enzer, E. T. Madden, George Bacher, Harold Fee, H. C. Waddell, Theodore Tremper, and Paul Bubar. High score was held by Mrs. Waddell, and low by Mrs. Fee.

Mrs. Baum Is Luncheon Hostess on Thursday

Mrs. A. Baum was a luncheon hostess Thursday seating her guests roses and iris. Covers were placed for Mrs. F. W. Benson of Eugene, Mrs. Lucy Dezenoff of Washington D. C., Mrs. Albert Abraham, Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, Mrs. C. S. Heinlein, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. Binger Herman, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Caroline Willis, Mrs. Geo. Hoek, Mrs. Victor Rice, Mrs. L. Skinner, and Mrs. George Sewell. A number of old friends of Mrs. Benson and Mrs. Dezenoff came in later in the afternoon to chat for an hour.

Camp Fire Girls Meet With Mrs. Kearney

Mrs. T. J. Kearney, assistant leader of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls invited the girls to her home for the regular meeting on Friday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the month and girls will continue on the Carnival grounds during the Strawberry Carnival, and it was decided to enter the booth under the name of the Orange Lantern Tea Room. Chatting and music entertained the girls after the business meeting.

Committees Announced for Rose Show

Plans for the annual Rose Show one of the main Carnival events, have been completed by the Roseburg Woman's Club, which organization has this event in charge, and point to one of the most successful and complete displays of any year. The show will be held in the Skyes building next to the Terminal Hotel and will last all 3 days.

"So This Is London" Will Show Here

"So This Is London," with Lawrence D'Orsay as the star and a company on a par with that seen on Broadway will be the attraction at the Antlers, Saturday evening, May 23rd. It should prove the amusement event of the year in this city and according to Henry Duffy, the producer, the cast is the peer of any to appear in several seasons.

Delicious Luncheon Served to Bridge Club

Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. Irvin Brunn joined in offering hospitality to the members of the Friday bridge club this week, serving a delicious luncheon at one o'clock at an attractively appointed table. Covers were placed for Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. V. M. Peterson, Mrs. Kay Adams, Mrs. A. A. Sanford, W. F. Chapman, Miss Casey, T. B. Virden, Roy Bellows, Mark Thiede, Henry Booth, C. S. Heinlein, George Hoek, F. W. Benson, Binger Herman, Allan Carson, George Neuner, W. C. Harding, Alvin Kaufman, George Kohlhaugen, H. H. Stapleton, Miss Teika Haynes, Beulah Jarvis, Helen Casey, Vernita Kohlhaugen, Beulah Jewett, Gertrude Rast, Jane Wharton, Beas Wharton, Alice Ueland, Evelyn Noland, Elizabeth Parrott, Rosa R. Parrott, Lois Geddes.

Miss Winnifred Bates Given Farewell Party

The departure of Miss Winnifred Bates for Los Angeles today, occasioned the gathering of a number of her friends at the home of Miss Vernita Kohlhaugen in West Roseburg Thursday evening. A lovely farewell gift was presented to Miss Bates. The evening passed quickly with chatting and radio music, and fortune telling by Mrs. Mary Hulla. A dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Large Party Honors Miss Teika Haynes

Miss Teika Haynes was again complimented on Friday evening when Mrs. George Bradburn, and Mrs. J. G. Broadway invited a number of guests to the Bradburn home at Winston in her honor. At the bridge tables Miss Evelyn Noland held high score, and Miss Haynes received the guest prize.

Queen's Ball Thursday to Be Big Event

The event of next week which will take precedence over all others, is the annual Queen's Ball on Thursday evening opening night of the Carnival. On this evening as usual, the Queen and her maids, with the King, and other members of the court, will direct the parade ball at which hundreds of the royal rulers' legal subjects will attend. The amusement committee of the Carnival has arranged for some unusual entertainment on that evening with a novel program preceding the dance, that will entertain everyone. The Blue Devils orchestra will play.

Miss Shrum Hostess at Dinner Tonight

For her week end guest Miss Beatrice Edmondson, of Eugene, Miss Etel Shrum will be hostess at a small dinner party at Wigwam Tavern, at eight o'clock, tonight. Covers will be placed for Miss Edmondson, Miss Inez Reibel, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Evelyn Noland, Mr. Frank Clemens, Mr. Ivan Pickens, Mr. M. E. Cooper, Mr. Lester Wimberly, Mr. Lynn Skinner and Miss Shrum. Cluster of dainty sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses will make the table appointments attractive and the color motif will be carried out in the place cards. Dancing will be enjoyed at the Tavern later.

Mrs. Baum Entertains Friends This Week

Mrs. A. Baum has been hostess at several charming parties this week, including two bridge luncheons, one on Tuesday and one today. The guest list Tuesday included Mesdames George Wharton, Jack Wharton, R. L. Geddes, H. D. Harris, Ben Zigler, V. M. Peterson, J. I. Love, A. G. Sutherland, Stanley Kilder, John Enzer, E. T. Madden, George Bacher, Harold Fee, H. C. Waddell, Theodore Tremper, and Paul Bubar. High score was held by Mrs. Waddell, and low by Mrs. Fee.

Mrs. Baum Is Luncheon Hostess on Thursday

Mrs. A. Baum was a luncheon hostess Thursday seating her guests roses and iris. Covers were placed for Mrs. F. W. Benson of Eugene, Mrs. Lucy Dezenoff of Washington D. C., Mrs. Albert Abraham, Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, Mrs. C. S. Heinlein, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. Binger Herman, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Caroline Willis, Mrs. Geo. Hoek, Mrs. Victor Rice, Mrs. L. Skinner, and Mrs. George Sewell. A number of old friends of Mrs. Benson and Mrs. Dezenoff came in later in the afternoon to chat for an hour.

Camp Fire Girls Meet With Mrs. Kearney

Mrs. T. J. Kearney, assistant leader of the Umpqua Camp Fire Girls invited the girls to her home for the regular meeting on Friday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the month and girls will continue on the Carnival grounds during the Strawberry Carnival, and it was decided to enter the booth under the name of the Orange Lantern Tea Room. Chatting and music entertained the girls after the business meeting.

Committees Announced for Rose Show

Plans for the annual Rose Show one of the main Carnival events, have been completed by the Roseburg Woman's Club, which organization has this event in charge, and point to one of the most successful and complete displays of any year. The show will be held in the Skyes building next to the Terminal Hotel and will last all 3 days.

"So This Is London" Will Show Here

"So This Is London," with Lawrence D'Orsay as the star and a company on a par with that seen on Broadway will be the attraction at the Antlers, Saturday evening, May 23rd. It should prove the amusement event of the year in this city and according to Henry Duffy, the producer, the cast is the peer of any to appear in several seasons.

Delicious Luncheon Served to Bridge Club

Mrs. Clair K. Allen and Mrs. Irvin Brunn joined in offering hospitality to the members of the Friday bridge club this week, serving a delicious luncheon at one o'clock at an attractively appointed table. Covers were placed for Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. V. M. Peterson, Mrs. Kay Adams, Mrs. A. A. Sanford, W. F. Chapman, Miss Casey, T. B. Virden, Roy Bellows, Mark Thiede, Henry Booth, C. S. Heinlein, George Hoek, F. W. Benson, Binger Herman, Allan Carson, George Neuner, W. C. Harding, Alvin Kaufman, George Kohlhaugen, H. H. Stapleton, Miss Teika Haynes, Beulah Jarvis, Helen Casey, Vernita Kohlhaugen, Beulah Jewett, Gertrude Rast, Jane Wharton, Beas Wharton, Alice Ueland, Evelyn Noland, Elizabeth Parrott, Rosa R. Parrott, Lois Geddes.

Miss Winnifred Bates Given Farewell Party

The departure of Miss Winnifred Bates for Los Angeles today, occasioned the gathering of a number of her friends at the home of Miss Vernita Kohlhaugen in West Roseburg Thursday evening. A lovely farewell gift was presented to Miss Bates. The evening passed quickly with chatting and radio music, and fortune telling by Mrs. Mary Hulla. A dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Large Party Honors Miss Teika Haynes

Miss Teika Haynes was again complimented on Friday evening when Mrs. George Bradburn, and Mrs. J. G. Broadway invited a number of guests to the Bradburn home at Winston in her honor. At the bridge tables Miss Evelyn Noland held high score, and Miss Haynes received the guest prize.

Queen's Ball Thursday to Be Big Event

The event of next week which will take precedence over all others, is the annual Queen's Ball on Thursday evening opening night of the Carnival. On this evening as usual, the Queen and her maids, with the King, and other members of the court, will direct the parade ball at which hundreds of the royal rulers' legal subjects will attend. The amusement committee of the Carnival has arranged for some unusual entertainment on that evening with a novel program preceding the dance, that will entertain everyone. The Blue Devils orchestra will play.

CITY IS STRUCK BY ELECTRICAL AND RAIN STORM

A severe electrical storm struck Roseburg on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, and within a period of 20 minutes approximately 2 1/2 inches of rain fell. The rain was registered at the U. S. Weather Bureau station. The storm struck with the violence almost of a cloudburst and for a few minutes the streets were running almost level with water, which in some places flooded over the curbs. Lightning struck the power lines near the city, and blew out the fuses at the North Roseburg sub station, so that it was necessary to throw in the emergency plant at Winchester for a few minutes. The damage to the power lines, put the telephone service out of commission also for a few minutes, until the auxiliary power unit in the exchange could be tied in. Rain continued to fall throughout the night, and showers were continuous during the morning. The weather bureau reported a total precipitation of 24 hundredths of an inch for the 24 hours ending at 5 a. m., which was probably brought to almost one half an inch by noon today. The forecast is for continued unsettled weather with showers over Sunday.

Friends Surprise Wave Friend Friday Evening

A gay group of the younger set called for Friday evening at the Fred Reed home on Stephens street to surprise Miss Wave Reed. Games and music entertained the young people, and a dainty luncheon was served. In the group were Margaret Baum, Eileen Druicker, Phyllis Powell, Alice Williams, Mildred Schenker, Mildred Ohman, Mahnon Wimer, Alice Malcolm, Maxine Stearns Gertrude Ogilvie, Pezzy Lockwood, Charles Yokum, Baxter Moore Robert Lahey, Wallace Creglow, Gaylord Bowden, Leo Jarvis, Dorance McKerty, Warren Robertson, Charles Noble, Lloyd Brown, William Fisher, Harry Dorman, and Kenneth Artbury.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 16.—

Myrtle M. Ballif of Roseburg is a member of the 1925 graduating class, the highest in the history of the institution. The number of candidates for graduation is conservatively estimated at 530. Miss Ballif is majoring in finance and administration. Though she has earned all her expenses by doing secretarial work for various members of the faculty she has been active in student affairs. She was secretary of the O. A. A. of the O. A. C. orchestra.

Mrs. Jost Hostess to Card Club

The members of the O. F. F. card club met this week with Mrs. W. S. Jost as hostess, with Mrs. Hannah receiving high score at cards, and Mrs. Payton low. At play were Mesdames Frank Brown, George Clark, Freeman, C. E. Hangan, H. H. Hildinger, Ed Payton, A. H. Perrin, J. G. Stephenson, Chas. Wansley, Henry Worthington, Salie McClung, Harpster, Ora Welck, J. S. Sager, and Clayton Negley.

Mrs. Jost Hostess to Card Club

Mrs. Frances Howell who has been a guest in Portland for several weeks of her niece, Mrs. Leslie McHenry, arrived in Roseburg this morning accompanied by Mrs. McHenry, who will be a guest here of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, for several weeks.

Youngsters Enjoy Gay Party Today

In honor of the joint birthday anniversaries of Frances Fream and Horace Pemberton, Mrs. C. R. Fream invited the members of their kindergarten class to an informal party at her home this afternoon. After several hours of games a dainty luncheon was served the children. Invited were Fanny Lee Wimberly, Mary Ellen Darby, Virginia Darrs Friend, Eleanor Hildebrand, Jean Strawn, Hazel Frances Baltimore, Carol Leigh, Cora Leigh, Johnny Denn, Bobby Harris, Bobby Bellows.

Legion Auxiliary Members Will Sell Poppies

As customary, preceding Memorial Day, the members of the Legion Auxiliary will sell poppies on the streets of Roseburg on May 29th, the proceeds from the sale to go to the disabled soldiers who made the poppies. A large consignment has been ordered for Roseburg and the Auxiliary members will sell on the streets that day, and hope to dispose of a large number of flowers.

WILBUR YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED

The home of Rev. and Mrs. George P. Trifles on Fourth Avenue, this city, was the scene of a quiet but beautiful marriage at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, May 6th, when in the presence of her family, friends, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield E. Thompson, of Wilbur, was united in marriage to Mr. Lee S. McMickle, a well known young man of that place, says the Sutherland Sun.

WINNER ANNOUNCED