

LOCAL NEWS

Visits Friends

Stanford Buell returned to his home at Millard Saturday evening after spending the day here visiting with friends.

Eugene Woman Visitor

Miss Amy Pratt, nurse of Eugene, arrived here last night, and is spending a day or so in this city visiting.

Business Visitor

G. Redfield was a Roseburg caller Saturday, and spent the day attending to business matters. He resides at Glendale.

Here From Marshfield

Claud H. Giles, an attorney of Marshfield, was in Roseburg today attending to legal matters at the local land office.

Visitor Saturday

Mrs. F. M. Curtis spent Saturday afternoon in Roseburg visiting with friends and shopping. She is a resident of Edenhower.

Mrs. Lander Visits

Mrs. Henry Lander was a visitor in this city today, spending the day on business and visiting friends. She resides at Winston.

Miss Anderson Visits

Miss Clara Anderson, who teaches at Green, was a Roseburg visitor Saturday, and spent the day shopping and visiting with friends.

From Reston

Frank Allison spent several hours in Roseburg Saturday visiting with friends and attending to business matters. He resides at Reston.

Dillard People Moving North

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lamb, who have been residing at Dillard for some time, are leaving for Albany, where they will make their home.

Visitor In City

Clayton Mather was in from southern points in the county Saturday attending to business affairs and trading. He resides at Myrtle Creek.

From Melrose

Mrs. Vincent Preschert returned to her home at Melrose Saturday afternoon after spending several hours in this city visiting and shopping.

Connors In

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conn and son spent Saturday visiting with friends and attending to business matters here. They are residents of Melrose.

Leaves for Ranger Station

George Bonbrake left Sunday for Big Camas, where he will be employed at the forestry station, remaining there for the next several weeks.

In Saturday

C. G. Fulton was among those in from southern points in the county Saturday, and spent the day attending to business matters. He resides at Myrtle Creek.

Meltons In

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Melton, who among the out of town callers today, and spent the day here shopping and visiting friends. They reside at South Deer Creek.

In Saturday

Mrs. John Sinclair was in from the rural districts Saturday visiting friends and shopping. She returned to her home at Garden Valley in the afternoon.

Business Visitor

Among the out of town callers in Roseburg Saturday was Craig Hulan, who spent some time here trading and attending to business affairs. He is an Umpqua resident.

Dr. Bell Better

Dr. J. R. N. Bell was on Corvallis streets Saturday and rode over the city in his wheel chair. He is very much improved, following a recent setback, and is happy to be out again and to greet his friends. —Corvallis Times.

Osburns Stop Over

Mr. and Mrs. Osburn, formerly owners of the Osburn Hotel at Eugene, made a visit here last night and were guests at the Umpqua Hotel. They are enroute to Marshfield after a trip to Eugene by motor. Mr. Osburn now conducts the Chandler hotel at the coast.

Arrive From San Francisco

Fred R. Russell and family of San Francisco, brother of Ralph Russell of this city, arrived in Roseburg this morning by auto enroute to Portland where they have been called to the bedside of Mr. Russell's mother. They left San Francisco Sunday morning and drove through to Roseburg without a stop, arriving here about 9:30 this morning.

Miss Shrum Leaving

Miss Ethel Shrum, who has been employed for the past year as a typewriter machine operator at News-Review office, has resigned her position and leaves in the near future for Vancouver, Wash., where she will take a position on the Vancouver Columbian. Her parents recently moved to Vancouver and her new position will enable her to be at home.

WOODMEN TAKE NOTICE

Regular meeting of Oak Camp No. 125, W. O. W. tonight at 8 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall. All members asked to be present. JOHN D. HESS, C. C.

Week End Guests

Miss Steele of Creswell, was a visitor here over the week end, and a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abrahams.

From Dixonville

Walter Leake was a business visitor in Roseburg from points east of this city for a few hours Saturday. He is a Dixonville resident.

From Glide

Mrs. Mary Gervais was an out of town visitor for several hours Saturday. She is from Glide, and was here visiting friends and shopping.

Among the visitors from points east of Roseburg Saturday was L. G. Parker, of Dixonville. Mr. Parker spent several hours looking after business matters and visiting friends.

Visitor Saturday

Mrs. F. A. Stewart returned to her home in Edenhower Saturday afternoon after spending several hours here attending to business matters and shopping.

From Dillard

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Rice were visitors from points south of Roseburg Saturday, and spent the day visiting with friends. They reside at Dillard.

On Business

H. V. Oden returned to his home at Dixonville Saturday afternoon, after spending several hours in this city visiting friends and attending to business affairs.

Visitor In Town

Arthur Blakely spent several hours in Roseburg Saturday attending to business matters and visiting with friends. Mr. Blakely resides at Glide.

Mrs. Montgomery Visits

Mrs. R. B. Montgomery returned to her home at Looking Glass Saturday afternoon, after spending several hours shopping and visiting here.

Home For Week-End

Theodore Abrahams, who is attending medical school in Portland was here over the week end visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abrahams, and friends.

Mr. Hutton In

Among the visitors in from the rural districts Saturday was R. D. Hutton, who spent some time here transacting business. He returned to his ranch at Garden Valley in the afternoon.

Enters Soldiers' Home

William Perkins, night watchman at the state house, is entering the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg. State house employees are presenting him with an appropriate gift before he leaves Salem. —Salem Statesman.

Opens Business In Eugene

Mrs. Ruth Baldersee Wheeler, a resident of Gardiner for many years and well known in Roseburg, where she has many acquaintances, will open an Oriental art shop in Eugene this week. She lived in the Orient for a long time and was in the art business there.

Currier Funeral Sunday

The funeral of the late Mrs. M. N. Currier was held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Undertaking Parlors. The chapel was filled with sorrowful friends and relatives, and many beautiful floral offerings were received. Rev. H. E. Mow, pastor of the local Christian church officiated. Interment took place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Attend Grandmother's Funeral

Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, of San Francisco, and Lyle Gray, of Seattle, Wash., grandchildren of the late Mrs. N. M. Currier, are in Roseburg, having come here to attend their grandmother's funeral, held yesterday. Mrs. Sullivan was formerly Miss Ruth Currier, of this city. Her husband operates a garage in San Francisco.

Organist Spends Week Here

Fred C. Durham, a rancher of the Tyee district for a year past, formerly organist at the Antlers and Majestic theatres in this city, is spending the week in Roseburg overhauling and tuning the instruments at those houses. He plans to absent himself from the ranch for about a year and will probably occupy the organ bench at some theatre during that period.

Engineer Accused

W. A. (Alex) Anderson, Southern Pacific engineer whose home was in Roseburg for several years, is charged with carelessness and exceeding the city speed limit in a suit for $10,000 damages brought against the railroad company at Eugene by John Mitchellbrook Sr., in behalf of his minor son, as the result of the loss of an eye and other injuries sustained January 19, 1925, when the car in which the lad was riding with his father, was struck at a Eugene street crossing by a locomotive in Anderson's charge.

Association Meets Thursday

The Young Men's Business Association held its regular weekly dinner and business meeting Thursday at 8:30 p. m. at the Orange Lantern Tea Room. Dinner was served promptly at 6:30 o'clock. Regular business was transacted, and after the committee, which was selected to choose emblems for the club, submitted its report, the association approved the report, which was that the pins would be used as emblems, and an order would be placed with one of the local jewelry houses for the pins in the near future. The organization so decided at this time to be represented in the annual Strawberry festival and would enter a small float in one of the parades.

Davis Visit

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis spent Sunday in Roseburg visiting with friends. They returned to their home at Glide in the evening.

We pay cash for dry casaca

Mr. Crouch Visits — W. N. Crouch returned to his home at Oakland this morning after spending Sunday in this city visiting with friends.

From Glendale

K. F. Kerfer returned to his home at Glendale Sunday, after spending a day or so in this city attending to business interests and visiting.

From Camas

H. Denn was among the Roseburg callers Saturday, and spent some time attending to business matters. Mr. Denn resides at Camas Valley.

From O. A. C.

George Bradburn, who is attending college at Corvallis, spent the week end visiting his parents Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Bradburn at Winston and friends.

Leaves For Medford

Miss Helen Cardwell, of this city left this morning for Medford, where she will spend a short time visiting friends.

Fined For Drunkenness

H. W. Long, of Myrtle Point, was arrested Saturday night charged with being intoxicated. He entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $25.

Stober Arrested

W. R. Stober was arrested Saturday night charged with drunkenness. He provided bail in the sum of $100 and will enter his plea at a later date.

John Thomas Fined

John Thomas, who was arrested last Friday charged with loitering appeared in the city court this morning and entered a plea of guilty, paying a fine of $50.

Leaves for Portland

George Neuner left for Portland last night after spending over here some time from San Francisco where he had spent a week on business, and visiting his family over the week end.

Glengary W. C. T. U.

The Glengary W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. D. C. McElroy at Glengary, Wednesday afternoon. There will be a Mothers Day program given, and all members are urged to attend.

Suit For Divorce

Suit for divorce was filed in the circuit court today by Brison S. mode against Mary M. Mode. Deposition is alleged. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney R. B. Compton.

Returns From Northern Trip

Mrs. Porter McMullen returned to her home in this city this morning after a three weeks visit at northern points. She visited her son E. McMullen, at Tacoma, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson at Tacoma.

Leave for Gardiner

J. H. Booth and Gene Parrott left this afternoon for Gardiner, where they will spend a couple of days attending to business matters. They will drive to Coos Bay and take the train from Marshfield to Reedsport and Gardiner.

Motor to Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bell, and son Louis Hillman, Mrs. S. W. Bell and Maynard Bell, motored to Portland and spent the week end visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell, returning Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell will come to Roseburg on Wednesday to attend the Strawberry Carnival.

Mrs. Endrup Undergoes Operation

Mrs. Chester Endrup, of this city, underwent a major operation at Mercy Hospital Sunday morning. Drs. Seiber and Stewart were in attendance. She is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected this morning. Mr. Endrup came up from Medford Friday night to be with his wife.

Business Women's Club

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club will have a very important meeting at the Heintze Conservatory tonight at 7:30. All members are urged to be present. The meeting will be short, and for the purpose of transacting some important business matters.

Woman's Club Tomorrow

The members of the Roseburg Woman's Club will motor to Winston Saturday, to the home of Mrs. W. C. Winston, who will be hostess on that day. All ladies who have no way to go are urged to be at McKean Darby and Baldwin's store no later than 1:30 so that cars may be provided for them. An interesting program has been arranged for the meeting.

Kills Rattler

J. B. Bailey, local mail carrier, brought in five rattles, from a rattlesnake which he killed Sunday south of Roseburg. Mr. Bailey with his family motored to the Azalea patch one mile north of Myrtle Creek. The party were surprised by the two foot snake in a bed of flowers. The rattler was killed by Mr. Bailey after several attempts.

E. C. Miller, formerly of this city, and well known here, passed away at Fullerton, California, Friday, following a sudden illness, according to word received by friends here today. Mr. Miller has been ill only a short time, going to bed the night before complaining of feeling indisposed. He was found dead by his wife the next morning, apparently having been dead three or four hours. He conducted a restaurant at one time on north Jackson street across from the Ochs Service company. Funeral arrangements were not announced. He leaves many friends here to grieve his death.

Dress up for the Carnival
An Appealing Assemblage of Colorful Summer Time Styles

is awaiting you at Marksbury's—smart fashions for festival days and every summertime occasion that follows—clever sports apparel, practical street clothes, pretty afternoon dresses, sweaters, correct gloves, hosiery, etc.

DRESSES

of English broadcloth, Irish linen and plain or printed voiles. Attractive styles, priced at

$3.95 to $10.95

DRESSES

of printed crepe de chine and striped silk broadcloth. Attractive colorings and styles, priced at

$16.75 to $29.75

SPORTS COATS

Prince of Wales models strictly mannish tailored, single and double breasted styles. Priced at

$19.75 to $29.75

GLOVES

of kid or fabric with the new embroidered short cuffs, white and colors that will blend with your costume. Priced at

$1.25 to $3.95

The Marksbury Company

Get a hand made hoe for any heavy hoeing. They are guaranteed. Sold at Wharton Bros.

Stapletons Return Here

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stapleton returned to their home in this city, after a motor trip to Salem where they spent some time visiting with relatives.

Dr. Melvin Home

Dr. Louis Melvin who has been at Portland for the past few days has returned to Roseburg and has resumed his work at his office. He went to Portland on business matters, but while away was stricken with influenza and was quite ill for a short time.

CAPTAINS CHOSEN

The captains for the tug-of-war between Jackson and Coos streets, which is to be one of the events of the Strawberry Carnival sport program, have been chosen and are now arranging their teams. P. M. Mathews will captain the Jackson street team, while A. T. Lawrence is rounding the rope pullers on Cass street.

Hotelmen Get Berries

A special train of Linnard line hotelmen passed through this city Saturday on the way to Seattle to attend the opening of the New Withthrop hotel at that place. They were presented with a crate of fancy strawberries and two beautiful baskets of roses upon their arrival here, the berries and roses being the gifts of R. Scott Weaver of the Umpqua Hotel.

Vida Carter left for Los Angeles

Sunday, where she will spend the next three weeks or so attending to business affairs and visit.

Brand your sheep with Kemps

branding fluid. It does not require heating and it stays on. Sold by Wharton Bros.

Buy McCormick or Deering hay

machinery. It may save your entire crop some season to be able to get repairs readily. See the McCormick-Deering line at Wharton Bros.

Mrs. H. Watzig returned to her home at Canyonville Sunday after spending a day or so in this city shopping and visiting friends.

Party Motoring South

Judge N. M. Cate, W. E. Harris, L. K. Lillquist, and Ed Dunlap, all of Portland, stopped overnight here last night as guests at the Umpqua Hotel. They are enroute to southern points.

Hotelmen Get Berries

A special train of Linnard line hotelmen passed through this city Saturday on the way to Seattle to attend the opening of the New Withthrop hotel at that place. They were presented with a crate of fancy strawberries and two beautiful baskets of roses upon their arrival here, the berries and roses being the gifts of R. Scott Weaver of the Umpqua Hotel.

Vida Carter left for Los Angeles

Sunday, where she will spend the next three weeks or so attending to business affairs and visit.

Brand your sheep with Kemps

branding fluid. It does not require heating and it stays on. Sold by Wharton Bros.

Buy McCormick or Deering hay

machinery. It may save your entire crop some season to be able to get repairs readily. See the McCormick-Deering line at Wharton Bros.

Mrs. H. Watzig returned to her home at Canyonville Sunday after spending a day or so in this city shopping and visiting friends.

RAILROAD CROSSINGS STILL MAKING MONEY FOR THE UNDERTAKER

(Associated Press Special Wire) CHICAGO, May 18.—Nearly 20 persons were killed and more than a dozen injured in auto accidents at railroad crossings throughout the country yesterday.

See the new Killifer tractor cultivator at Wharton Bros.

Agees Home

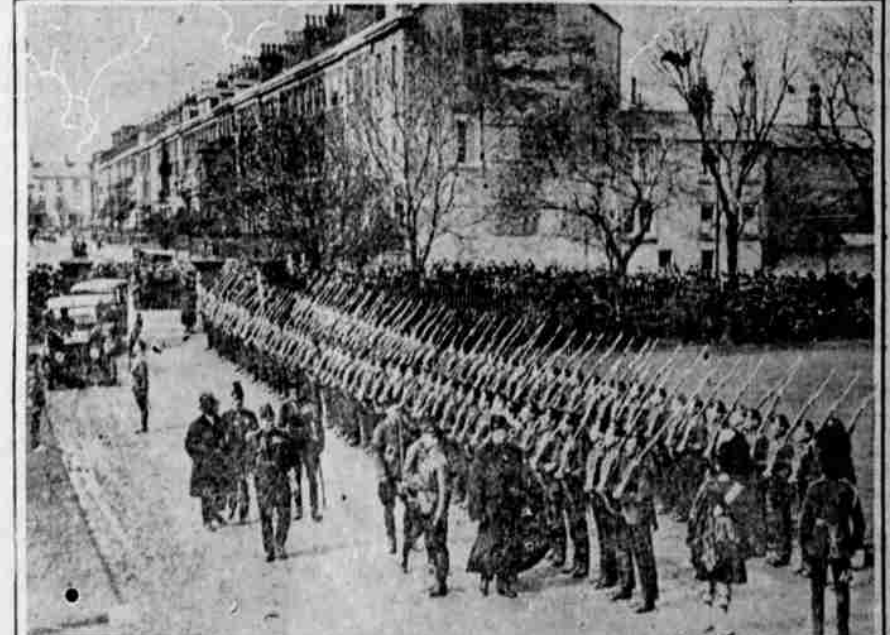

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Agee returned to this city Sunday from Portland, where Mr. Agee motored last week to visit his wife. Mrs. Agee will remain here for the summer.

A hand cultivator will save a lot of hoeing and weeding in your garden or seed-bed. See one at Wharton Bros.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

The last day of rummage sale, Wednesday, May 20. Open 9 a. m. Benefit of Women's Club building fund.

Northern Ireland Glories in Monarchical Pomp

While the Irish Free State continues its efforts to bring Ulster into its fold, the Northern Ireland state is glorying in the monarchical pomp of old. All the military display and color accompanying the state opening of the mother parliament in London attended the recent opening of the Orange parliament. The Duke of Abercorn, governor-general, is seen inspecting the guard of honor previous to the parliamentary ceremonies.

SILVER AND GOLD

When there's silver in your hair, have gold in the bank. Prepare now for a happy old age. Make yourself independent by being one of the progressive many owning savings accounts! You are invited to call, write or phone for particulars. We shall be proud to help you. We are helping many others—and suggest your prompt action!

UMPQUA VALLEY BANK

HEINLINE KINDERGARTEN RECITAL

7:30 Sharp

Tuesday, May 19th

CONSERVATORY HALL

Everybody Welcome. No Reserved Seats. Come early.

CARNIVAL COMPANY SETTING UP SHOWS READY FOR WEEK

The Kline Shows arrived in Roseburg this morning and immediately started work setting up their tents and riding devices for a week's stay in this city. They will spend the entire week here furnishing special attractions for the carnival. The company's equipment and personnel occupies fifteen cars and it was a big task to get everything unloaded and hauled to the carnival grounds. The attractions are being set up on Washington and Kane streets, and on the Catholic grounds, the tents being in numerous that it has been necessary to completely block the streets until after the carnival.

This shows offer many fine amusements and will be a decided help in making the carnival a decided success. W. B. Day, general chairman, stated today that everything is in readiness, and a number of very unique plans have been developed.

One minor change has been made necessary in the program as previously announced.

The May Pole dance, in order to accommodate the children and their instructors has been changed from Thursday afternoon to Saturday afternoon. It will take place in front of the band stand on Cass and Jackson streets.

The drawing for the prize Ford automobile will take place at the Queen's ball on Thursday night at the Armory. Through an error in the copy furnished the printer, the tickets read that the drawing will be on Friday, May 21, which should read Thursday, May 21.

COUPLE MARRIED

Marriage licenses were issued on Saturday to Jacob M. Jantzer and Mable M. Place, of this city, and to Carl L. Harper and Martha Trondt, of Glendale. Mr. Harper and Miss Trondt were immediately married at the court house, County Judge George Quins officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by several of the relatives of friends of the young couple who left at once for Glendale where they will make their home.

LEGION MEMBERS ATTENTION

Regular meeting at the Armory Tuesday night, May 19. Delegates will be elected for the convention at Prineville. Be there.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

Water will be shut off Tuesday, May 19 from 1 p. m. until 4 p. m., and affecting all consumers west and south of corner of Parrott and Lane Streets.

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

Roseburg golfers were successful on Sunday in defeating the Marshfield county club golf team by a score of 35 to 23, in a very enjoyable journey on the Roseburg country club grounds near Brown's Bridges. The members of the local club turned out in large numbers, while there was a fine representation from Marshfield. In a recent tournament at Coos Bay the Roseburg golfers were defeated and evened the tables in yesterday's match. The course was in fine shape and everyone greatly enjoyed the day. Among the Marshfield people in the party were Ted Foss, W. De Temple, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Tower, B. H. Bowley and wife, A. E. Adelberger and wife, Bob Adelberger, G. R. Thuring, Claude Nasburg, H. J. McKown, John C. Kendall and wife, J. F. Jeffrey and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stout. The Marshfield people came to Roseburg on Saturday evening and remained at the Umpqua over night, returning home Sunday evening.

ROSEBURG CLUB BEATS MARSHFIELD IN GOLF TOURNEY

Roseburg golfers were successful on Sunday in defeating the Marshfield county club golf team by a score of 35 to 23, in a very enjoyable journey on the Roseburg country club grounds near Brown's Bridges. The members of the local club turned out in large numbers, while there was a fine representation from Marshfield. In a recent tournament at Coos Bay the Roseburg golfers were defeated and evened the tables in yesterday's match. The course was in fine shape and everyone greatly enjoyed the day. Among the Marshfield people in the party were Ted Foss, W. De Temple, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Tower, B. H. Bowley and wife, A. E. Adelberger and wife, Bob Adelberger, G. R. Thuring, Claude Nasburg, H. J. McKown, John C. Kendall and wife, J. F. Jeffrey and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stout. The Marshfield people came to Roseburg on Saturday evening and remained at the Umpqua over night, returning home Sunday evening.

THE FOOD OF ALL FOODS IS BREAD AND MILK. HERE YOU HAVE BOTH INCORPORATED IN A LOAF OF GRIMM'S MILK BREAD. PHONE 133.

1847 Rogers Silver Plate We are making Special Prices On all our Silverware. Look over our line before you buy. Some real bargains. Zigler-Fee Hardware Co. Phone 25 119 NO. JACKSON WATCH OUR WINDOW FOR BARGAINS

CONSTIPATION